BOSTON'S BLOODY FOURTH

Boston, July 6.-The Fourth of July parade of the patriotic societies of Boston and vicinity, at East Boston, ended in a pitched battle between some of the paraders and the spectators, in which sticks, stones and revolvers were used with fatal effect. John Wills, a laborer of East Boston, one of the spectators, was shot and instantly killed; Michael Boyle, of East Boston, had his head split open by a club, and now lies dying in a city hospital. A young man named Stewart had his nose cut off with a saber, in the hands of one of the paraders. Patrick Kelley sustained a severe scalp wound, whether from a club or a bullet is not known, and Officer A. S. Bates was hit in the mouth by a brick, thrown by an unknown person, and lost several teeth, besides suffering from severe lacerations. It is claimed from severe lacerations. It is claimed that the trouble all resulted from the persistence of those who had managed the parade in introducing as a feature a float representing the 'little red schoolhouse," which, from its association as the emblem of the American Protective Association, has become obnoxious to many persons, especially those who do not sympathize with the A. P. A. movement. The Fourth of July committee refused to permit this feature to appear in the result and there is in the several

The police officials, in anticipation of any hostile demonstration, had a special squad of 350 men, in addition to the East Bos-ton forms on data. But they ment the ton force, on duty, but they marched at the head of the procession. At several points the feeling of the crowd was given vent in hisses at the 1,500 paraders and the schoolhouse, but no further demonstration was made until the rear of the parade reached Putnam street, when the crowd tried to overturn the last carriage. Word was sent to the front for police assistance and a squad of twenty officers was sent back. A skirmish followed between the crowd and the officers. When the parade broke up, and those who had partic. pated were proceeding in companies to the ferry a group of between sixty and seventy was surrounded on Boarder street by a crowd who com-menced hooting and throwing stones. A dozen revolvers were drawn, and in response to the fusilade of stones, eight or ten shots were fired. The firing of the revolvers brought a large body of police to the spot and the mob was soon dispersed. As the scene was cleared the officers found John Wills dead in the street, with a bullet hole in his right side, and Patrick A. Kelley lying seriously wounded about the head. An Ex-Missourian Who Shot a Legislator in 1879 and Fled Seeks His Family.

PERRY, Ok., July 6.—Oscar B. Fowler, formerly of Kentucky, once a major in the Confederate army, arrived here yesterday in search of his wife, Mattie J., and his daughter, Gail, whom he had not seen for sixteen years.

During the session of the Missouri legislature in 1879 at Jefferson City, Major Fowler, in a quarrel over a game of poker one night, shot and wounded a member of the legislature. He left Missouri immediately and went to Oregon and from the collegistic

Legislative Boodlers.

CHICAGO, July 4.—Early in the regular session of the legislature, a rigid bill was introduced for the preservation of game. It is charged that a member of the house obtained $700 from the Illinois Sportsmen's association for substituting a section removing the penalty from sportsmen, but placing it on the dealer in game. Then, it is charged, a Chicago senator and other members approached ator and other members approached the game dealers and demanded from $500 to $1,000 each to work for a change in the law in favor of the dealers, while one Chicago senator offered for $2,500, to see that the whole bill was killed. This exposure will, it is said, be followed by others.

Evidence has been obtained establishing charges of bribery in the passage of the Miller and Lowenthal bills, the Crawford railroad bill, the bill providing for consolidation of certain corporations, and it is asserted that evidence can be had that money was used to defeat the arbitration bill, that some of the money was paid to members in Chicago, but the larger amount was distributed in Springfield. It is probable that the board of was distributed in Springfield. It is probable that the board of trade may aid materially in furnishing evidence against one or two members of the house in connection with a certain bill in which the board of trade was interested. It is said that sufficient evidence is in hand to indict at least fifteen members of the legislature.

ment Proposed—Labor Day Set Apart. WASHINGTON, July 4.—Several hundred members of the local Knights of Labor were addressed by Master Workman Sovereign last night at a meeting held to protest against the imprisonment of Eugene V. Debs. Mr. Sovereign denounced the confinement of Debs as an unlawful act of the courts. He asked the workingmen to bond together for mutual protection, and announced that he had issued an order to the Knights of Labor of the United States to set apart Labor day, the first Monday in September as a time to make a mammoth protest against Debs' incarceration.

At the conclusion of the speechmaking a resolution was adopted demanding of congress legislation which shall give legal protection to organized employes of corporations and secure them in the future from "the arbitrary and unjust application of an injunction under a gross and wilfull misconstruction of the law."

Congressman Joy of Missouri and His Bride Have Narrow Escapes.

