

THE FRONTIER.

BY THE FRONTIER PRINTING CO.

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.50 PER ANNUM.

CLYDE KING AND D. H. CRONIN, EDITORS AND MANAGERS.

ME XV.

O'NEILL, HOLT COUNTY, NEBRASKA, MAY 30, 1895.

NUMBER 47.

WHISKERS

rest Told As They Are Told to Us.

HOW IT HAPPENED

gs Portrayed For General
on and Amusement.

in O'Neill this week.

gs returned Sunday night
south.

r. and Mrs. George Clark
a boy.

ld was in the city yester-sional business.

. J. J. King and daughter yesterday with friends in

. John Larue are the party that put in appearance

. left last Friday morning ys' visit to his old home in ure, of Sioux City, was in week. He returned to his morning.

l Butter & Egg Company
y, at the old stand.

loyd Gillespie, of the firm & Son, real estate agents, ent Sunday in Atkinson.

l Cook, who started to with W. E. Hamlin, is in there by the death of his been commenced on the bridge at Sioux City. It is the Short Line will be ex-ear.

ainments given Friday and hts by Noble's Dramatic es well attended and pleasdences.

r. and Mrs. D. H. Cronin boy of average weight.
than one way of cutting list majority.

of Miss Lizzie Carlton's pua surprise party last Friday swooped down upon her at about 9 o'clock. A very e was had by those present.

ade new arrangements with Butter & Egg Co., we will ets issued by them in exoods.

O'NEILL GROCERY CO.

Dr. A. H. Corbett and wife, came up last Saturday to school entertainment, and ver Sunday, the guests of s parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.

Gallagher, Evans and John Mann, went over to Tuesday. John will attend business in Spencer, while the list a day or two with Mrs.
Butte.

urniture Company are agents
ty for the Western Cottage will make you figures that e you. Call at the store and oods, or drop us a line and we r Mr. Reed to see you. 46-3

y returned Thursday night s, to which place he accom-Mark Erwin for the purpose an operation performed. The s the operation was success-at she will be able to couple of weeks.

Journal: A South Dakota
year plants 100 acres of n-flowers. The seed produces allon of oil per bushel, and of seed is thirty to fifty bush-
e. The oil is high-priced, the oil of olives. The stalks s, worth something for fuel.

ship boards will meet at the e town clerk in each town-Monday, June 3, for the pur-qualifying taxes. Tax payers an avoid expense and trouble ng these meetings and seeing assessments are just. The ard has no authority to reassessment unless complaint ade to your township board ng as a board of equalization.

ley, of Omaha, died at Hot st Friday, at which place he receiving medical treatment.
ains passed through O'Neill morning in Superintendent private car. They were aced by Mrs. Hawley and Deceased served three terms esman from Illinois, and was stant secretary of the treasury
erman in the Hayes adminis-

While in Stockton, Cal., some time ago, Thos. F. Langan, of Los Banos, that state, was taken very severely with cramps and diarrhoea. He chanced to meet Mr. C. M. Carter, who was similarly afflicted. He says: "I told him of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and he went to the Holean drug store and procured a bottle of it. It gave Mr. Harter prompt relief and I can vouch for its having cured me." For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

An exchange says that the much talked about bloomer bicycle dress is simply a pair of trousers, very baggy at the knees, abnormally full about the pistol pocket and considerably loose where you strike a match. The garment is décolleté at the south end, and the bottoms are tied around the knees to keep the mice out. You can't put it over your head as you do a skirt, but you sit on the floor and pull it on just as you would your stockings, one foot in each compartment. You can easily tell which is the right side to have in front, by the buttons on the neckband.

S. P. Goodyear, of Wausa, Knox county, father of Mrs. G. W. Clark, has been visiting with his daughter for a few days. Mr. Goodyear, although seventy-six years of age, is a pedestrian of no mean ability. He left Wausa, 65 miles distant from O'Neill, on Tuesday the 21st, walked to Comond where he had some business to attend to, and from there to O'Neill, arriving here on the evening of the 23d. Mr. G. used to reside in this county, about half way between Mineola and Dorsey, distant from this city 26 miles, and the distance to O'Neill and back to his home has been covered in 15 hours, by Mr. Goodyear, on foot, many times while the old gentleman was bordering on the age of seventy.

Make an offer for the nw 4-26-13, clear. J. B. MELLOR, Stuttgart, Ark.

