

CONDITIONS IN NEBRASKA.

omises a Large Yield, Except in the State's Garden Spot. ... On crossing ...

GRAND OLD PARTY.

LIVING TRUTHS OF THE PRACTICAL POLICY.

Selections from Various Authorities Which Serve to Prove the Wisdom of the People in Calling the Party Back to Power.

The Policy of Ruin.

It is a noticeable fact that Democratic hopes of improved business are based upon "increased imports" of foreign-made goods.

In saying this we do not overlook the free trade contention that if we buy more foreign-made goods we pay for them by increased exports of our own goods.

It is the policy of ruin. Europeans do not buy our food products unless they need them, and if they need them they buy them anyhow.

Just where we are drifting in this respect is shown in the last letter of Henry Claws, the New York banker, who says:

"Owing to the growing demand in the merchandise markets, there is a probability of the fall imports being large, and that probability is strengthened by foreign reports of large purchases by American importers."

Under the present Democratic policy is at the mercy of the syndicate of London and New York bankers who floated the last Democratic loan and made several millions of dollars at the expense of the American people.

CURRENT NOTES.

Cohn-Einstein is falling rapidly. Solomon-Vat a glorious death. Life. The man who can impartially judge himself is fit to govern the world.

Jones-Come, go fishing with me, old chap. Brown-Can't do it; just signed the pledge. Golden.

Silence is gold, especially when you cannot think of a good answer on the spur of the moment. July.

Maud-That stupid fellow proposed to me last night. He ought to have known beforehand that I would refuse him. Marie-Perhaps he did. Brooklyn Life.

Jasper-Caesar and his wife are constantly quarreling. Jumpuppe-Yes, they have different theories as to what each should do to make the other happy. Boston Post.

"Fame," said Uncle Eben, "am er good deal talk an udder kin' ob advertisement. Tain' no use ter a man unless he had de right kin' ob goods to back it up wid." Washington Star.

Teacher-Can you tell me, Johnny, why Satan goes about the earth like a roaring lion? Johnny-Cause he can't eat any ice in the place where he lives when he's at home. Boston Transcript.

Child-Who is that sad-eyed man, mother? Mother-He's a poor pensioner, my child. Child-And who is that jolly man, mother? Mother-He is a rich pension agent, my child. New York Weekly.

WORTH KNOWING.

Aluminum heel tips are coming inogue.

The imperial library at Paris has seventy-two thousand works treating of the French revolution.

The name Munich is derived from the fact that the monks owned the property on which the town now stands.

On a road leading to a Chicago cemetery there is a saloon which displays a sign with these words: "Funeral Parlor a Specialty."

In every school in Paris there is a restaurant where free meals are served to the children who are too poor to pay for them.

The largest nugget of gold ever seen was found in 1872, in the Hill End Mine, New South Wales. It weighed 640 pounds, and its value was $148,000.

A thrifty keeper in the Pere la Chaise cemetery, Paris, was recently dismissed for too much enterprise. He had added to his income by raising vegetables on the graves.

Protection in England.

We have already referred to the manner in which the manufacturers of matches in the United Kingdom appeal to their customers to buy only English matches, by placing a little printed slip inside the cover of the box, asking the people to "patronize home industry, use English matches and employ British labor."

Following the plan of the English match manufacturers, we find in another line of goods the following announcement on the outside of a cover of a package of British goods:

IMPORTANT. Why Support the Manufacture of Other Countries When You Can Obtain as good an Article MADE BY HOME INDUSTRY?

This is the appeal made by a London and Nottingham cigarette manufacturer concerning which finds that its offer to give a "tube to each cigarette, matches and photo in each package" is not sufficient to secure all the trade it desires.

The Worst of It.

The figures show that the Wilson tariff is a good revenue producing measure. The only trouble is with the internal revenue, which decreased in the last fiscal year $3,543,769.

As the free traders have objected to a comparison of imports for the last fiscal year with that of 1894 as not being fair, why is it fair to compare the revenues raised by customs during the same periods?

Making Its Record.

The Wilson-Gorman tariff, which was to throw open to the American producer "the markets of the world," is making its record. For the ten months ending in April the exports were valued at $676,820,337, while for a corresponding period under the McKinley law they were $754,499,072.

Hard on the Cow.

