Sticketh closer than a brother—A man's shawd.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale.

The face value of a pretty woman is always up to par.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions.

China is becoming a fine article of Japanned wear.

There's Always a Reason.

It is an easy thing to account for the wonderful growth of the Daily State Journal recently. Its price has been reduced to 50 cents per month without Sunday or 65 cents with Sunday.

A letter of credit—One delivered with "postage due."

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

Of course the lamp of experience is a smoke consumer.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie Mason of Chilton, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness.

THE MISSIONARY MAN.

He Might Have Passed Muster Had He Not Been Over-Vain.

A young man who said he was a missionary about to start for that part of Africa where Moses of happy memory reigned, went into a Brooklyn clothing store lately and presented a letter from the secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

"Won't you have some silk suspenders?" asked the clerk.

"Yes, I will," said the missionary.

"What have they got to-night?" he said, finally addressing the assistant telegraph editor.

"Pork and beans, stewed tomatoes and apple pie," was the reply.

"It's all right. Dead swell lay-out."

The telegraph editor ruminated and again felt in his pocket.

"What have they got to-night?" he said, finally addressing the assistant telegraph editor.

"Pork and beans, stewed tomatoes and apple pie," was the reply.

"It's all right. Dead swell lay-out."

The telegraph editor scribbled on a piece of paper.

"Take this to the assistant city editor, and be dod-gasted quick about it," said the telegraph editor.

The copy boy took the paper into the sporting editor's room.

"Please send back the change."

"There; take that back, quick," said he.

The copy boy went into the dramatic editor's room.

"That's the grouchiest guy that ever struck this joint.

"Please send back the change."

AN OFFICE DRAMA.

Why the Telegraph Editor Did Not Eat the Night Before Pay Day.

It was Friday night. The telegraph editor felt in his pocket and glanced contemptively at his watch.

"What have they got to-night?" he said, finally addressing the assistant telegraph editor.

"Pork and beans, stewed tomatoes and apple pie," was the reply.

"It's all right. Dead swell lay-out."

The telegraph editor ruminated and again felt in his pocket.

HEART DISEASE!

Fluttering, No Appetite, Could Not Sleep, Wind on Stomach.

"For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought that every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I could not sweep a room without resting. My husband induced me to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and am happy to say it has cured me. I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. Its effect was truly marvelous."

MRS. HARRY E. STARR, Pottsville, Pa. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1.00 per bottle for $5.00 or it will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

For sale by all druggists.
