The Plain Dealer thinks the democratic mass convention will eventually lead the democrats out upon the higher plane of the populist platform. We guess no one questions the purpose of the convention.

Lost or stolen from my pasture about two weeks ago, a nice looking 7-year old brown horse, branded, weight about 850 pounds; little white on hind hoofs. Reward for return or information, at Mike Mullen's, or Mullen Bro.'s livery stable. 7

Tea or coffee? We have it, and a fine article too. Our Mocha and Java is fine and is always the same. And that 35 cent tea, why they all sell 35 cent tea, but none of it leaves that pleasant farewell when you drink it, like ours does. Try a pound. 1 O'NEILL GROCERY CO.

Plain Dealer: Prof. Anderson, principal of the Atkinson high school, has resigned his position here to accept a like position in O'Neill. Mr. Anderson has many warm friends here, who, while they are loth to see him leave, congratulate him on his good fortune in securing his new, and better paying position.

O'Neill base ball sports are impatient for the games that are billed for the latter part of this week in O'Neill. Coleridge plays three games, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and it is anticipated that they will be the best games to be seen on the home grounds this season. Admission 25 and 15 cents, ladies free Friday.

Graphic: The school board met last Tuesday night for the purpose of selecting a principal for our public school. There were three applications in and after about thirty-five ballots had been taken without result an adjournment was had. The vote stood three for Richard Cross all the way through, and the other three scattering.

A special from Fremont to the State Journal says: "County Attorney Abbott has fled with the clerk of the district court a petition for a writ of mandamus compelling the board of supervisors to meet at an early date and redistrict under the Burns law. Judge Marshall has fixed August 26 as the date of hearing the argument. The case will be appealed to the supreme court in any event."

Randolph Times: Notwithstanding their defeat, the Randolph people who went to O'Neill last week have only good words for O'Neill and the hospitable manner in which they were treated by the business men and citizens generally up there. They are a whole-souled lot of people and will not be out-done when it comes to hospitality. Besides, they were only reciprocating for the kindly treatment accorded them when in Randolph the Fourth.

Young Tom Tierney left Sunday morning for his new home in Brooklyn. He was sentenced by the county judge to a term in the reform school, but his uncle said he would take him and bring him up in the way he should go and the judge thought perhaps it would be better for the boy than to send him to the home provided for juvenile offenders. W. J. Dobbs, who, with his wife, left at the same time for Boston on a pleasure trip, acted as chaperon.

Coleridge Blade: Mrs. Jeanette Taylor has recently been admitted to the bar at O'Neill. The writer knows Mrs. Taylor to be a woman of keen perception and high intellectual attainments, and should she decide to devote her energies to the practice of law, will without doubt, make her mark in the profession. Mrs. Taylor is already recognized as a public speaker of more than ordinary ability, which accomplishment will serve her well in her new field of labor.

Miss Lucile Bates, daughter of Col. Bates of the Plain Dealer, attended the convention. Miss Bates lately graduated from the State Normal of South Dakota, and is a very expert stenographer. She took down the proceedings in short hand and we presume the Plain Dealer will "accop" us all when it comes to furnishing an accurate and extended account of the convention. The press gang of O'Neill certainly envies the Plain Dealer its accomplished and efficient reporter.

Plainview News: The Randolph Reporter says that "we are informed by a number of our base ball enthusiasts that the Stalwarts will play three games of ball with the Hastings club for the championship of Nebraska. Hastings now holds the belt, and as Randolph has, without a doubt, the best amateur team in the state we see no reason why the belt should not be transferred to the Stalwarts." The above was written before the Creighton and O'Neill games. The Randolph club won't challenge Hastings this evening—she has about all she wants to attend to in this locality. Horatio!

O'NEILL DEFEATS MINNEOLA.

The game Saturday between O'Neill and Minneola was not as good as had been hoped for. No one in particular but everybody in general was to blame for this. While the score did not run up badly and it took ten innings to decide the contest, the game was only interesting in places. Hanley pitched six innings but the Minneola boys got onto his curves quickly, so Jamison finished the game. He did the prettiest kind of work and retired the boys in rapid succession.