An exchange tells of a man out in the western part of the state who went into his cow stable the other night and by mistake milked the cow up a nice mash in a box full of sawdust instead of bran.

Try an American Week.

Speaking of the suggestion made by the American Economist recently, the San Francisco Journal of Commerce commends the idea to its local manufacturers' and producers' association, urging it to institute a California week, or even a California day each month, when the various business houses of San Francisco will display in their shops and on their shelves goods of California manufacture.

Anglomaniac Bayard.

Ambassador Bayard dismisses the Trinidad affair with the remark that Trinidad is only a little island and not worth making a fuss over. Undoubtedly that is the plea of the English who have taken it. Mr. Bayard would be false to the administration he represents if he failed to accept the excuses of the British foreign minister in all diplomatic matters.

Tin Plate.

The consul sent by Mr. Cleveland to Cardiff, Wales, reports with great pleasure the fact that the new American tariff on tin-plates has enabled manufacturers in Wales to increase wages from 10 to 22 1/2 per cent.

A COSTLY MISTAKE.

By Using Too Many Letters the Telegraph Company Was Out $5,841.

The insertion of the letter "r" in the name of H. W. Baker promises to cost the Western Union Telegraph Company about $6,000. In the suit brought by Baker to recover $7,160, loss caused by the delivery of a dispatch from Australia to Abram Barker, a jury in the United States Court the other day returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $5,841.51, after deliberating about an hour.

Broughtdown of a Horse.

A tract of land comprising about 350 acres just outside the western limits of Baltimore city, in the Thirtieth District of Baltimore county, and south of St. Agnes' Hospital and St. Mary's Industrial School, was offered for sale at auction Wednesday, at the Real Estate Exchange, but was withdrawn after five small parcels, including forty-two acres, had been purchased at an average price of $27 an acre.

Grenadines and Gazues.

Black grenadines, with bold floral flowers, are making excellent summer dresses, and so do the summer gazues. The coloring is exquisite grass green, brilliant fuchsia, peach, etc.

Woman's Magic Corn Salve.

Guaranteed to cure or money refunded. Ask your druggist for it. Price 10 cents.

Sorghum for Forage.

A Kansas Farmer correspondent writes: "Last year I took the wheat off a piece of ground just as soon as it would do to stack and listed in case. I harvested it three times and cultivated it twice, and when the first frost came about half of it was in bloom. It made fine feed."

Flour of Bananas.

A good deal of attention has been drawn of late to the use of the banana as a source of flour or meal, and though such an application is by no means new or the discovery modern, it seems not at all unlikely that banana flour is an article that has a prospect of great development in the near future.

Try an American Week.

Speaking of the suggestion made by the American Economist recently, the San Francisco Journal of Commerce commends the idea to its local manufacturers' and producers' association, urging it to institute a California week, or even a California day each month, when the various business houses of San Francisco will display in their shops and on their shelves goods of California manufacture.

Anglomaniac Bayard.

Ambassador Bayard dismisses the Trinidad affair with the remark that Trinidad is only a little island and not worth making a fuss over. Undoubtedly that is the plea of the English who have taken it. Mr. Bayard would be false to the administration he represents if he failed to accept the excuses of the British foreign minister in all diplomatic matters.

Tin Plate.

The consul sent by Mr. Cleveland to Cardiff, Wales, reports with great pleasure the fact that the new American tariff on tin-plates has enabled manufacturers in Wales to increase wages from 10 to 22 1/2 per cent.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

In Texas the irrigation fever is at full height. The favorite plan in that state seems to be to build a pond or dam on some high point on the farm and pump the water into it—to be distributed later by means of ditches.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O., Props. of Hall's Catarrh Cure, offer $100 reward for any case of catarrh that can not be cured by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure, Send for testimonials, free. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Can a Woman Change Her Mind?

A London paper tells a story to illustrate woman's tendency to change her mind. A young and well dressed woman entered Charing Cross telegraph office the other day and wrote out a dispatch to be sent to Manchester.

FITZ-ALLI stopped free by Dr. Kline's Great Kidney Cure. No kidneys after the history of his kidneys cured. Free trial bottle. Dr. J. C. Kline, 233 Arch St., Phila., Pa.

Grenadines and Gazues.

Black grenadines, with bold floral flowers, are making excellent summer dresses, and so do the summer gazues. The coloring is exquisite grass green, brilliant fuchsia, peach, etc.

