MAINE has gone republican by 30,000. This is the biggest majority the republi cans ever received in that state.

SPAIN has retaliated and Germany is preparing to retaliate upon the United States. All on account of democratic legislation.

THE New York Sun's welcome to the journalistic fraternity of Congressman clause of the tariff as to cut into the Bryan was hot enough, but it cannot be profits of the trust to the extent of considered cordial.

An astrologer explains it all. Grover Cleveland's "significator" is the moon. Some of his recent acts have certainly been quite mooney.

THOMAS REED has been re-elected to congress by a majority of 8,324. Two years ago his majority was only 1,677. Surely this is a republican year.

THE plate glass workers, of Pittsburg. have accepted a 20 per cent. reduction of wages since the new tariff law went into effect .- Nebraska Trade Journal.

WHEN great floods devastate a section we deem water the most dangerous element, but the great forest fires now seem to have been much worse than any flood could have been.

Ir anybody expects Secretary Carlisle to make a tariff ruling that will enable foreign sugar refiners to cut into the profits of the sugar trust they had better prepare to be disappointed.

THERE ought to be a warning for those politicians whose weakness is "playing to the grand stand," in the large number of grand stands which have been destroyed by fire this year.

HERE's Charles A. Dana's latest tribute to Mr. Cleveland: "It is not our fault that he has proved himself unworthy of confidence either as a statesman or a man of integrety and honor.'

TAMMANY is having a great fright. The waves of popular indignation have grown so high that attempts are being made to lighten the Tammany ship by throwing overboard members of the FRANK REED, of the Shelton Clipper, has been nominated by the republicans of Buffalo county as one of their candidates for representative. We wish you success Frank, and trust that you will be a member of the next legislature.

Perhaps those Greek soldiers who destroyed the office of an Athens news paper and the residence of an editor, merely wished to show their disbelief of the adage, "The pen is mightier than the sword." Every man of them deserves to have "coward" branded on his forehead.

MAINE has once more "gone hell bent for Governor Kent," or words to that effect. The returns of yesterday morning indicate the election of the republican state ticket by three times as large a majority as that of 1892. The "landwith a momentum that promises to exceed that of the palmy days of Grant in home.-State Journal.

editorial career with some very pretty have invited defeat of the state ticket promises and an attempt to name his and two congressman, with the chance successor in the house. From which it of losing a United States senator. The may be inferred that Mr. Bryan is opposed to any bossing that is not done by Mr. Bryan.

To those who believe in voting money out of their own pockets we have nothing to say, but to those who wish to see the country return to an era of prosperity and good wages we beg to say that it can be accomplished only in one wayvote the republican party back into Ir Mr. Cleveland will pay the price he can get the support of Senator Hill in his fight with Senator Gorman, which will be renewed next winter. But the price is high. Nothing more nor less than the making of Hill the administration candidate for the democratic nomination in '96.

SENATOR HILL winks the other eye and quietly shakes hands with himself every time he reads about his accepting claim, and received the nomination. the nomination for governor this year. He finds a seat in the senate very satisfactory for the present, and like most do him no good at the polls. He is other men, thinks the next governor of New York will be a republican.

THE sugar trust comes high. It cost the business of the United Stated the profitable markets of Cuba and Porto Rico, lost through abrogation of reciprocity agreements; it will cost the sugar consumers the two cents a pound more they will have to pay for sugar, and it is going to cost the democratic party the control of Boyp county has captured the republican candidate for the state senate. S. C. Sample, of Butte, was nominated for that honor at the recent convention at O'Neill. Sam is clean handed and will go into the counties composing this senatorial district with more than his party strength at the coming election.-Spencer Advocate.

THE sugar trust is fortunate to have so good a friend as Secretary Carlisle at the head of the treasury just now. An unfriendly secretary of the treasury could so construe the confectioners about one cent a pound. Mr. Carlisle's friendship for the trust has been proven, however.

THE World-Herald correspondent in this city, in his report of the democratic county central committee meeting, was yery enthusiastic over the selection of Levi Van Valkenburg as chairman of the county central committee. He announced to the state at large what a good democrat Levi was, and how popular he was with the democrats. This man upon whom Charlie dotes was the democratic candidate for county treasurer a year ago, and got ten votes in the county. Oh yes! he is very popular.

THE history of Holt county discloses the fact that in times agone and at the present instance, within her borders there has resided some pretty smooth politicians, but it shows no man that has ruled a thousand men with such an iron hand as J. P. Mullen. He is "the noblest Roman of them all," and we are forced to admit that he is the cock of the avenue. No man can be nominated for office in his party without his knowledge and consent. We don't know how he does it; we are not on to his system. Whether he has them frightened or hypontised is a mooted question with us. But sure it is that he is the lever that moves the machine in this county. And in this connection it is interesting to look back upon the past, when the independent party was being born. At that time J. P. Mullen was a democrat. When the child was born in McCafferty's hall he kicked against the addition, and advised that an abortion be committed, that the political infant be still-born. But he was outnumbered. His idea of capturing old party conventions was abandoned and the alliance survived the travail. From that day to this Mullen has attended the wants of the infant as becomes a wet-nurse and midwife, and the people are wondering when the time will come when the birth marked child will be able to walk alone.

THE republicans of Nebraska have invited defeat by making a nomination for governor that has caused a serious split in the party and placed the election virtually in the hands of the populists if that party shall nominate a clean ticket. It is charged that Mr. Majors, the republican nominee, has been mixed up in the schemes that have made a vast deal of scandal in the party and have done much to weaken it. The result is that many men in the republican party of Nebraska have no confidence in Majors. At the last election, in 1893, Harrison, republican, was elected judge of the supreme court by a plurality of 7,366, he receiving only a little over 3 per cent. more of the vote than his populist competitor. With the disaffection in the party such an advantage is not a hard one to overcome with a good candidate. The defeat of the republican state ticket will carry some candidates for congress to defeat as well. The Fifth and Sixth slide" cometh down from the far east districts will be made doubtful with a strong populist state ticket. The next legislature will elect a senator to suc-1868. The object lesson has struck ceed Manderson, and the republicans have in this an extra inducement to pre-

CONGRESSMAN BRYAN, began his serve harmony and unity. As it is they state has now one populist senator and is quite likely to have another after March, 1895.—Chicago Record.

HONEST JOHN.

The independent senatorial convention that held high carnival in this city last Saturday was guided in its deliberations by anything but wisdom and political foresight and sagacity. Instead of giving the nomination to some good, available populist in Boyd, and making that county the battle ground for the senatorial campaign, Old Honest John Watchdog Crawford pressed his Crawford is well known to the people of our county, and the familiarity will known to be an unscrupulous old fossil, and a pop for revenue. He has been a member of the county board for some years, and the records will disclose that during that time his treatment of the tender public teat has not been as gentle as it should have been with such a sensitive organ.

We can conceive of no reason, political or otherwise, why the independents should attempt to force this man upon the people of this district. He has nothing to recommend him but his antagonism to public enterprises and improvements, and his already well-paid fidelity to his party. If the voters of four counties in their sober and sane moments elect this abnormal hypocrite to represent them in the senate then it may be truly said that it is a time of grief, and a time for tears to flow.
