LIVED ON BLOOD. of the British Ship To Tell Their Story.

Portland, Ore., March 18.—The follow-ing dispatch comes from Marshfield, Ore.: "Daniel Clark and Thomas Moore, supposed to be the only survivors of a crew of thirty-one passengers from the British ship Yeoman, arrived here last night on the schooner Leeds. The Yeonight on the schooner Leeds. The Teo-man sunk Feb. 23 in latitude 34 N., longitude 45 W. She was bound from Antwerp to Redondo. Clark related the details as follows: While shortening sail a sudden squall struck us and a heavy, swell-like tidal wave capsized the ship. As the seas swept the deck I was carried overboard. A lull followed and the ship righted. I got on the ship again to find no one on deck. The cook was lying in the galley with his head split open and hardly alive. Capt. Ferguson and the mate were drowned. As the ship was sinking I decided to abandon her, and cutting loose a lifeboat got the cook into it and pulled away. We were fourteen days in the boat before the the schooner Leeds sighted us and picked us up, during which time we suffered more than language can ex-press. We had to fare all the time on sixteen biscuits, without a drop of fresh water. We became so hungry that we ate the uppers of our shoes and each drank the other's blood.' Here Mr. Clark exhibited his leg, which showed great red blotches, certifying the truthfulness of his story. Continuing, he said: I have been around the horn nine times but this was the roughest trip I ever experienced. We lost four men over-board in a gale off the horn, and Paul Hessing fell from the topsail yard and was killed.' "

Priest's House Broken Open by a Gang of Fiends

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 17.-A special telegram from Hazleton, Pa., says the parochial residence of the Greek church at Freeland was broken into last night and the priest, the Rev. C. Galovitch, his housekeeper, Mrs. Lehatog, and her assistant, Mrs. Zacharias, were murderously assaulted. It was midnight when five masked men jumped from a wagon before the house and with a battering ram broke in the front door. Suppos-ing the house was on fire, the inmates rushed down stairs in their night clothes. They were met at the foot of the stairs by men holding drawn revolvers. Mrs. Lehatog screamed, but was knocked down with a club and beaten into insensibility. Father Galovitch was attacked by two rufflans. He fought desperately and succeeded in locking himself in. The doors were battered down walls torn and windows shattered. The study-room door was perforated with bulets and a piece of dynamite was exploded on the safe. Mrs. Zacharias, who remained upstairs, jumped from the second-story window to escape, but was captured by the bandits and carried into the house. She sustained serious injuries by the fall. The townspeople came to the rescue and the robbers fled.

Colored Housekeeper. Atlanta, Ga., March 17 .- The effort to break the will of the late George Wash-ington Dye of Elbert county failed in the lower court. Dye left an estate worth $100,000 to his negro housekeeper and her six children whose father he was. His relatives attempted to break the will, but the jury have rendered a verdict sustaining it. This is in ac-cordance with the decisions of the state Supreme court. After Dye died. $40,000 in cash was found packed in an old trunk. He owned 7,000 acres of land in one body, and was known in this county as "Gov." Dye.

HOW ABOUT THE TAX? THE REPORT CONFIRMED.

VIEWS OF THOSE WHO HAVE WATCHED THE CASE.

Guesses as to What Deelslon the Court Will Render-Importance of Interests Involved May Somewhat Delay Declaion-No One Able to Say Wnether the Supreme Court Has Any Leanings in Favor of the New Law or Not.

Income Tax Case

WASHINGTON, March 16 .- Now that the supreme court has concluded the hearing in the income tax case and all the light which the supreme court can expect to receive from outside sources has been thrown upon the question involved considerable speculation has arisen on the two points as to what the decision will be when reached and when it is likely to be reached.

