

WANTED TO BE A MAN.

The Young Woman Who Went to Chicago in Men's Clothing.

Miss Hettie Dickey, the young lady from Delaware who recently visited Chicago in men's clothing, has told the complete story of her adventures. It appears that for years she has had an overwhelming desire to be a man.

LANGUAGE OF THE FLAGS.

What They Are Supposed to Represent in Death or Life.

To "strike the flag" is to lower the national colors in token of submission, says the School Journal. Flags are used as the symbol of rank and command.

Won in Regular Order.

The report of Nasrullah Khan's impression that, as the first race he saw at Epsom was won by the prince of Wales, while on the second the premier was triumphant, they arrange matters in this way on the turf in this country.

A Judge of Faces.

Cecil Rhodes is a man of very simple tastes, remarkably unaffected, and plain-spoken. He has an iron will, but is soft-hearted, and is a philanthropic dreamer as well as a man of deeds.

The Banking Power.

Recent statistics show that the total "banking power," as it is called, of the world is $4,000,000,000, or $20,000,000,000.

CROWDED LONDON.

Figures Gathered by Gen. Booth of the Salvation Army.

Mr. Booth has checked his former measurement of London poverty. He has previously inquired how the people lived and worked by one method. Now he tries another, and compares the results.

FIREFLY ON A MAMMOTH SCALE.

Used by the Natives of the West Indies as an Illuminator.

The great firefly—elater noctilucosus—is an inhabitant of the savannahs of most of the warmer parts of America and the West India Islands.

A New Band Saw.

It must be a valuable mechanism indeed which fulfills the service claimed for a newly invented band saw—viz., the capacity to saw during both the forward and backward courses of the log carriage.

Leadville Is Rich.

It is the opinion of one of the most distinguished mining experts in Colorado that the mineral wealth lying beneath the streets of Leadville exceeds the gross amount that has been mined in the entire district to date.

GOOD MARRIES OF WORK.

Once Acquired, They Are Like Oil to Life's Machine.

If the time that many of us waste in making up our minds over little matters could be employed in doing something really useful how much more would we be able to accomplish?

AN ELECTRIC SPRING.

Many Invalids Were Cured There Before the Deception Was Found Out.

In one of the shipyards of Cleveland there is a young man who demonstrated to some people of the Rocky Mountain country the great influence of the mind over the body, says the Cleveland Leader.

Fire Proof Celluloid.

A unique method is lately described as introduced in England for manufacturing fireproof celluloid simply from the spent fibers from paper mills.

Pneumatic Mail Service.

Within a year the mails between New York and Brooklyn will be whisked back and forth through pneumatic tubes, running from one government building to the other.

Drying Up.

The region of the Caucasus is said to be drying up through the recession of the Caspian sea, leaving barren tracts of sand, which the wind carries over the plains.

IN FRENCH EYES.

American Women Have Good Taste, but No Originality.

I have had an interesting conversation with my hairdresser about the characteristics of the ladies of the many nationalities on whom he operates, says a writer in London Truth.

HOME-MADE TRUNKS.

The Scheme of a Chicago Man to Beat the Railroads on Baggage.

A caller dropped into the Brightside flat and found Mr. and Mrs. Brightside, and their wise little terrier, "Ming," all assembled in the kitchen.

"This is about the greatest crisis of my life," observed Mr. Brightside. "How do you suppose I got that rope in without opening the box? Just figure on it now."

As the caller belongs to the sex which has never produced a great epic poem, discovered a continent, or voted for the Governor of Illinois, she gave up the problem with a cheerful meekness born of centuries of acknowledged incapacity.

"But what are you doing it for?" "He's making trunks," explained Mrs. Brightside. "It's his latest specialty."

"The only trouble with me," said Mr. Brightside, with apparent irrelevance, "is that I'm lazy."

"But what on the top of the parlor are you making trunks out of packing boxes for? Cul bono, you know."

"To save freight. I'm sending them to a friend in Wisconsin, you see. I've got some other friends starting out there tonight, and if these things have handles on them can take them as baggage.

Mary E. Wilkins' Home Life.

