FRANK D. WILLIAMS, county clerk of Saline county, died last .week, after a lingering sickness.

In view of the numerous serious fires of late Omaha is asking for better fire protection. The water works pressure is sadly deficient.

MRS. HIRAM FISCUS, of Lyons, aged 86 years 6 months, died of paralysis of the heart. Mrs. Fiscus was one of the oldest citizens of Burt county, having moved there in 1867.

PUBLIC sale of property for delinquent taxes in Douglas county closed in one week's time, no buyers appearing. Last year the sale was continued two weeks; this year but one week.

GRANT SRACK, a jeweler of Fremont. succumbed to the pressure of hard times and made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. Eleven chattel mort-gages were filed, aggregating $3,209.46.

LAND COMMISSIONER HUMPHNEY de-nies the report that he is to resign his present position and receive the ap-pointment of district judge in place of Holcomb, who is soon to vacate that Hoe thieves are getting in their work at Madison. Several fat porkers have been purloined from the pens of their owners and in some instances the swine have been killed and dressed right on the premises.

THE Custer county bar met at Broken Bow and unanimously indorsed Homer M. Sullivan as a successor to Governor elect S. A. Holcomb, when he shall resign his position as judge of the Twelfth judicial district. Sullivan is the strongest candidate in the district.

THE six prisoners confined in the county jail at Wilber made their escape by sawing the bars of the cage and breaking through the brick wall. This is the third time one of them has es-Schalek of Lyons returned from a hunding trip a few miles north of town, where they caught sixty one musicials, four minks and thirty skunks. The hunters report game of all kinds plenty and they will make another trip soon. THE Hammond Packing company, whose big beef house in South Omaha was recently destroyed by fire, is agi-tating a removal to Kansas City. Thus is generally regarded as a play to get the stock yards company to whack up a big bound to the stock of the stock a big bonus to get it to rebuild at South THE drug business of Daniel H. Ko enigstein was closed under three chattel mortgages held by the Citizens National bank, John Koeingstein and Dr. A. B. Tashjean. The claims aggregate $4,000, and it is estimated that the stock will invoice something more than that amount. BURGLARS cracked the safe in Alex-anders & Sons' store at Rushville, but only secured $4.50. A few weeks ago the safe in the office of the Rushville Lumber company was broken open and something like $45 taken. Mention of this was suppressed at the time by urgent request of the officers. THE board of education lands and funds has ordered the sale of indemnity school lands in four counties. Four sections in Box Butte county will be put on the market December 20, seven sections in Sioux county, December 19; twenty-three in Cherry county, Decem-ber 22; three sections in Knox county, December 24. DETECTIVES have succeeded in locat ing the train robbers who attempted to hold up the Burlington flyer near Hy-annis. They have heard that they are being shadowed and have started west on horseback. Detectives have gone after them by rail, and will probably overtake them in Wyoming. The men are known to be desperate and will show fight if an attempt is made to arrest them. THE regular term of the district court of Sioax county convened at Harrison last week, Judge Bartow presiding. The most important cases to be tried are the state against Farnam, for stealcattle, and John Tinnin against the Burlington railway, for damages to his cattle while being shipped. Superintendent Phelan, who is interested in the cattle case, went up over the Fremont road in his special car. SECRETARY ALLEN and the board of public lands and buildings, are planning a general house-cleaning so as to receive the next legislature. 11 15 the intention to employ only a few extra hands, as the head janitor believes his force can do most of the and very little money will be expended in repairs. Even the wall pa-per on the senate chamber, which is falling off, will be patched up.

DISTRICT court convened at Ord last last week, Judge Thompson of Grand Island presiding. The most important court event was the arraignment of Fred Johnson, a young man about 20 years old, for stealing a bicycle from leorge Hall about three weeks ago. Johnson was captured at Red Oak, Ia., and brought back by Sheriff Mensing.

He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to thirteen months in the penitentiary. A HARTINGTON dispatch says that while John Koch was hunting quail he accidentally shot himself in the abdo-men. There is no possible chance for him to recover, as the entire charge passed into the bowels. Koch a few weeks ago was acquitted of the murder of a man named Lansing. Several months ago the sister of the unfortunate young man was thrown from a horse and died from the injuries reeived.