The boys from Minneola are nice fellows, every one of them, but it seems they cannot put up a game in O'Neill without getting angry and kicking on the treatment they receive. In fact THE FRONTIER thinks they make a mistake in attempting to hold the opposing club down to the letter of the law, while they themselves act as though the rules were made to work one way only.

Nat Bradstreet umpired the game, and while he is a little rusty on base ball he did the best he could and our boys were satisfied.

ROBBED ON THE TRAIN.
Chadron Signal Jim Higgins and Newt Hartzell of Chadron are under arrest for robbing S. M. Wagers, of O'Neill, of $400 worth of jewelry while on the Elkhorn train Wednesday night near Gordon.

Wagers has been a prominent merchant and democratic politician at O'Neill, but is now on the road selling jewelry. He was in Chadron Wednesday and while here he met some old friends and joined with them in a good many bowls of red eye. He took the 10:53 passenger east. So did Higgins and Hartzell. Higgins got off at Gordon and took the passenger west. A little past Gordon Wagers began to look for his jewelry grip. It was gone. He telegraphed west for Higgins and the latter was captured at Rushville. Part of the stuff was found on his person. He owned up and said Hartzell had the rest. A telegram to Valentine stopped the latter. Higgins is a brother of Tim Higgins, who has a saloon in Crawford, and a brother-in-law of Tom Coffey.

LATER—We learn from his friends that Newt Hartzell was not arrested as one of the robbers as above stated, but is being held as a witness against Higgins. W. P. Hartzell left for Valentine Thursday night to furnish the required bond for his brother's appearance on the witness stand.

JURORS FOR SEPTEMBER TERM.
The following named gentlemen have been drawn as jurors for the next term of district court, which convenes on September 18:

J. M. Merriman, Grattan; W. A. Sawyer, Verdigris; A. J. Goodsell, Paddock; Peter Kelly, Scott; Alex Marlow, Grattan; J. S. Hoffman, Fairview; William Lewis, Ewing; H. R. Henry, Willowdale; J. M. Culbert, Shields; Pat Hayes, Sheredian; H. Fullerton, Atkinson; W. E. Bailey, Ewing; J. H. Diehs, Pleasantview; A. C. Powell, Stuart; J. W. McCann, Grattan; Benjamin Sanders, Scott; Peter Toohill, Grattan; Joachim Webs, Saratoga; John K. Tomsick, Stuart; C. H. Finney, Iowa; Jerry Kelly, Grattan; C. D. Keyes, Inman; D. G. Grimes, Chambers; John Funk, Deloit.

Nute Mullendore donated a pound of flesh from the calf of his right leg Friday morning to satisfy the appetite of a vicious dog belonging to Mike Tierney. The dog will bite no one else on this side of the happy hunting grounds.

Old Yellow Horse and squaw passed through O'Neill this morning on their way to Genoa, where their children are attending school.

I will give the hay on my timber claim to any person who will pay one year's taxes on it. D. DALY, Wahoo, Neb.

THE POPS CONVENE.

The populist convention was held at the court-house last Saturday as per previous arrangements and announcement.

The convention was called to order by Sam Howard, chairman of the county central committee, who also read the call. He thanked the populist workers of the county very cordially for their past efforts and hoped for a continuance of the same. Then he called for nominations for temporary chairman, and in response received the name of Barney McGreevy. The motion was amended by one to substitute the name of J. L. Coppoc. Strange as it may seem the amendment was entertained, but lost when it came to a vote and Mr. McGreevy was elected. He entered at once upon the duties of his office without any preliminary remarks, by calling for the election of temporary secretary. John Morrow, of Atkinson, was elected secretary and John Robertson assistant secretary.

The following committees were then appointed by the chair:

Credentials—Gene Cress, H. R. Henry and John Flannery.

Order of business—S. B. Howard, Tom Hannahan and Cord Smith.

Permanent organization—Justin McCarthy, sr., John Stewart and J. L. Coppoc.

Resolutions and platform—J. W. Leeper, J. J. McCafferty, Doc Norvall, Ralph Parsons and D. A. Cole.

Mr. McCafferty, being a member of the committee, here got the floor and talked like a stranger among a strange people. He said: "Gentlemen, although I have been voting with you off and on for several years, I cannot say that I believe or advocate all of the principles set forth in your national platform, therefore it is questionable whether or not I am qualified to write resolutions for this convention." It did seem a little strange to hear a delegate from the populist stronghold in O'Neill addressing the convention just as though it belonged to somebody else and that he was in no manner responsible for its being, or in fact a part and parcel of it, but the chair said he guessed he would do and he subsided.