Naturally no one would attempt to definitely settle either question, and the opinions of those whose opinions are entitled to consideration are very much at variance on both points. There is a substantial agreement in the belief that the court will make an effort to reach a conclusion at the earliest pos-sible day, and at any rate before the reach a conclusion at the earliest pos-sible day, and, at any rate, before the time set for the law to go into effect, which is the 15th day of April next. The court is at all times disposed to ac-commodate the government in such matters when it can do so without stretching the proprieties, and it is taken for granted that the judges in the present instance appreciate the im-portance to the treasury department of having the validity of the law finally settled before the machinery for its settled before the machinery for its execution shall be put into complete operation. That the necessity for an early adjudication for this and other reasons is understood by the court is demonstrated by its advancing the case on the docket for argument out of their order. It is also believed on the part of many that the recess announced until the 25th inst. is largely for the purpose of permitting immediate con-sideration of the case, and the sugges-tion has been made that a decision may be expected upon the first sitting of the court after the recess. Those who are most familiar with the methods of the court do not, however, accept the suggestion of so early a decision as well founded, and they say that, on the other hand, it may be delayed for a considerable time, even despite the anxiety of the court itself to reach an early determination. They base this opinion upon the responsibil-ity which the court will feel in finally discussion of such momentum entries. disposing of such momentous questions as are involved, upon their knowledge of the characters of the members of the court for mature deliberation and upon the fact that the judges will each and all consider it incumbent upon them to all consider it incumbent upon them to make very thorough investigations and to weigh carefully the questions pre-sented by the counsel and by one an-other before passing judgment. Fur-thermore, in the absence of Justice Jackson, there is a probability of a di-vided court. While no one can have any basis for an opinion as to the character of the decision when it shall be reached, the general belief is that it will not be unanimous one way or the other, but which side of the controversy will secure the majority of opinions is everywhere recognized as one of the questions that cannot be detrmined until the document itself shall be read from the bench. There are those who profess to have seen indications of a leaning one way or the other by the suggestions made and questions put by the members of the court to counsel while the argument was in progress, but the purport of these suggestions was generally colored by the bias of the person hearing them. There can, in fact, be no substantial basis for any prognostication as to the result. The opinion is ventured by some that in spite of previous decisions sustaining

The Big: Spanish Warship Sunk Off Tangler

Gibraltar, March 15 .- The Spanish cruiser Reina Regente is believed to have foundered off Tangier, Morocco, during the recent gale. It had a crew of 420 officers and men. Pieces of one of the ship's boats and semaphor flags are reported to have been picked up along the shore near Ceuta and Tarifa. • The Reina Regente had just conveyed the returning Moorish mission to Tan-Tangier. It left that port March 10 for Cadiz and has not since been hear of. The absence of news from it is causing the greatest anxiety, and it is believed it has been lost with all hands. The cruiser Islà de Luzon of the Spanish fleet has sailed from Algeirs in search of the missing cruiser.

The Reina Regente is a steel pro-tected cruiser and was completed in 1887. Its dimentions are: Length, 320 feet: beam, 50 feet 7 inches: draught, 19 2-3 feet. It is of 4,750 tons displace-ment, 11,500 horsepower, and its speed is 20.6 knots. Its main armament consists of four 9.45-inch guns, one on each side farward of the superstructure and one on each side aft; six 4.72-inch guns, mounte i in broadside. It has an auxilliary battery of fourteen rapid firing and machine guns, and has five torpedo tubes. Its protected deck is 4.3 inches thick on the slope, its conning tower is five inches thick, and its heavy gun-shields three inches thick. It had a coal capacity of 1,150 tons: It was one the three Spanish warships that took part in the great Columbian naval parade in New York harbor in the spring of '93, the other two having been the Nueva Espana and Infanta Ysabel.

State Department Investigating the Affair of the Steamer Allianca.