THE forthcoming report of the commissioner of industrial statistics will contain an extended review of the live stock industry of South Omaha. The commissioner feels that he can make this report without question of invidi-ousness, because there is but one point in the state or angend is such extension. in the state engaged in such enterprise. The report will show that South Omaha, now occupying third place in line of stock prominence in the United Seates, is fast climbing to second place.

COMPLETE arrangements are being made in Lincoln for the reception and entertainment of mayors, chiefs of police, city marshals and others who are to convene Thursday December 6, by call of Chief of Police Seavy of Omaha. The meeting will be held in the coun-cil chamber, Lincoln. Special rates have been secured from railways. There is said to be pending a great deal of im-portant business to transact to promote the efficiency and welfare of the police forces of the state.

THE regular session of the Antelope county term of court opened at Neligh last week. Soon after his arrival Judge Robinson received a telegram announc-ing the hopeless sickness of his mother, who lives in West Virginia, and ad-journed court and left for that state. Before his departure the case of Barrett Scott, the convicted defaulting treasurer of Holt county, was brought up and arguments for a new trial were waived. Sentence of five years in the state prison was then passed and notice of appeal given.

A suir has been filed in the United States court by Swift & Co. against the Ashland Mill and Electric company. The petition sets forth that Swift & Co have a large pond in Saunders county, which they flood with water from Wa-hoo creek, which passes through the property upon which the pond is lo-cated, the property being owned by Swift. The Ashland company is plan-ning to drain the pond. As it is here ning to drain the pond. As it is here where Swift gets ice the court is asked to issue an order restraining the Ashland company from draining ELIAS STYLES of Dawson and John and Joe Gandy and George Shrenflew of Salem, who are suspected of having tried to blow open the safe of the Daw-son bank, and who burned the building owned by the bank, are in Falls City, in the county jail, Styles having con-ference of the bank of the ba lessed to the crime and further declares that they were the same gang that burned the Dawson mill about a year ago. John Gandy was arrested and discharged last week on the charge of burning the bank building, but was ar-rested again by Sheriff Ferguson.

THE Northwestern passenger train due at Hastings at 8:40 p.m. ran over a young woman about a mile and a half west of Harvard. Both legs were horribly mangled and will have to be amputated. The engineer noticed an object alongside the track, but did not know that he had struck anything un-til he was oiling his engine at Inland, when he discovered blood upon it. He caped, and the second time for three others, during the past three months. EMORY CLEMENTS, Mont and Jay Van Schajek of Lyons returned from a gine is not known. THE members of the local board of education of Plattsmouth are confront-ed with a serious problem. The city ed with a serious problem. The city schools are over crowded with pupils and in many rooms in the lower grades half-day sessions are held, part of the children attending in the forenoon and the others in the afternoon. The enrollment this year is in excess of that for all previous years to a considerable number. School funds are rather low and for the present the board will be unable to construct any new buildings, but next year the board hopes to provide the necessary rooms. Gov. CROUNSE has issued his thanks giving proclamation, in which he says "Owing to the extraordinary drouth which has prevailed in some portions within our borders during the year now drawing to a close we cannot rejoice in the bountiful crop with which we have usually been blessed. I would, there fore, especially urge upon those who have an abundance to contribute gen-erously to the less fortunate, and by bountcous charity lift the clouds of want and distress wherever found, thus haking glad every heart, so that the day may be in truth. as well as in form, a day of thanksgiving." MRS. C. S. CASCADDEN, superintendent of the Home for Fallen Women at Milford, has made her report, the third biennial, to the governor through the commissioner of lands and building. The superintendent recommends that there be made larger appropriations for her institution, and that the pay of the employes be put on the same basis as at the other state institutions. The re port shows that there were in the institution at the date of the report a total of adults and children, eightysix. The average weekly number dur-ing the biennial period has been sev-enty-six, and the cost per capita per week $2.20. A SAD accident occured at the home of Councilman Jacob Thomas of Has-tings resulting in the death of his wife and five-year-old daughter, Edith. Mrs. Thomas was engaged with her kitchen duties, and the little girl was playing in one part of the room, when the gas-oline stove exploded, for without a moment's warning the room was filled with flames. Mrs. Thomas made a rush for the door and gave one loud scream. Then thinking of her child, she returned to the kitchen. Fighting her way through fire and smoke she succeeded in finding the little one and tried hard to make her escape with the prize which she had risked so much for, but she had inhaled the flames and smoke, and when she reached the southeas: porch she fell prostrated with her child by her side, where they were found n after, burned to an unrecognizable | condition.

