Mrs. Dennie Carlon and Miss Nina Ryan started Monday morning for Galesburg, Ill., where they will visit relatives during the summer.

The ethereal mildness which obtains and continues to prevail since the recent storms is a wonderful factor in trending earth's adornings, fresh and beautiful, joyously heavenward.

Elsworth Mack and Jake Hershiser, will start on their prospective bullwhacking expedition, in search of green fields and pastures new, in the wild and woolly west about May 7.

O. F. Biglin and O. O. Snyder have beautified their residence properties by sodding their yards with blue grass sod obtained from the lots formerly occupied by the Mathews residence.

Another rain last night. They are coming so frequently now that it's out of the question to keep track of them. There will be hay in the south country if it doesn't rain again this summer.

It is reported on the authority of the "devil" that last night's bus passengers, to avoid getting their feet wet, in transit from the depot to the hotel, were compelled to hang them on the bell rope.

Mr. H. C. Uhler, of Emmet, called at this office Tuesday for a few moments to pay his subscription and talk about the fine rain and crop prospects. He reported everything in good condition in his neighborhood.

Judge Kinkaid returned from Chadron yesterday morning. The Judge reports heavy storms in that section and says that he saw hail stones piled from one to four feet thick and covering considerable areas of space.

STRAYED—from my farm at Phoenix, in the month of November, 1894, a mare colt, black, with a little white above left hind foot. Will be one year old this spring. C. E. Howe, Phoenix.

Butte Gazette: The glittering offer of 300 unscrapped pops for a calamity barber at O'Neill still remains open. If they would insert the adv. in the South Omaha Stockman instead of the Jew's Red Light it might bring an "artist."

Miss Blanche Shutts is enjoying a visit from her friend, Miss Laura Meals, of O'Neill. Miss Laura is enjoying a well-earned rest, after having been closely confined by her duties as assistant post-mistress at O'Neill for the past two years.—Graphic.

Graphic: George Bowering, late cashier of the Stuart State bank, passed through here last Tuesday on his way to Los Angeles, Cal., where he expects to make his future home. George leaves a host of friends who dislike to see him go, but wish him success in his new home.

Pete Saunders did not make his usual run as news agent on the Short Line Tuesday. It was his understanding that the train had changed time and would not go out until 10 o'clock, but he had been misinformed, as the train pulled out on its old schedule. Time and trains wait for no man.

Butte Gazette: We hate to say anything about it but the way Sanford Parker "done up" Harry Mathews at "coon billiards," Saturday last, was enough to draw briny tears from a wooden image. Mr. Parker is an expert with the cue, and in the three games played Mr. Mathews made an excellent cue tack.

Graphic: Mrs. Milton Doolittle and children departed for North Platte last Saturday morning where they will join Milton and make their home for the present, at least. The throng that bid them farewell at the depot certainly attested the high esteem in which the people of Atkinson held this estimable family.

Dr. Gilligan left Tuesday morning for Chicago, at which place he will attend a meeting of railway surgeons. After a few days in Chicago he will return to his old home in New York, where he will visit relatives for a couple of months and then return to O'Neill and resume his practice. Many patrons here dislike to see him leave even for a limited visit.

Stuart Ledger: Rev. C. H. Churchill shipped his goods on Tuesday to O'Connell, this state, where he has been sent to take charge of a pastorate. Mr. C. is an able minister—a conscientious and earnest christian, and he has done a good work at this place. He leaves the Presbyterian church here in a flourishing condition and much stronger than he found it. THE LEDGER takes pleasure in commending him to his new charge as a man worthy and deserving in all respects and a man whom they will esteem more the longer they know him. He left pleasant surroundings here and we hope his new home will be none the less so.

The Presbyterian birthday party which was to have taken place at the Hotel Evans last night, was postponed until to-night on account of the storm.

Mrs. Alexander Maring is in receipt of a letter from Denver, which conveys the sad intelligence that on the 16th of April Harry Howe fell from a building in that city and on the following day died from the effects of the fall. Mr. Howe at one time resided in Holt county, south of O'Neill, and had many friends here.

If there is a man—poor or otherwise—in this county, or any other county, who is in possession of a so-called "poor man's dollar" that contains 41 1/2 grains of silver, and the aforesaid man entertains any misgivings in regard to its value or purchasing power, we will take it in on subscription and run our chances on passing it off on Dave Stannard or some other sport, who knows why forty cents worth of coined silver is worth 100 cents in gold.

Dr. Edward L. Furay, of Omaha, arrived in the city Monday night. He has rented the office formerly occupied by Dr. Gilligan, and expects to remain here permanently and practice his profession. The doctor comes highly recommended as a young man of integrity and ability and will no doubt make a success here. It was through the solicitation of Patrick Hagerty, an old friend of the family, that he was induced to locate in O'Neill.