Miss Mary E. Wilkins is the fortunate possessor of the treasury with which the romantic novelist adorns his heroines—a wealth of beautiful golden hair, and it is of the real yellow golden hue which one seldom sees growing naturally on a woman's head.

Deer Hunting in Maine.

There will be good deer hunting in Maine this year. In many districts recently numbers of the animals have been seen on farms and in fields very close to settlements and villages, which the hunters take to indicate a great plenty of the game in the woods.

A trinity there seems of principles, Which represent and rule created life—The love of self, our fellows, and our God.

"It is the best patent medicine in the world" is what Mr. E. M. Hartman, of Marquam, Oregon, says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

One night when Mr. Isaac Reese was stopping with me, says Mr. F. Hatch, a prominent merchant of Quartermaster, Washington, I heard him groaning.

ONCE HAPPY CHINA.

A Chinese Scholar in Paris Takes a Gloomy View of Modern Civilization.

"You wish to know," said he, "the opinion of our philosophers and sages in regard to the effect of the war just over upon the condition of the Chinese. Well I will give it to you.

"You fancy that the Chinese are ignorant, poor and wretched, but you must remember that happiness exists in the idea that one forms of it. In other words a man is happy when he believes himself happy, when he confines his desires to the few joys which are within his reach.

"You may have read the accounts of certain cruelties and barbarities, but they belong to the laws of war, which are equally barbarous in all countries. In a condition of peace, when their quietude is not disturbed, the Chinese are of marvelous benignity, which is only equalled by the gentleness of their wives.

A CHINESE THEATER.

Law Against Women on the Stage I Rigid and Unalterable.

We entered the building assigned to "The Ascending Luminous Dragon" by a small side door and proceeding for some distance along a very narrow, whitewashed passage and down a flight of steep and narrow wooden steps we arrived at the kitchen of the establishment, where "celestial" cooks were busily employed preparing savory (?) dishes for the performing company.

The artists were exclusively Chinese and, despite the deceptive makeup, all men. No woman is allowed on the stage of a Chinese theater in any capacity whatever. Strange as it may sound, the omission is, however, hardly noticeable, for the get-up of the men impersonating female characters is so perfect that it is with difficulty one can really be convinced that the unalterable law on the subject has not been infringed.

You are required to answer on or before the 17th day of July 1905. Dated this 17th day of July 1905.

You are required to answer on or before the 20th day of July 1905. Dated this 20th day of July 1905.

You are required to answer on or before the 23rd day of July 1905. Dated this 23rd day of July 1905.

You are required to answer on or before the 26th day of July 1905. Dated this 26th day of July 1905.

You are required to answer on or before the 29th day of July 1905. Dated this 29th day of July 1905.

You are required to answer on or before the 31st day of July 1905. Dated this 31st day of July 1905.

You are required to answer on or before the 3rd day of August 1905. Dated this 3rd day of August 1905.

You are required to answer on or before the 5th day of August 1905. Dated this 5th day of August 1905.

Advertisement for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, featuring a portrait of a man and the text "Highest Honor" and "CREAM OF THE CREAM".

Advertisement for Dr. Price's Cream Balm, featuring a portrait of a man and the text "The Bronzing Pad" and "Awarded Gold Medal".

Advertisement for a legal notice regarding a property dispute, mentioning "United States v. O'Neill" and "Notice is hereby given".

Advertisement for a legal notice regarding a property dispute, mentioning "Farmers Trust Company" and "James Harris and wife".

Advertisement for a legal notice regarding a property dispute, mentioning "The above named defendant" and "Notice is hereby given".

Advertisement for a legal notice regarding a property dispute, mentioning "In the District Court of Holt County" and "Notice to Nonresident Plaintiff".

Advertisement for a legal notice regarding a property dispute, mentioning "Luman M. Cleveland and wife" and "Notice to Nonresident Plaintiff".

Advertisement for a legal notice regarding a property dispute, mentioning "Luman M. Cleveland and wife" and "Notice to Nonresident Plaintiff".

Advertisement for C.A. Snow & Co. Patent, featuring a portrait of a man and the text "MANHOOD RESTORED" and "Guaranteed to cure".