TO OUTDO SOUTH CAROLINA. Georgia Likely to Have a Stricter Liquor

Law Than Its Neighbor.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 17.-Upon the organization of the present legislature Speaker Fleming appointed on the temperance committee men who are known as determined enemies of the liquor traffic. They have resolved to report for adoption what is known as the Bush bill. This provides that it shall be a felony for any citizen of Georgia to engage in the sale of liquor, that there shall be established in each county a dispensary, super-vised by a discreet man who shall vised by a discreet man who shall keep a record of all liquor sold and that there shall be a state inspector who shall test all liquors offered for sale, this officer to be clothed with the most despotic right to enter houses for purposes of investigation and to destroy contributed wave and to destroy contraband goods.

STRIKE CASES DELAYED.

Debs and His Coworkers Not to Tried Before January.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17 .- President Debs and Secretary Keliher of the American railway union appeared before Judge Grosscup in the United States district court to-day to plead to the indictments against them for conspiracy in connection with the great rail-way strike. Owing to the absence of Judge Woods the case was continued to December 4, when arguments of the defence to quash the indictments will be heard. Should the motion to quash be overruled the hearing will be had on January 9. Sixty-nine of the men indicted for conspiracy were also in court and the hearing of all went over until De-cember 4. Should the motion to quash the indictments be overruled one of the defendants, probably Debs, will be selected for trial at the January hearing, and the result of the other indictments will hinge upon the out-come of the test case.

A Veteran's Home for Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 17.-The committee from the Indiana department of the Grand Army of the Republic which has charge of the effort to establish a state soldiers' home at Lafayette, announces that it will ask the legislature to appropriate $15,000. It has acquired 258 acres of land near the Tippecance battle ground and the buildings will be erected on this. In the poor houses of the state are 8,000 veterans.

ROBERT C. WINTHROP DEAD

THE ORATOR AND STATESMAN PASSES AWAY.

A HISTORICAL AMERICAN FIGURE.

Once Speaker of the House of Repre sentatives, and Succeeded Daniel Webster in the Senate-A Link That Bound the Present to the Past-His Public Career Long Ended.

Boston, Nov. 19.-Robert C. Winthrop, ex-speaker of the house of representatives, ex-senator and famous orator, died here last night at 11:30 o'clock. He had been in delicate health for a long time and the end was not unexpected. He had been living in quiet retirement for several years. He was one of Massachusetts' most noted men, classing high as a statesman and orator. His gift of oratory was something wonderful. He was one of the principal orators at the dedication of the Washington monument, the other being Senator John W. Daniel of Virginia. A link that bound the present to the past has been broken by the death of the venerable Robert C. Winthrop, who connected the people of to-day not only with the early days of the constitution and of the republic, but with the colonial days as well. He was the lineal descend-ant of Governor John Winthrop, and of a family conspicuous in the making of Massachusetts and Connecti-cut. His father, Thomas Lindall Winthrop, was born at New London. Conn., a town which an ancestor aided in establishing. Robert Charles Winthorp, whose death is announced, was born in Boston May 12, 1809, so that his earliest recollections were of the second war for independence. He graduated at Harvard, as his ancestors in continu-ous line had done. taking this degree in 1828. He read law with Daniel Webster, whom he had known from childhood, and whom he had heard deliver his great address at Ply-mouth Rock in 1820 as well as the memorable speech at Bunker Hill in 1824. Mr. Winthrop remained with Mr. Webster during what he was accustomed to speak of as "three of the busiest and proudest years of Web-ster's life." The student followed the political teachings of the master and when a young man became a conspicuous Massachusetts Whig. He was elected to the legislature in 1831, remained in that body for six years and serving as speaker in 1838, 1839 and 1840.

