KANSAS CROP REPORT.

Wheat Is Short, But Corn Promises to

Break the Record. TOPEKA, Kan., June 22 - The Kansas board of agriculture to-day issued a report on the state's present crop condition, deduced from observations made by its regular correspondents in practically every township in the state and Secretary Coburn thinks the show ing is in many respects one of fine prospects as compared with the report made May 1. The report is as follows:

Winter wheat—Previous estimates indicated the area sown to winter wheat as 4,064,137 acres, and May 1 it was believed that 53 per cent of this would be harvested. Present estimates are that about 37 per cent, or 1,496,791 acres will be cut and the average yield acres will be cut and the average yield 8.24 bushels per acre, or a total of 12,-32,333 bushels. The largest average yield per acre for a county is 15 bushels in Wyandotte. Allen, Coffey, Doniphan and Phillips report 13 bushels per acre and 33 counties an average yield of 10 bushels or more. bushels or more.

Spring Wheat—Of spring wheat 65 per cent of the acreage will be harvested, or about 86,000 acres. The yield is set down at 773,000 bushels, or an average of nine bushels per acre for the thirty-two counties in which it is reported growing. The highest is reported growing. The highest average, sixteen bushels, is figured from Phillips county; nineteen coun-ties report a probable averge of ten bushels or more per acre, and indications of the quality are medium or good. There is but a single exception as to the quality.

Corn—It is corn, the crop overshadow ing in acreage, value and importance an, other which Kansas produces, wherewith the state now promises to exceed by far the best of its wonder-ful previous yield records. The area now reported planted is 8,410,948 acres, or an increase of almost ten per cent of the estimate May 1, and also an increase of 1,417,741 acres, or more than twenty per cent, over the largest ever before planted, which was 6,993, 207 acres, in 1888.

Oats-The rains have worked a very notable change in the condition of cats, causing them to head and fill much better than seemed possible May 1, although the straw will be unusu-The yield promises to be not less than twenty-five bushels per acre, or a total of 32,000,000 bushels of "medium" to "very good" grain—the largest output since 1892.

Chinch bugs have been more or less numerous and industrious in Atchison, Chautauqua, Cherokee, Crawford, Franklin, Labette, Montgomery, Sum-ner, Wabaunsee and Woodson, but recent rains must inevitably check their injurious work, and also strengthen plant growth to better withstand their

Rye—Rye was sown on 165,540 acres, of which 51 per cent, or 84,935 acres will be harvested and yield ten bushels per acre. Quality "medium" to "good." Barley — There is 124,000 acres of barley growing, or 11 per cent more than in 1894. Present conditions compared with 100 as a full average is 76. Potatoes—Irish potatoes have an areage of 123,250, which is an increase of twenty-three per cent, or 23.140 acres over last year. This, excepting that of 1888 (126,185 acres), is the largest area ever given to potatoes in

SILVER IN THE WAY.

A LONG FIGHT IN THE LEAGUE CONVENTION.

Friends of White Metal Determined-A Compromise Address Proffered, Which the Silver Champions Antagonize-The Matter Referred to a Sub-Committee With Only Two Free Coinage Members -What Was Offered by the Man from Oklahoma.

The Contest is Over Silver. CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 21. - The committee on resolutions of the Republican national league organized vesterday, with Congressman Robinson of Pennsylvania as chairman and H. G. Knowles of Delaware as secretary. This was against the silverites, but they at once began a fight. A recess was taken for two hours, when a subcommittee of nine was appointed to hear all sides. The compromise resolution, which attracted the most attention, was presented by Senator-elect J. M. Thurston of Nebraska, as follows: "We approve the declaration of the last Republican national convention, 'the American people from tradition and interest favor bi-metallism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as a standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions to be determined as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so the purchasing or debt paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equaly, and refer the action for a more specific declaration to the next Republican convention, which alone has the power to bind the party or make platforms and declare principles."

It was after two o'clock this morning when the subcommittee adjourned. Mr. Blackwell of Massachusetts presented a resolution inclining very strongly toward the gold standard, and numerous other resolutions expressing all sorts of views on the money ques tion followed in quick succession. Sen-ator Dubois of Idaho and Mr. Allen of Utah fought like tigers for free coinage, making vigorous speeches, which were listened to with close attention. They spoke for free coinage at 16 to 1. without waiting for the co-operation of any other nation.