Charley Hall is in Omaha this week on business.—Frontier.

Now dear Clyde, isn't it a fact that Charlie went to St. Paul to the A. P. A. convention as a delegate from your un-American society in O'Neill? Are you ashamed of your order?—Beacon Light.

We have a distinct recollection of the Atkinson Graphic, a year or so ago, calling upon Mr. Kautzman to deny by affidavit that he belonged to the society known as the A. P. A. He declined at that time to comply with the request and we guess that it was a good thing for his soul that he did. The foregoing item reminds us of the story told by the "Wife of Bath." The lady in reciting how she played her poker-hand of husbands and always managed to keep them on the defensive, said: "I, like a dog, could bite as well as whine, and first complained whenever the guilt was mine."

The report has been current upon the streets the past week that Henry Murphy had succeeded in defeating, in the supreme court, the bonds voted in Grant township for the benefit of the Short Line road. We have inquired into the matter somewhat and find that the rumor is incorrect. The matter stands about this way: Some five years ago Mr. Murphy applied to Judge Crites, then district judge, for an injunction restraining the officers from levying a tax for the liquidation of these bonds, giving as a reason therefor that the election call had not been signed by a sufficient number of freeholders. Judge Crites refused to allow the injunction to issue and the case was taken to the supreme court on error, where the decision of the lower court was reversed and the injunction granted. This does not defeat the bonds, but simply places the township on the defensive, and action will no doubt be commenced in United States court by the bond holders.

It is because of its indefinite basis of argument that no sensible man nor woman can take up with this "New Woman" movement, writes Edward W. Bok editorially in the June Ladies' Home Journal. So far as one can see, it leads nowhere. It has no point. These women do not want to be men, for they have plainly told us that men are immoral and are dominant tyrants. They resent being women, because they tell us to be a woman is to be "a subject creature"—whatever that may mean. There is not much left for them, therefore, that I can see—nothing except to create a third sex. It was George Elliot who, in one of her epigrammatic moments, discovered that there were three sexes in England, "men, women and clergymen." Perhaps the leaders of our "New Woman" movement will discover something of this sort for us in America—something which will render them as offensive to decent Americans as George Elliot's remark rendered her offensive for a long time in the eyes of self-respecting English people. Then we shall hear less of the "new woman," and perhaps our attention will be a little more directed to the present woman. And we shall all be the better for it—decidedly the better for it.

COULD NOT GET INTO COURT.

County Attorney H. E. Murphy, of O'Neill, is up in arms against Attorney-General Churchill in relation to their respective authority to conduct the trial of the Holt county vigilantes implicated in the Barrett Scott murder, but he got nothing but dissatisfaction from the supreme court yesterday. It is a peculiar case, this petty jealousy displayed by Murphy and revealed in an application filed with the supreme court. In brief Attorney-General Churchill moved the district court of Holt county to dismiss the case against the accused, for the purpose of commencing action in another county, his desire being to get a trial in a place removed from the residence of all parties concerned, it being the opinion of many that an impartial trial could not be had in Holt county. The district judge dismissed the case and the attorney-general immediately filed suit against the accused in Boyd county.

When the supreme court convened Tuesday Mr. Murphy asked leave to file in that court a petition in error, asking that the rulings of the district judge be reversed. Murphy alleged that the lower court erred in sustaining the motion of the attorney-general to dismiss the case over the objection of the county attorney, and in overruling the motion of the county attorney asking the court to prohibit the attorney-general from interfering with the duties of the county attorney in prosecuting this case, and that the court erred in permitting the attorney general to take control, management and charge of the prosecution.

All this was laid before the supreme court, and Murphy, who prosecuted Barrett Scott, pursued him to Mexico and fought him while he was alive, filed with the application a brief in which he says his client in this case, the state, has been unjustly dealt with because the case was dismissed in Holt county and taken to an adjoining county. He asks the supreme court to reinstate the case in Holt county, as in his judgment, "a great injustice has been done my client, the state, in the dismissal of this case." Mr. Murphy took the matter quite seriously, that removal of the case to a place where the attorney-general said there was a show of an impartial trial, and in his quaint way asked "leaf," as he writes it, to file a transcript.

The question, as Mr. Murphy put it to the supreme court, was: "Has the attorney-general the right, or is it his duty, to take control, management and charge of a criminal case when requested to do so by the governor or legislature, and can he dismiss a case in the district court, and has he the authority to do so over the objection of the county attorney?"