In 1840 Mr. Winthrop was elected to ongress and served ten years. Here he was again associated with Web-ster, and served one term as speaker of the house.

In 1851 Mr. Winthrop was appointed by the governor to succeed Mr. Webster in the senate of the United State, when the latter became secre tary of state under President Fill-more. With the increasing violence more. With the increasing violence of the agitation of the slavery ques-tion, Mr. Winthrop found himself un-able to satisfy the extremists on either side. He refused to follow his old political chief and was opposed to Mr. Webster's position in the fa-mous 7th of March speech, and him-

TURKEY'S EXPLANATION.

Bather Weak Statement Concerning the Massacre of Christians.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 19.-The following official account of the Armenian trouble was issued yesterday: Some Armenian brigands provided with arms of foreign origin joined an insurgent Kurd tribe for the purpose of committing excesses. They burned and devastated several Mussulman villages. As an instance of the ported that they burned alive a Mus-sulman notable. Regular troops were sent to the scene to protect peaceable inhabitants against these ferocity of the Armenians, it is redepredations. The Ottoman troops not only protected and respected the submissive portion of the population, and the women and children, but they re-established tranquility and order. It is not true that the Kurds seized the furniture, effects and cattle of the fugitive Armenians. The latter took their effects to the mountains before revolting. The Arme-nian women at present with the Kurds belong to the families of the brigands, and went of their own ac-cord with their husbands to the insurgent Kurds. Respecting the villages alleged to have been destroyed, it was the Armenians who carried off all their belongings before becoming brigands.'

Confirmed From Bulgaria.

LONDON, Nov. 19.- A dispatch to the Standa rd from Werna, Bulgaria, says that despite the Turkish government's silence, facts have come out which leave no doubt that a massacre of Christians has occurred on as great a scale as the butchery at Batok, Bulgaria, which sent a thrill of horror through the civilized world. The trouble began with the refusal of the Armenians to pay tax on the plea, possibly well founded, that the frequent Kurdish raids had impoverished them. A few troops were sent to collect the taxes, but were beaten. In the meantime the governor of Bitlis reported to the porte that a serious revolt had broken ut and obtained permission to send all obtainable troops to the scene. Marshal Zeki Pasha, commander of the Fourth army corps, stationed at Erzinger, was ordered to proceed there and direct operations. Before the imposing array of regulars the Armenians tamely submitted.

The governor of Bitils resolved to make an example in order to prevent a repetition of the revolt. He ordered the troops to fire on the defenseless people. The order was executed and the soldiers only rested from their labors when twenty-five villages were destroyed and thousands of their inhabitants killed.

Great Quantities of Lace Burne !.

NOTTINGHAM, Nov. 19 .- The biggest fire in a quarter of a century has destroyed an extensive block of buildings in the lace market district. The flames broke out on the premises occupied by Brown & Co., who had large consignments of lace ready for shipment to America, which was burned. The damage is estimated at $750,000. Hundreds of people have been thrown out of employment by the fire.

Pullman Will Make Reply.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.-George M. Pullman started on his return to Chicago last night. He would not discuss the strike commissioners' report, not, he said, that he was unwilling or afraid to do so, but because he had many documents and statistics in Chicago which would enable him to make a statement that would carry more weight than off-hand talk on the reports of Carroll D. Wright, John D. Kernan or Nicholas E. Worthington.

Eloped With an Insane Man's Wife.

CARTHAGE, Mo., Nov. 17. - John Hamilton, a bricklayer on the court house, and Mrs. Harrison Wolf, left here last Saturday night in a wagon bought that day by Hamilton. Their destination is unknown. Hamilton deserted his wife at Springfield, who came here yesterday to visit her hus-band. Mrs. Wolf's husband is in the insane asylum at Nevada and she has never procured a divorce.