The sub-committee resumed its session early after breakfast. The proposition of the anti-free coinage men was modified into an address that would prevent the silver men from preparing and offering a minority report. Senator Dubois and Allen of Utah had to be satisfied. The sub-committee appointed Dr. Robinson of New York, Senator Dubois of Idaho New York, Senator Dubois of Idaho and Mr. Harkless of Missouri as a committee to revise the address.

The revision committee reported to the subcommittee at 10 o'clock and the discussion on the silver issue was resumed. The subcommittee, however, announced that it would report to the full committee at 2 o'clock.

As soon as it became known that a compromise in the shape of an address on the financial issue was being figured on, nearly everyone started to work for this plan with a view to preventing such a fight in convention as there was in the committeee on resolutions.

The Tennessee delegation met before the convention and decided that the new South had not been properly brought to the front before the convention as other sections. A resolution was adopted requesting ex-Congressman William R. Moore to prepare an address to the Republican party of the United States, to be delivered to the convention, setting forth the claims of the South to a fuller recognition by

WARNER MILLER MAKES A TALK. When President Tracy called the convention to order at 11 o'clock the first thing done was the appointment of Senator-elect Thurston of Nebraska. H. Clay Evans of Tennessee, ex-Gov-ernor Prince of New Mexico, Messrs. Goodnow of Minnesota and Buck of Georgia to wait on ex-Senator Warner Miller of New Xork and invite him to address the convention. Then the committee on credentials reported in favor of seating both delegations from South Carolina. This was adopted. On the report of the committee on rules the rules of the Reed house and the Denver convention were adopted. Warner Miller then addressed the convention. Mr. Miller appeared with a brilliant McKinley badge on his lapel and, in referring to the absence of those who were expected to be here to sound keynotes, he said he would wear that badge till he reached the New York state line on his return and there he would be for the Empire

As the committee on resolutions was not ready to report an opportunity was given to all to offer resolutions which vere referred without debate. Resolutions poured in on the Cuban insurgents, Hawaiian republic, the Armenians and all other foreign subjects.

Mr. Blackwell of Massachusetts offered a resolution favoring the right of women to vote at all elections, and congratulating the women of Colorado and Wyoming upon their possession of the elective franchise. He also offered a resolution arraigning the administion for its Turkish policy. Mr. O'Driscoll of Maryland offered a resolution which he said would change the Democratic states. It provided for a protective tariff, reciprocity, honest elections, gold, silver and paper on a parity, and an aggressive foreign

JOSEPH'S FOOT-WASHING.

The Curious Ceremony of Holy Week in Vienna.

On Holy Thursday, at Vienna, the Emperor Francis Joseph performed the annual ceremony of washing the feet of twelve old beggars, says the New York Sun. The ceremony took place in the hall of ceremonies in the imperial palace. On a platform raised slightly above the floor was a long table with twelve covers, a plate, knife, wooden spoon, folded napkin for each, with a piece of bread, a pewter mug, and a little blue pitcher filled with water. At 10 o'clock, twelve old men, the youngest 89 and the oldest 96, entered the hall and were supported, each by two relatives, to the platform, which they mounted with difficulty, and were placed in their seats, their relatives, most of them women, standing behind them. Then entered twenty knights of the Teutonic order, headed by their master, Archduke Eugene, dressed in white with long black crosses on the breasts of their doublets and others on the back of their long black cloaks. They marched around the hall, and then, forming a line on either side, made way for the ministers, with Count Kalnoky at the head, and the emperor's staff. They were followed by the primate of Austria, Cardinal Gruscha, with priests and acolytes bearing candles and burning incense. Then came the emperor, dressed in the white uniform of an Austrian general and wearing the order of the Golden Fleece. He advanced to the table and addressed a few words to the old men. At a signal from the master of ceremonies twelve guardmen stepped forward, each bearing on a tray the first course of the sumptuous repast; the emperor now took off his helmet, gave it to an officer, and, passing down the line, arranged the dishes before the guests. Twelve archdukes then approached and removed the Barmecide banquet from the guests eyes, handing the dishes to the guards. This was repeated for three courses, and with the last, the plates, knives and other objects on the table were also taken off. They were all packed later, with the food, in wooden boxes, and sent to the homes of the old men. The table was then taken away, and the 'washing of feet" began. A priest approached with a towel and golden basin full of water; their slippers were taken from the old men's feet, and the emperor, on his knees, beginning with the oldest, moistened his feet with water and dried them with the towel. Without rising, still on his knees, he passed on to the next one, and so on to the end of the row. When he had finished he rose and placed around each man's neck a chain, attached to which was a small white bag containing thirty pieces of silver. That ended the ceremony; the emperor and his suite withdrew, and the old men were taken home by their friends. A COUPLE'S ADVENTURE.