Washington, March 14.-Seror Mar-uaga, the Spanish minister, visited the state department yesterday for the pur-pose of presenting the position of Spain from the information now on hand, on the firing of a Spanish gunboat on the American mail steamer Allianca. The minister telegraphed for full particulars to the governor-general of Cuba and in reply received a dispatch that the cruiser which presumably figured in the affair had not yet returned, having pro-longed its watch along the Cuban coast. Senor Muruaga feels only one side of the story has yet been told, but should it appear there has been any offense or indiscretion on the part of the Spanish warship, Senor Maruaga says Spain will speedily make every apology consistent with the friendship it bears to the United States. I Taking the version of the affair as given by Capt. Crossman of the Alliance Minister Muruaga says it was apparent the Ametrican ship was in the jurisdictional waters of Cuba and not on the high seas.

GOV. M'INTYRE MOVES.

He Answers Italian Conusl and State Department.

Denver, Colo., March 15.—Gov. McIn-tyre yesterday received simultaneously from the authorities at Washington and the Italian consul at this point inquiries concerning the Walsenberg lynchings. To Washington the governor telegraphed the fullest particulars he had and promised fullest protection to all. He also said it was probable the Italians lynched were American citizens; that he had directed the sheriff to protect his prisoners and maintain order; and that he had a report from the colonel commanding the nearest place that he could put troops aboard cars in two hours.

The Italian Consul here has not been notified officially of the affair at Walsenberg. It is considered doubtful whether complications with Italy will arise, since three and possibly four of the dead men have renounced their allegiance to Italy. All is quiet at Walsenberg now.

For Humanity's Sake, After Thirty-Siz Years of Nerve-Creeping Slavery, He Tells How He Was Set Free.

Caldwell, N. J., March 18, 1895.–(Spe-ial.)—Since one of our prominent citi-tens suffered so terribly from tobacco-treaties to at once quit tobacco-using the set of the state of the state of the statement of S. J. Gould is attracting wide-spread attention. When interviewed to-night he said: "I com-menced using tobacco at thirteen; I am now forty-nine; so, for thirty-six years I have de using tobacco at thirteen; I am now forty-nine; so, for thirty-six years I have de using tobacco at thirteen; I am now forty-nine; so, for thirty-six years I have de two ounces of chewing and eight unces of smoking a day. Sometimes I had a chew in both cheeks and a pipe in my mouth at once. Ten years ago I quit drinking whisky. I tried to stop tobacco time and again, but could not. My nerves craved nicotine and I fed them till my skin turned a tobacco brown, cold, sticky perspiration oozed from my sin, and trickled down my back at the least exertion or excitement. My nerve yigor and my life were being slowly apped. I made up my mind that I had to toped, and for three days I suffered the tortures of the dammed. On the third day I got so bad that my partner accused me of being drunk. I said, 'No have quit tobacco." For God's sake, man, he said, offering me his tobacco box, 'take a chew; you will go wild, and I was wild. Tobacco was forced into tobacco-soaked again. The next morning I looked and feit as though I had been through a long spell of sick-morning I looked and feit as though I chew and smoke, which I did all day until towards night, when my system got tobacco-soaked again. The next morning I looked and felt as though I had been through a long spell of sick-ness. I gave up in despair, as I thought that I could not cure myself. Now, for suffering humanity, I'll tell what saved my good wife's prayers and brought to her attention in our paper an article which read: 'Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away!' "What a sermon and warning in these words! Just what I was doing. It told about a guaranteed cure for the tobacco habit, called No-To-Bac. I sent to Drug-gist Hasler for a box. Without a grain of faith I spit out my tobacco cud, and put into my mouth a little tablet upon which was stamped No-To-Bac. I know it sounds like a lie when I tell you that t took eight tablets the first day, seven the next, five the third day, and all the nerve-creeping feeling, restlessness and mental depression was gone. It was too good to be true. It seemed like a dream. That was a month ago. I used one box. It cost me $1, and it is worth a thousand. I gained ten pounds in weight and lost all desire for tobacco from the first day. I sleep and eat well, and I have been benefited in more ways than I can tell. No, the cure was no exception in my case. I know of ten people right here in Caldwell who have bought No-To-Bac from Hasler, and they have been cured. Now that I realize what No-To-Bac has done for me and others, I know why it is that the makers of this wond-erful remedy, the Sterling Remedy Com-pany, of New York and Chicago, say: 'We don't claim to cure every case. That's Fraud's talk, a lie; but we do guarantee three boxes to cure the to-bacco habit, and in case of failure we are perfectly willing to refund money.' I would not give a public indorsement If I were not certain of its reliability. I know it is backed by men worth a mil-lion. No-To-Eac has been a God-send to me, and I firmly believe it will cure any case of tobacco-using if faithfully tride, and there are thousands of to-bacco