The court acted yesterday by denying Mr. Murphy leave to file his petition.—State Journal.

DEATH OF MRS. DARR.

Mrs. Harriette Darr was born in Fayette county Pennsylvania, in 1820; died at her home in Scottville, Neb., May 20, 1895.

Deceased was married to G. Darr in 1839, and came with him to this county in '79, residing here until her death. Eight children were born to them, six of whom are now living. They are: John, Dave and Frank, Mrs. Sargent, Mrs. Crownover and Mrs. Barrett Scott. The remains were interred Tuesday, May 21, in the cemetery at Scottville. Rev. Rosenkrans preached the funeral sermon.

Deceased was always a devout christian, a member of the Presbyterian church for fifty-six years, and passed away secure in the promise of a bright immortality.

Mrs. Darr was an invalid for years, but always a patient sufferer. She was an estimable lady and had many friends who sincerely mourn her demise and sympathize with the bereaved husband and family.

Short Line Time Card.

Passenger leaves 9:35 A. M., arrives 9:07 P. M.; freight leaves 9:07 P. M., arrives 7 P. M. Daily except Sunday.

Notes.

Strayed from P. F. Thompson's, four miles south of Swan Lake, March 21, 1895, one sorrel horse, white face, three white feet, weight 750. When last seen had halter on and was shod all round.

A liberal reward will be given for same by D. F. FELTON, 45-3 Swan, Holt county, Neb.

Whooping Cough.

There is no danger from this disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It liquefies the tough mucus and aids its expectoration. It also lessens the severity and frequency of paroxysms of coughing, and insures a speedy recovery. There is not the least danger in giving the remedy to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale by P. C. Corrigan, druggist. 48-4

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Sunday School workers held at O'Neill, Neb., the most enthusiastic convention that has been held in Holt county for years, on Thursday, May 23, 1895.

The attendance was good, nearly all of the Sunday schools of the county being represented.

The convention was opened by praise service, led by Rev. Hosman. Theme of praise from the one hundredth psalm. A call for short prayers and testimonies giving reasons for praise, was heartily responded to.

The convention was opened by praise service, led by Rev. Hosman. Theme of praise from the one hundredth psalm. A call for short prayers and testimonies giving reasons for praise, was heartily responded to. Paper—"Character and its Weight"—by Wilson Brodie, had for its theme; the magnitude of the importance of character in influencing the young. Discussion was opened by Rev. Rosenkrans, who impressed forcibly the great importance of christian character. Rev. Hosman the fact brought out in the paper of character being a part of our being that is continually with us and decides our destiny. Mrs. Blackburn would reduce the number of years to two instead of twelve in forming character. After singing, "Fill Me Now," Rev. Blackburn read a forcible paper on the "Personal Application of the Lesson," emphasizing the importance of personal application to fasten effectually the theme of the lesson. Discussion was led by Mrs. Jennie Fryer, who said Christ, our example, always made a personal application of the lessons he taught. The following committees were then appointed: Resolutions, N. S. Lowrie, Mrs. L. H. Blackburn and G. F. Smith. On nominations, Rev. B. Blain, H. R. Henry and Wilson Brodie.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Meeting called to order by president. Devotional exercises by Rev. Blain. Scripture lesson, 19th psalm, impressing the 14th verse, followed by song and silent prayer.

Paper—"How Shall We Introduce and Maintain a Normal Course of Study"—by Mrs. Blackburn, was made doubly interesting and impressive by the use of charts, proving the necessity of the normal class in securing a systematic study of the bible. Rev. H. Frady ably discussed the paper, after which forty-two Sunday schools reported, with a total enrollment of 1,898 members. Twelve other schools not reported.

Paper—"The Bible vs. the Lesson Leaf"—by Rev. Lowrie, showed that by putting the lesson leaf in the hands of a child without the Bible is wrong. Discussion by Rev. Hill, sanctioning all the points in the paper, was followed by others and all joined in the one thought of leaving the lesson leaf at home for help in studying the lesson and take the bible into the Sunday school room, thus making the lesson leaf a means of helpfulness without becoming a substitute for the Bible.

At this juncture a collection was taken amounting to $4.66 to defray expenses.