Short of Funds, but the Gentleman Was an Able Financier.

Among the throng on bicycles speeding between Ridgewood and Tuxedo on Saturday afternoon were a little couple not yet in their teens, says the New York Sun. The little lady manipulated the wheel to perfection, and as they passed along they looked even more interesting than the beautiful country about them. They had halted at Ramsey's, had cream and confectionery, and had resumed their trip when rain began to fall. Here was a culated on. Rain meant railroad fare back to Ridgewood, for in no circumstances could the young lady be allowed to get wet. They hastened to the first railroad station. The youth saw the wheels housed and then fished in his pockets for funds. The little treat at the saloon had absorbed nearly all his cash, but he arose to the occasion and in a confidential way whispered to the ticket agent that if two could ride on a whole ticket that cost less than two half tickets he thought he had suffihalf tickets he thought he had suffi-cient funds to buy one. Then, to his dismay, the lad discovered he was 2 He pictures General Grant at the head cents short even of the price of one whole ticket. He so informed the ! agent and asked for credit for that sum, promising to reimburse him at another time. The agent looked at the worried face of the little girl and handed him out a ticket.

A Worried Farmer.

A farmer who has been studying agricultural journals writes the editor of an Ohio paper that he is stumped. He says he reads in one journal that a side window in his stable makes a horse's eye weak on that side. Another paper tells him that a front window hurts his eyes by the glare; those on diagonal lines make him shy when he travels; one behind makes him squint-eyed, and a stable without windows makes him blind. The farmer wants to know whether there is any place outside the heads of those editors where he can hang his windows.

Just previous to the big boom in oil a gentleman who knew the condition of affairs and was certain that prices would go away up, went to a friend, who had more ready cash than knowledge of the world, and said:

"Friend John, the price of oil is going to go up, so I would advise you to buy 10,000 barrels."

"Buy 10,000 barrels of oil?" was the astonished reply of the man addressed. who looked as if he thought his friend was crazy; "why, I don't use a barrel in a year."

He has been intimately associated all his life with the development of the Remington and Winchester rifles. For years he was superintendent of the E. Remington & Sons' great factory at Illon, N. Y. After leaving there he refused a tempting offer of the Chinese government to go to China to superintend their government factories,—and accepted instead the superintendency of the Winchester Arms Co., at New Haven, at a salary of $7,500 a year.

It was after this long term of active labor as a business man that he found himself incapacitated for further service by the embargo which rheumatism had laid upon him and resigned his position more than two years ago, and returned to Belchertown, Mass., where he now lives and owns the Phelps farm.

Being a man of means he did not spare the cost and was treated by leading physicians and by baths of celebrated springs without receiving any benefit worth notice. During the summer of 1893 and the winter of 1894 Mr. Clough was confined to his house in Belchertown, being unable to rise from his bed without assistance, and suffering continually with scute pains and with mo taste or desire for food, nor was he able to obtain sufficient sleep.

Early in the year 1894 Mr. Clough heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. He began taking these pills about the first of March, 1894, and continued to do so until the first effect noticed was a better appetite and he continued to do so until the first part of September following. The first effect noticed was a better appetite and he began to note more ability to help himself off the bed and to be better generally. Last August (1894) he was able to go alone to his summer residence and farm of 163 acres on Grenadier island, among the Thousand islands, in the River St. Lawrence, where from the highest land of his farm he commands a view for thirteen miles down the river, and sixty of the Thousand islands can be seen.

and sixty of the Thousand islands can be seen.

Instead of being confined to his bed Mr. Clough is now and has been for some time able to be about the farm to direct the men employed there and he is thankful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for him.

These pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine compary, Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 and are never sold in bulk. They may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine company.

The mother of Julia Kavanagh was a woman of great intellectual power and unusual force of character, but even when she was 80 years old she was ashamed of her age. One day she went with her French maid to the cemetery at Nice, to visit the tomb she had erected to her daughter. The two were standing beside the stone when the maid innocently read the inscription.

Julia Kavanagh had then been dead course, recorded. "Madam must be very old," remarked the maid. "Old!" exclaimed Mrs. Kavanagh; "why should I be old? What do you know about my age?" "Mademoiselle was "A when she died "continued the circle." about my age?" "Mademoiselle was 54 when she died," continued the girl, "and she has been dead some time. Therefore, madam must be very old" Mrs. Cavanagh said nothing, but next day she sent a mason to the cemetery, and had the tell-tale figures removed.