RAIDED A LOTTERY DEN.

Prominent Men Victimized by & Concern at Wilkesbarre, Pa.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 15.-A sensation was created in this city when Chief of Plice Briggs and a squad of officers raided the "Commission brokerage office of John Wursburger and the inmates. Wursburger is known all over northeastern Pennsylvania as the "lottery king of Luzone county," his brokerage business being merely a blind. For ten years past he has been blind. For ten years past he has been selling tickets openly and it is esti-mated that he did a business of over $120,000 a year. Wursburger was taken before Mayor Nickols, and after a hearing was fined $50 and was also held under $500 bail for court. The police, when the raid was made, found several thousand dollars' worth of tickets of all lotteries doing business, and also lists of his regular enstomers, showing that bankers, doctors, hawyers and prominent business men were showing that bankers, doctors, lawyers and prominent business men were spending large sums monthly through Worsburger's agency. The raid was made at the instance of the Wilkesbar-re Times, the editor of the paper ap-pearing as the prosecutor. The Times tonight states that it has proof that the late George A. Lohemas put $1,100 in the lottery shortly before he com-mitted suicide and that ex-Banker Roekafellow, new in the eastern peni-teatiary, sunk thousands of dollars in lottery tickets. Wursburger had agents in surrounding towns, and it is alleged also used the Unite distates mails exten-sively in conducting his business. Wursburger's victims include all classes of people, hundreds of ignorant Polish and Hungarian miners spending all their savings for tickets. The ar-rest and configuration

OFFICIAL CAREER ENDED.

Captain Shepard, One of the Oldest Men in the Revenne Marine, Passes Away.

WASHINGTON, March 15.-Captain I. G. Shepard, chief of the revenue cutter service of the treasury department, died here yesterday from pneumonia. Captain Shepard was stricken with a congestive chill while at work on the 5th instant and had been confined to his bed ever since. His illness is at-tributed to his efforts to secure legislation for the benfit of the superanuated officers of the service. He leaves a wife and two children. The captain was one of the oldest and most efficient officers in the revenue outter service. A native of Massachusetts, he was appointed a third lieutenant in 1865, was promoted to second lieutenant in 1869, a first lieutenant in 1870 and a captain a next neutrant in 1870 and a captain in 1878. In December, 1889, Secretary Windom detailed him as chief of the revenue marine division, an office pre-viously held by civilians only, and he served there continuously ever since. Captain Shepard saw much hard rec-ord. Prior to his transfer to Washing-ton he commended the presence antiton he commanded the revenue cutter Bear and made several valuable cruises in Bering sea and northern Alaskan waters to carry ont the policy of the government to prevent illicit scaling. He was very wall known and highly esteemed.

Mary Ellen Can Keep Her Office.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 16 .- Mrs. Mary E. Lease, orator and politician, has won her latest fight. Recently George A. Clark was appointed by Gov-ernor Morrill to succeed her as member of the State board of charities, and the appointment was confirmed by the senate. When Clark attempted to take office a few days ago Mrs. Lease refused to vacate, stating her term did not end till 1896, and she took steps to have her case settled in court. An examination of the records in the gover nor's office today shows that in his message to the senate Governor Lewelling nominated Mrs. Lease as the successor of Captain Rhodes. Thus her term will not expire until next year and Clark's appointment proves superfluous.