CASADRO, Cal., July 4.—Congressman Joy of Missouri and his bride were driving with a coaching party of twelve on a steep mountain road, with a precipice on one side, yesterday when the coach was overturned. Fortunately it fell toward the mountain instead of over the edge of the road. The bravery of the driver, who jumped between the struggling horses, saved the party from being dragged to death or hurled into the gorge below. LOVE FOUND THE WAY. LAWYERS DISGRACED

FORT SCOTT, Kan., July 4.-Dr. Hunter, of Chicago, a traveling doctor, with an advertising company, drove sixteen miles through the mud to this city yesterday afternoon to prevent the marriage of A. J. Bunce of Topeka and Miss Ida Guernheart of Omaha and created a sensation which resulted in his arrest. The young man and woman were leading members of his company and they came here to get married. The doctor, who, it appears, loves the pretty young woman, arrived at the Huntington hotel with his silk hat, broadcloth clothes and white shirt all bespattered with mud, just as the ceremony was to be performed. He entered the room where the officiating judge was waiting for a witness, drew a pistol, and attempted to shoot Bunce. The two scuffled, but the prospective groom was finally compelled to flee for his life. The screams of the female patrons of the hotel attracted 500 people who, seeing Bunce running hatless, supposed him to be the offender and pursued him. He was captured three blocks away in hiding in the grain room of a grocery store. After proper explanations he returned to the hotel escorted by the city marshal and the ceremony was performed. The doctor was later found and arrested.

Two Dollars Given Back as Charity to a Wealthy but Seedy Passenger.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 4.—Nelson Bennett, proprietor of the Tacoma Ledger and one of the wealthiest men in the Northwest, was one of the passengers on the Southern Pacific overland express which was robbed. The robbers suffered him to pass with the loss of $7.50. "I got off rather lucky," said he. "They came through our car and the man who was carrying the sack abproached me and sized me up pretty thoroughly. I saw I would have to begin to hunt up my spare change. I felt in my pockets for silver and pulled out a few dollars. The robber was in a hurry and he seemed to think I would have a hard time to satisfy him, because he said: 'Well, you're a poor devil. Here's $2 for you to eat on awhile; I'll keep the rest.' Then he passed on, and despite the excitement some of the passengers had the laugh on me."

A detailed statement of the losses of the passengers shows that the personal losses aggregated $520. The list includes two gold watches and a revolver. The mail losses aggregate $1,000.

R. M. Harber and A. G. Knight Severely Arraigned—They are Found Guilty of Mutilating and Altering Records in the Howell Murder Case—Harber a Leader in Missouri for Years—Turned Down by the State Supreme Court.

Disbarred from Practice.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 5.—Judge Sherwood filed an opinion in the supreme court in banc this morning in the proceedings instituted by Attorney General Walker disbarring Colonel Ed M. Harber and A. G. Knight of Trenton forever from practicing before the supreme court.

The action was the result of the murder trial of Joseph A. Howell, who was indicted for murdering Mrs. Nettie Hall, a Linn county widow, and her four little children. The case was tried in Grundy county and Howell convicted of murder in the first degree. An appeal was taken to the supreme court, and when the case was called up for argument the attorney general found that the transcript of testimony had been mutilated and forged so as to destroy all identity of the murdered person. In brief, the records had been so doctored as to leave the state without any case. This matter, being brought to the attention of the court, measures were adopted to have the sequently hanged.

records corrected and Howell was subsequently hanged. The attorney general then brought action to disbar the attorneys for the defense. Major A. W. Mullins, one of the attorneys, barely escaped by a divided court, on the theory that he did not know the records had been falsified.

This is the first disbarment proceedings ever instituted in the state supreme court.

PENSION CHANGES.

The Forces in the Various Branches Classified for the Civil Service, /

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The work of readjusting and classifying the forces of the pension offices of the country has just been completed with a view to shortly extending to them the protection of the civil service laws. Heretofore, as long as the pension agent kept within the amount allowed to him for the expenses of his office, he could do pretty much as he pleased in regard to the size of his force and the amounts of salary paid. When it was decided to put the cflices under the civil service laws it was found necessary to change this system. The amount and character of the work done by each office was carefully noted and classifications made accordingly. While this has resulted in small reductions, both in force and salary, in some offices, in others there has been a corresponding increase, the total appropriation being about the same. The date when the civil service order will go into effect has not yet been determined, but will probably be

The Southern Pacific Overland Held Up-Passengers and Mail Robbed.

GRANT'S PASS, Ore., July 8.-The Southern Pacific overland train, northbound, was stopped last night at 10:15 o'clock by three highwaymen near Riddles, about thirty miles south of Roseberg, sticks of dynamite placed on the rails disabling the engine by blowing the flanges off the pony trucks. With the fireman, two of the highwaymen searched every car, from the express car to the rear Pullman. Nothing was obtained from the express car, for there was no treasure on board. In the mail car the Portland, Tacoma, Seattle and Victoria, British Columbia, registered sacks were rifled. The passengers were also searched pretty thoroughly, but with what success is not known

One highwayman shot at Conductor Kearney, who was in charge of the train, but missed him. The men mounted horses and quietly rode away.