Woman's Magic Corn Salve.

Guaranteed to cure or money refunded. Ask your druggist for it. Price 10 cents.

Sorghum for Forage.

A Kansas Farmer correspondent writes: "Last year I took the wheat off a piece of ground just as soon as it would do to stack and listed in case. I harvested it three times and cultivated it twice, and when the first frost came about half of it was in bloom. It made fine feed."

GREAT MEN ON EATING.

It is good eating there is happiness. Apicius. Thou shouldst eat to live, not live to eat. Cicero.

Eating to reputation is hard, but what we eat should be good of its kind. Dr. E. S. Pills.

It is not the eating, but the ingredients desire thereof that ought to be chosen. St. Augustine.

Animals feed, man eats; tell me what you eat and how you eat, and I will tell you what you are; the man of intellect alone knows how to eat. B. Savarin.

Eat not for the pleasure thou mayest find therein; eat to increase thy strength; eat to preserve the life which thou hast received from heaven.—Confucius.

We have not been without Pills' Care for Consumption for 20 years.—LIZZIE FERRELL, Camp St., Harrisburg, Pa., May 4, '94.

Some men work modestly to hard and are generally disliked.

A man often pretends to change his nature, but he never does.

In addition to some beautiful and distinguished late summer toilettes in Harper's Bazar to be issued on August 24th, there will be a specially prepared and very practical and detailed paper entitled "Early Autumn Fashions for Men."

A striking portrait of Miss Winnie Davis, accompanied by a short biographical sketch, will interest people who wish to know something of the charming personality of the author of "The Veiled Doctor."

We have not been without Pills' Care for Consumption for 20 years.—LIZZIE FERRELL, Camp St., Harrisburg, Pa., May 4, '94.

Some men work modestly to hard and are generally disliked.

A man often pretends to change his nature, but he never does.

In addition to some beautiful and distinguished late summer toilettes in Harper's Bazar to be issued on August 24th, there will be a specially prepared and very practical and detailed paper entitled "Early Autumn Fashions for Men."

A striking portrait of Miss Winnie Davis, accompanied by a short biographical sketch, will interest people who wish to know something of the charming personality of the author of "The Veiled Doctor."

We have not been without Pills' Care for Consumption for 20 years.—LIZZIE FERRELL, Camp St., Harrisburg, Pa., May 4, '94.

Some men work modestly to hard and are generally disliked.

A man often pretends to change his nature, but he never does.

In addition to some beautiful and distinguished late summer toilettes in Harper's Bazar to be issued on August 24th, there will be a specially prepared and very practical and detailed paper entitled "Early Autumn Fashions for Men."

A striking portrait of Miss Winnie Davis, accompanied by a short biographical sketch, will interest people who wish to know something of the charming personality of the author of "The Veiled Doctor."

We have not been without Pills' Care for Consumption for 20 years.—LIZZIE FERRELL, Camp St., Harrisburg, Pa., May 4, '94.

Some men work modestly to hard and are generally disliked.

A man often pretends to change his nature, but he never does.

Little Things of Life.

Why is it that we so easily forget that the little things in life are what make it easy or hard? A few pleasant words, a warm hand-clasp, a cordial letter are simple things, but they are mighty in their influence on the lives of those about us.

Many influences combine to reduce health to the danger limit. The roving properties of Parker's Glycerin Tonic best overcome these ills.

Opportunity is not the kind of thing that stands around waiting to be embraced.

Everyone knows how it is to suffer with corns, and they are not conducive to successful walking. Remove them with Dr. DeWitt's.

Mother and Son. The boy's first idea of a woman is his mother, and unless she fail to win his love and respect he has a chivalrous devotion to her which will cover his whole life.

It is generally a lack of consideration that makes one forget the tiny pleasures; but lack of consideration is really one form of selfishness, and selfishness is not a desirable quality. Remember that the little things in life, either good or bad, count for more with those we love than we ever know, and we should be watchful of our actions and of our words.

It is the policy of ruin. Europeans do not buy our food products unless they need them, and if they need them they buy them anyhow.

Just where we are drifting in this respect is shown in the last letter of Henry Claws, the New York banker, who says:

"Owing to the growing demand in the merchandise markets, there is a probability of the fall imports being large, and that probability is strengthened by foreign reports of large purchases by American importers."