We would inform Whiskers, and others interested, that THE FRONTIER is under no more obligations to the business men of O'Neill than the business men of O'Neill are to THE FRONTIER. This paper has had more to do with the settling up of this county than any other agency, and while so doing incidentally built up a subscription list and general business of its own. As a general thing we are not patronized for sweet charity's sake. When a business man places an ad. with us he does so because he knows we have a large circulation and among a class who do not spend their money with Montgomery Ward and "stand off" the home business man. When an order for job work is given us it is generally with the idea—which is correct—that we do a little the best work in this part of the state. We are patronized because we give value received.

Monday's market reports from Chicago show that July wheat advanced 2 1/2 cents from the closing price Friday on the board of trade Saturday. The market opened at 62 1/2 cents, an advance of three-eighths of a cent, and by a quick step rose to 64 1/2 cents, which was the top figure of the session. The market hung close to 64 cents all the forenoon and closed at noon at 64 1/2 cents. The big advance came on rumors of a corner and exhausted supplies at interior points in Europe and America, higher prices abroad and possible complications in the settlement of the China-Japan treaty of peace; liberal purchases of wheat for export and the anxiety of the shorts to cover their sales for June delivery. Many of the best informed speculators on change say that the upward tendency of prices has only begun, and that July wheat will sell for $1 a bushel July 1. We cannot help thinking where the free and unlimited silver man will be with 40 cent silver and one dollar wheat. It's bad enough now with 65 cent wheat and 40 cent silver.

State Journal: Evidence showing that a great many farmers and manufacturers expect to derive benefit from a bounty on chicory has reached the state house in the form of a complaint concerning freight rates on chicory roots. Complaint has been made to the secretaries of the board of transportation that the Pacific Short Line railroad will not carry chicory for less than $1.50 a ton. Persons at Dixon have planted chicory and desire to ship to O'Neill, where the German Chicory company is located and ready to receive and manufacture all chicory raised in that part of the state. The secretaries have been corresponding with the Pacific Short Line road and expect to secure a very low rate. The rate on sugar beets given by the Nebraska roads is about 80 cents a ton, and it is the general belief that the same rate ought to apply to chicory roots. Farmers declare that they cannot profitably raise chicory if the freight is to be $1.50 a ton. About 40 carloads, or 600 tons will be shipped along the Pacific Short Line road under the present, but if a better rate is secured perhaps three times that amount will be shipped this year. The 80 cent rate is confidently expected. This question may arise on other roads in the state, but at present there is no information before the board of transportation showing what other roads are charging.

Sam Sample is in the city today, having arrived from the east last night.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Awarded Gold Medal Midwinter Fair, San Francisco.

Back Berry, the veteran pioneer of the Niobrara, was in the city Tuesday. Back says that the heavy rain of Sunday last was general over the north part of the county, with the exception of the locality immediately surrounding Agee, which unfortunately did not come within range of the storm. The down-pour was so heavy and the rise of the streams, in consequence, so great that many of the irrigation dams were carried away, causing no little damage and inconvenience to farmers who contemplated making the experiment this season.

Saturday will be our last day in the Millard building, so bring in your butter and eggs. Five grades of sugar and four grades of syrup to select from. Monday we will move into the Harrington building opposite the postoffice, where we will be pleased to see our old customers. Cheaper rent means lower prices. Staple and fancy groceries fresh twice a week. All kinds of fruit, confectionery and cigars. Home made bread and rolls. The only place in town where you can buy the celebrated Mica axle grease, made by the Standard Oil company. Try it. 43-1 ADAM & CO.

State Secretary Markel, of the Fremont branch of the state Y. M. C. A., arrived in O'Neill Saturday evening for the purpose of establishing a branch of the association in this city. A meeting of those directly interested was held at the M. E. church, Sunday afternoon. After an interesting talk by Mr. Markel on the motive of the organization and the benefit to be derived, by young men especially, from an association therewith, the meeting was called to order, J. C. Harnish presiding and H. H. Bentley acting as secretary. W. R. Jackson, O. O. Snyder, E. S. Kinch, Will Lowrie and H. H. Bentley were appointed an executive committee with power to form a permanent organization and elect officers. A meeting will be held at the church Sunday afternoon, May 5, with that purpose in view. The association will start out with an enrollment of at least thirty members. We are pleased to note this movement on the part of the young men of O'Neill, and the organization will undoubtedly meet with the approbation of our citizens of all classes, as the good to be accomplished by an association of this kind is only encompassed to the extent of the efforts put forth in that direction.