Paper—"The Model Teacher"—by president Jackson, showed that the "model teacher" must be pure and clean, like unto the great teacher, Christ; an abstainer from liquor and tobacco, and one who teaches christianity, by example as well as precept. Discussion led by H. R. Henry, whose principal thought was the responsibility of the teacher. J. S. Hoffman spoke of the carefulness with which the model teacher would seek to mold the young lives. After singing, E. H. Benedict presented a paper on "Best Methods of Conducting Sunday School," setting forth in an able manner the duties of the superintendent. The discussion was opened by Rev. Blain who endorsed the paper throughout. The convention next proceeded to elect officers. Report of nominating committee was read and was as follows: For President, W. R. Jackson, Recording Secy. J. C. Harnish; Cor. Secy. Frances Brodie; Treasurer, Mrs. L. H. Blackburn; District President Dorsey district, V. V. Rosenkrans; Dustin, Wilson Brodie; Atkinson, Mrs. Blackburn; O'Neill, Rev. N. S. Lowrie; Ewing, W. C. Clifton; Chambers, J. C. Hoffman. Moved and carried that we adopt the report as read. Moved and carried that they be elected by acclamation. Report of committee on resolutions read and resolutions adopted. After singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," the convention closed with the benediction by Rev. Lowrie.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved: That those now present in view of the interest manifest in this convention we reorganize a revival in Sunday school work; and Whereas: The workers have so cheerfully responded by their presence and by taking part in the convention, therefore be it Resolved: First, that we have great reason to rejoice in the earnestness and fidelity of our superintendents and teachers and Sunday school workers, who promise great results during the year to come. Second, that the thanks of the convention be given to those who prepared the excellent program and to the president and secretary who worked up the convention, and those who prepared papers and carried on discussions. Third, that we pledge ourselves to do all we can to promote the Sunday school work in our county and to get up an enthusiastic convention next year. Fourth, that we urge on our schools the formation of normal classes and teachers' libraries whenever possible. Fifth, that we urge our schools to secure copies of the bible to use in the school and in the home. Sixth, that the convention return hearty thanks to the people of O'Neill for their generous hospitality to the delegates.

FRANCES BRODIE,
Corresponding Secretary.

HELP, HELP, HELP!

In the Name of Suffering Humanity
the

CITIZENS' RELIEF COMMITTEE

Of Ewing, Nebraska, Asks Assistance From the People of Pine Bluff.

The following appeal has been received by Mayor Goldsmith from the citizens' relief committee of Ewing, Nebraska. Our people have gained a most enviable record for the generous manner in which they respond to such cases from sufferers, and we feel certain that the response to this urgent and pathetic appeal will be liberal and immediate. All contributions should be addressed to Mayor Goldsmith:

EWING, NEB., May 13, 1895.

To Mayor Pine Bluff, Ark.—Hon. Sir.—I enclose you "Citizens Appeal." Will you kindly hand to paper for publication in behalf of our afflicted people who are urgently in need of assistance. On the 9th and 10th inst. we had heavy frosts, freezing ice, and doing great damage to their little crop and garden, again filling them with despair at their helpless condition and dread of the coming winter.

Could you not devise some method that contributions may be collected in your city for their relief? Earnestly hoping for your assistance in this trying emergency and to hear from you soon, we are, yours very truly,

CITIZENS' RELIEF COMMITTEE.

Per C. C. FOND, Secretary.

The foregoing article, heading and all, appeared last week the Pine Bluff (Ark.) Commercial.

It seems to us that some means could be devised to stop this misrepresentation. The people of Ewing are not suffering and persons who use that plea for the purpose of securing donations are not only dishonest, but a detriment to the community in which they ply their nefarious avocation.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

The opera-house was crowded last Thursday night when the curtain rung up for the first act of the high school commencement exercises.

The room was tastefully decorated, and the manner in which the program was handled spoke well for the pupils and was creditable to the school.

Following is the program that was rendered:

- Invocation.....Rev. Lowrie.
- Oration....."Transportation"
Charles Meals, Class of '96.
Music.
- Essays....."Newspapers"
Alice Cronin, Class of '96.
Music.
- Oration....."False Ambition"
Merritt Martin, Class of '97.
Music.
- Essay....."Character"
Mammie Cullen, Class of '96.
Music.
- Oration....."The Present and Future of Our Country"
Lloyd Gillespie, Class of '97.
Music.
- Essay....."Wit and Humor"
Pearl Hawk, Class of '96.
Music.
- Oration....."The Present Age"
Will Lowrie, Class of '96.
Music.
- Presentation of Diploma by.....
The President of the Board.
Music.
- Benediction.....