Under the present Democratic policy is at the mercy of the syndicate of London and New York bankers who floated the last Democratic loan and made several millions of dollars at the expense of the American people.

It is a noticeable fact that Democratic hopes of improved business are based upon "increased imports" of foreign-made goods.

In saying this we do not overlook the free trade contention that if we buy more foreign-made goods we pay for them by increased exports of our own goods.

It is the policy of ruin. Europeans do not buy our food products unless they need them, and if they need them they buy them anyhow.

Just where we are drifting in this respect is shown in the last letter of Henry Claws, the New York banker, who says:

"Owing to the growing demand in the merchandise markets, there is a probability of the fall imports being large, and that probability is strengthened by foreign reports of large purchases by American importers."

Under the present Democratic policy is at the mercy of the syndicate of London and New York bankers who floated the last Democratic loan and made several millions of dollars at the expense of the American people.

It is a noticeable fact that Democratic hopes of improved business are based upon "increased imports" of foreign-made goods.

In saying this we do not overlook the free trade contention that if we buy more foreign-made goods we pay for them by increased exports of our own goods.

It is the policy of ruin. Europeans do not buy our food products unless they need them, and if they need them they buy them anyhow.

Just where we are drifting in this respect is shown in the last letter of Henry Claws, the New York banker, who says:

"Owing to the growing demand in the merchandise markets, there is a probability of the fall imports being large, and that probability is strengthened by foreign reports of large purchases by American importers."

Under the present Democratic policy is at the mercy of the syndicate of London and New York bankers who floated the last Democratic loan and made several millions of dollars at the expense of the American people.

It is a noticeable fact that Democratic hopes of improved business are based upon "increased imports" of foreign-made goods.

In saying this we do not overlook the free trade contention that if we buy more foreign-made goods we pay for them by increased exports of our own goods.

It is the policy of ruin. Europeans do not buy our food products unless they need them, and if they need them they buy them anyhow.

Just where we are drifting in this respect is shown in the last letter of Henry Claws, the New York banker, who says:

"Owing to the growing demand in the merchandise markets, there is a probability of the fall imports being large, and that probability is strengthened by foreign reports of large purchases by American importers."

Under the present Democratic policy is at the mercy of the syndicate of London and New York bankers who floated the last Democratic loan and made several millions of dollars at the expense of the American people.

It is a noticeable fact that Democratic hopes of improved business are based upon "increased imports" of foreign-made goods.

In saying this we do not overlook the free trade contention that if we buy more foreign-made goods we pay for them by increased exports of our own goods.

It is the policy of ruin. Europeans do not buy our food products unless they need them, and if they need them they buy them anyhow.

Just where we are drifting in this respect is shown in the last letter of Henry Claws, the New York banker, who says:

"Owing to the growing demand in the merchandise markets, there is a probability of the fall imports being large, and that probability is strengthened by foreign reports of large purchases by American importers."

Under the present Democratic policy is at the mercy of the syndicate of London and New York bankers who floated the last Democratic loan and made several millions of dollars at the expense of the American people.

It is a noticeable fact that Democratic hopes of improved business are based upon "increased imports" of foreign-made goods.

In saying this we do not overlook the free trade contention that if we buy more foreign-made goods we pay for them by increased exports of our own goods.

It is the policy of ruin. Europeans do not buy our food products unless they need them, and if they need them they buy them anyhow.

Just where we are drifting in this respect is shown in the last letter of Henry Claws, the New York banker, who says:

"Owing to the growing demand in the merchandise markets, there is a probability of the fall imports being large, and that probability is strengthened by foreign reports of large purchases by American importers."

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

WELL MACHINERY

Illustrated catalogue showing WELL AUGERS, ROCK DRILLS, HYDRAULIC AND PUMPING MACHINERY, etc. SERR PUMPS. Have been tested and all warranted. Sioux City Engine and Iron Works, Successors to Peck Mfg. Co. Sioux City, Iowa. THE ROWELL & CHASE MACHINERY CO., 1414 West Eleventh Street, Kansas City, Mo.

Advertisement for Dr. McCrew's Special Private Diseases treatment, featuring a portrait of a man and text describing the treatment for various ailments.

Advertisement for Parkers Hair Balsam, featuring a portrait of a woman and text describing the benefits of the hair treatment.