There being no further business under the temporary organization the convention adjourned until 2 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Afternoon session was called to order at 2:30 and the report of the committee on credentials called for. The report showed 112 delegates present entitled to seats in the convention. Iowa and Swan were not represented. The report upon motion was adopted.

The report of the committee on permanent organization was then read. It recommended that John Morrow be permanent chairman and Dr. Norvall permanent secretary. The report was adopted and Mr. Morrow was called from the secretary's desk to the position of chairman. He indulged in the usual flight of oratory and the business proceeded.

The committee on order of business reported that the order be as published in the call. Pat Hughes moved an amendment to the effect that each delegate be required to keep his seat during the deliberations of the convention, in order to head off those who might desire to do a little electioneering. The amendment was carried and the report adopted as read.

The resolutions as read by the committee were a little out of the ordinary. Eternal allegiance to the Omaha platform was declared, and the officers elected by the populists heartily endorsed so far as their actions coincide with the party's platform. The man who wrote the resolutions evidently did not care to endorse the populist administration. Taken as a whole the resolutions were very neatly gotten up.

Thirteen delegates to the state convention were then elected. They were elected by ballot.

Next in order was the election of delegates to the judicial convention. It was moved that an informal ballot be taken for preference for judge, and that the candidate receiving the highest number of votes be entitled to the support of the delegation to the convention, and be allowed to choose the same. The result of the ballot was as follows: Golden 35; Murphy 54; Carlson 23; Roberts 2.

It was moved and seconded that the rules be suspended and that each candidate be given five minutes to address the convention, but upon vote was lost, and the balloting proceeded. The result of the second ballot was: Golden 42; Carlson 13; Murphy 56.

County Judge McCutcheon was re-nominated by acclamation, as were also Clerk Bethea and Treasurer Mullen. The nomination of a candidate for sheriff was next on the order of business and was not so easily disposed of. There were many kinds of candidates for that office and they gave Hamilton an uncomfortably close race. It required five ballots to settle the dispute, and they stood this way:

First—Hamilton, 54; Stewart, 9; Grimes, 9; Lell, 15; Greebe, 7; Pinkerman, 1; Hopkins, 9; Kline, 8.

Second—Hamilton, 53; Stewart, 20; Grimes, 6; Lell, 12; Greebe, 3; Pinkerman, 1; Hopkins, 9; Kline, 12.

Third—Hamilton, 46; Stewart, 23; Grimes, 15; Hinkerman 3; Hopkins, 14; Kline, 10; Barngrove, 2.

Fourth—Hamilton, 51; Stewart, 37; Grimes, 17; Pinkerman, 2; Kline, 7.

Fifth—Hamilton, 61; Stewart, 51; Grimes, 2.

This little difficulty having been settled satisfactorily or otherwise, harmony once more prevailed and the convention again proceeded to nominate by acclamation. Superintendent Jackson, Coronor Trueblood and Surveyor Norton all got their nominations in that easy and complimentary way. All opposition to H. R. Henry was choked off and he was also nominated by acclamation.

All of the fortunate as well as the unfortunate were called upon for speeches and they responded in the customary way.

T. V. Golden, it could be noticed, was very sore over his defeat. He said he had not been defeated by the populists of Holt county, but that a lot of skunks had influenced the convention against him. Some people wondered if he really meant that a skunk could dictate to a populist convention.

After the speeches the convention adjourned.

NO CHANGE OF HEART.

The people who are pops today were erstwhile something else. Just what, of course, I cannot say—The Dickens only tells.

One a republican, of course, Another, democrat. A prohibitionist, porfoco, A greenbacker and all that.

Now all these men were honest men— Presumed so anyhow. But, if they were not honest then They surely are not now.

If honest then, they're honest still. If rogues, they're rogues today. A change of name or party will Not wipe a blot away.

Now, this is what I'm coming at: I see all o'er the state The pops have helped themselves to fat From '90 up to date.

With striking unanimity The "people's" county boards Pull at the funds—a sight to see— Whenever chance affords.