Anyone who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a siege of that discouraging ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriman's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes special pains in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by P. C. Corrigan, druggist. 43-4

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
Awarded Gold Medal Midwinter Fair, San Francisco.

THE SCIENCE OF ADVERTISING.

Go hence, go hence, and paint a fence; Paint signboards on the ridges; In seeking fame inscribe your name On fifty thousand bridges.

—G. H. JOHNSON.

In every town there are merchants who refuse to advertise in the newspapers; they are filled with the spirit of all that is old, fogyish and mossbacked, and they live in solitary confinement in their stores, while their more enterprising neighbors do the business. The strange thing about it is that the merchant who has such a horror of advertising in the newspapers will, in nine cases out of ten, patronize any transparent fake that comes along. They are fond of the man who goes around the country with a pot of paint, daubing misspelled legends on the fences and bridges, and they'll pay their money to have an advertisement painted on a baloon, or they'll invest in dodgers, or chalk a lot of literature on the sidewalk, or do anything except the right thing.

In one Nebraska town, according to the local paper, a dozen merchants were recently victimized by a paper bag fakir; they furnished the bags and the money and the fakir was to do certain printing and engraving, and the merchants were buncoed for the bags and the money. According to the same paper, not one of those merchants was an advertiser in the home journals. Was ever fact more significant (or gratifying)?

In another Nebraska town a man put up a big signboard on a vacant lot, and sold space at high prices to the local merchants; those who never patronize the papers jumped eagerly at this scheme, and two painters were kept busy for days inscribing advertisements in gorgeous colors and luxuriant language. The signboard, when completed, looked like a fourth of July celebration, and was attracting attention when the owner of the vacant lot (who had never been consulted) came along and ordered the signboard taken down. It was taken down, and as there was no available site for it within the city limits, it was destroyed. Of the scores who witnessed the work of demolition, there was not one who had a word of sympathy for the merchants.

There is but one way to advertise.—Walt Mason.

LAUGH AND THE WORLD LAUGHS WITH YOU.

Miss Ancient appears very cold and indifferent to men, although they say in years gone by she was engaged several times. Yes; she is a souvenir spoon.—Truth.

Her golden hair, her silvery voice, Ah, me who, could resist? 'Tis easy quite to make my choice, I'm a bimetalist.

—Washington Star.

"Doan nebbah mek fun ob serious t'ings," said uncle Eben, "an', on do udah han', doan' be too serious 'bout t'ings dat order be funny."—Washington Star.

Jinklets—I want my wife to be a woman who thinks before she speaks.

Plunkett—Why don't you say you are a confirmed bachelor.—Detroit Free Press.

Weary Walker—How much did yer work that gent for, Raggy?

Raggy Rogerts—I wish yer wouldn't use the word "trot" to me. It's unperfeshnel.—Detroit Free Press.

If a woman gets what she wants to wear and a man what he wants to eat, there's no reason why they shouldn't live together and be happy.—New York Recorder.

"What is that, Marie?" asked the cheerful idiot.

"Whipped cream," answered the waiter girl.

"I suppose," said the cheerful idiot, "that to be consistent it should be served with beet sugar."—Cincinnati Tribune.

Mrs. Malaprop—Who are the two young ladies playing that duet on the piano?

Herr Strawitzki—One is the daughter of the hostess.

Mrs. Malaprop—And, pray, who is her accomplice?—Eulenspiegel.

When people vow at the altar to share each other's sorrows they immediately go to work making sorrow to be shared.—Atchison Globe.

"Didn't I hear you address that man as 'Baron'?"

"Yes."

"He isn't entitled to that distinction." "I know."

"Then why did you call him 'Baron'?" "Because he's no 'count.'"—Pittsburg Commercial Telegraph.

Largest Circulation in Nebraska.

It isn't much wonder that The State Journal now has the largest circulation in Nebraska. It has reduced its price to 65 cents a month with Sunday, or 50 cents without Sunday. It has been spending more money for Nebraska news than any other paper; it has on its staff such men as Bisby, Walt Mason and Annin. The Journal is being pushed at every point and is climbing steadily and surely away ahead of the other state dailies. People like a Lincoln paper. Especially when it is as good as The Journal.