Mr. William Merritt Chase, President of the society of American Artists, will make an extensive exhibit of paintings in oil and pastel, at the Cotton States and International Exposition. Mr. Chase is one of our most accomplished artists; in fact, there is no medium in which he cannot work with success. Recently, he has been devoting his attention to American landscape, and the bright mid-summer effects, which he painted on Long Island, last season, have been an attractive feature of the New York exhibitions, this winter. He has not abandoned those delightful interior views, upon which he first made his reputation, for in the spring exhibition of the Society of American Artists, there is an important large canvas by him, purchased by the Shaw fund, which shows a beautiful modern interior, with the lady of the house entertaining a guest. Its title is "The Morning Call." One of Mr. Chase's portraits was awarded the Temple prize in Philadelphia, last fall, and early this year he was awarded another prize by the Cleveland Art Association. The people of Atlanta and of the south have a great treat in store in seeing Mr. Chase's work. He is justly celebrated for his great technical ability, and is doing more, possibly, than any other native artist to advance and benefit American art.

Phoenix Filings.

Who says it can't rain in Holt county? The farmers are feeling gay since the rain.

Morton Greeley, the professor of music, was in Atkinson last week.

Harmon has the blues. Mary is in Dustin, Sabe?

They say that Frank Damero is going to have a large watermelon patch. We will have to visit it in the dark of the moon.

One-eyed Jack, the wild man of the rockies, is stopping at Mrs. Hills.

Mr. Weston's big dam on Turkey creek was carried out last Sunday night by the water that came from a cloudburst at the head of the creek. It was a big loss because he had put in about five months work on it and had just got the water where he could irrigate his orchard.

Miss Emma Greeley is teaching school in the Kite district this spring.

Several teams went to O'Neill from this neighborhood the first of last week for the purpose of getting donated corn and potatoes that were shipped to that place.

Mr. Greeley is irrigating twenty acres of land this year.

Now, if the writer don't starve to death, or work himself to death in the laudable endeavor to avert such a fearful climax, you may hear from these parts again. DADDY JIM.

Indications for May.
Below will be found Dr. Harter's prognostications for this month:

Warm and pleasant, first days of the month, will end in the development of a storm in the far west, on the second it will travel across the continent and reach the Atlantic about the sixth. Bear in mind that storms will reach the locality in which you live in due course, but may not remain with you more than a few hours. Minor storms with heavy local showers on the 8th and 9th. The second regular storm period commences in the west on the thirteenth and travels to the east by the sixteenth. Expect many pleasant days in May, but be cautious at the approach of and during storm periods. Next month occurs the equinox of the great planet Jupiter, whose disturbing influence has been felt during all storm periods for many months past, and will continue to be felt for many months to come. Local showers and minor storms on the twentieth and twenty-first. New moon on the twenty-fourth will excite the third regular storm period, which will be brewing and moving in the west on the twenty-fifth, and run its course to the east by the twenty-eighth. Pleasant weather, increasing to warmer 'til the last of the month. The earth and atmosphere at the equinoxes always undergo intense electric disturbance. Since the action of the earth is so evident, we must expect that Jupiter with a volume 1491 times greater than the earth, must at its equinox, affect the whole solar system.

Whooping Cough.
There is no danger from this disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It liquefies the tough mucus and aids its expectoration. It also lessens the severity and frequency of paroxysms of coughing, and insures a speedy recovery. There is not the least danger in giving the remedy to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale by P. C. Corrigan, druggist. 43-4

50 Cents to January 6, 1896.
That is an awful little bit of money for a twice-a-week paper like the Semi-Weekly Journal, but if you send 50 cents you will receive that paper until January 1, 1896. You will find it the farmer's daily. Markets alone are worth more money than that. If you take it the rest of this year for 50 cents you will want to keep it always. If you get up a club of five 50-cent subscribers you can have a copy free for your trouble. Address, Nebraska State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.

While in Stockton, Cal., some time ago, Thos. F. Langan, of Los Banos, that state, was taken very severely with cramps and diarrhoea. He chanced to meet Mr. C. M. Carter, who was similarly afflicted. He says: "I told him of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and he went to the Holean drug store and procured a bottle of it. It gave Mr. Harter prompt relief and I can vouch for its having cured me." For sale by P. C. Corrigan, druggist.

Largest Circulation in Nebraska.
It isn't much wonder that The State Journal now has the largest circulation in Nebraska. It has reduced its price to 65 cents a month with Sunday, or 50 cents without Sunday. It has been spending more money for Nebraska news than any other paper; it has on its staff such men as Bixby, Walt Mason and Annin. The Journal is being pushed at every point and is climbing steadily and surely away ahead of the other state dailies. People like a Lincoln paper. Especially when it is as good as The Journal.

Anyone who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a siege of that discouraging ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriman's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes especial pains in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by P. C. Corrigan, druggist. 43-4