Why, see our home affairs today— The bosses scheme and swap, And throw our money ever way From popity to pop.

Now, while I know the rank and file Of populists on our square, Their bosses are corrupt and vile, Both here and every where.

And so I end as I begin— And I will make it terse— They, rogues before you put them in: Have gone from bad to worse.

TEACHERS WHEREAS.

WHEREAS: The institute of 1895 has been noted for its good work, advancement of new ideas and fine quality of instruction. Be it

Resolved, By the members of this Holt county institute, that we sincerely thank Professors Miller, Anderson, Garrett and Thompson for their active interest in our behalf. They have demonstrated that they are not only able to impart instruction in such a manner as to be remembered, but also have the very best of discipline—an important factor in the successful teacher. Be it further

Resolved, That we have nothing but words of praise to offer for Superintendent Jackson, who has labored so untiringly in our behalf. He has shown that he desires to do the very best for all his teachers and has left nothing undone that would tend to increase the value of this institute, which has been profitable, instructive and pleasing. Be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be placed on file in the office of the county superintendent, and another copy be given to each of the O'Neill papers for publication.

WHEREAS: It has been found profitable to the teachers of Holt county to be instructed in parliamentary usage during institute, and

WHEREAS: Parliamentary usage if introduced into our public schools, would be educative by promoting the general interest of society and as an important agent in citizenship, be it

Resolved, That parliamentary usage be introduced into the public schools of Holt county, Nebraska, and be taught in future institutes.

WAGONS, WAGONS!

Always buy the best, the Moline. I have a car load on hand and will sell cheap for cash, or on short time. If you want a wagon, a buggy or a road cart come in time and don't get left. Remember the name. Moline wagons are the best made and sold by NEIL BRENNAN.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The democratic convention of Holt county is hereby called to meet at the court-house in O'Neill, on Saturday, the 31st day of August, 1895, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of electing seven delegates to the state convention to be held at Lincoln, September 5, 1895; also delegates to the judicial convention; also to place in nomination candidates for the following offices, viz:

One county treasurer.
One county sheriff.
One county clerk.
One county judge.
One clerk of the district court.
One county superintendent.
One county coroner.
One county surveyor.

And for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.

The basis of representation is one delegate at large, and one for each 8 votes or major fraction thereof cast for R. E. Dumphy for lieutenant governor, each township, however, to have not less than one delegate.

The townships are entitled to representation as follows:

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention; also that the delegates present be allowed to cast the full vote of their respective townships.

It is further recommended that the caucuses in the several townships and wards be held at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of August 29, 1895.

S. M. WAGERS, Chm.
M. D. LONG, Secy.

STUDENTS' EXAMINATION.

Notice is hereby given that I shall examine all applicants for students' certificate, under the provisions of the "Free High School Attendance Law," at the court-house, Saturday, August 24, 1895. None but those residing in rural districts who cannot profitably pursue their work further in the country schools apply. The examinations will be in all the common branches required for a third grade certificate. Those passing satisfactory examination will be issued a students' certificate and will be entitled to free tuition in high schools.

"It is the best patent medicine in the world" is what Mr. E. M. Hartman, of Marquam, Oregon, says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. "What leads me to make this assertion is from the fact that dysentery in its worst form was prevalent around here last summer and it never took over two or three doses of that remedy to effect a complete cure." For sale by P. C. Corrigan druggist.

Mr. C. G. Strong, principal of the public schools at Anderson, Cal., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have found it an excellent remedy for lameness and slight wounds."

Lameness usually results from a sprain, or other injury, or from rheumatism, for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm is especially intended and unequalled. It affords almost immediate relief and in a short time effects a permanent cure. For sale by P. C. Corrigan druggist.

One night when Mr. Isaac Reese was stopping with me, says M. F. Hatch, a prominent merchant of Quartermaster, Washington, I heard him groaning. On going to his room I found him suffering from cramp colic. He was in such agony I feared he would die. I hastily gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was soon relieved and the first words he uttered were, "what was that stuff you gave me?" I informed him. A few days ago we were talking about his attack and he said he was never without that remedy now. I have used it in my family for several years. I know its worth and do not hesitate to recommend it to my friends and customers. For sale by P. C. Corrigan druggist.
