Dy Coronne

Who is D. J. Cronin? He is one of the leaders in the populist stronghold of Shields. He is a brother-in-law to the Sun and is one of those wild and woolly "retrenchers." It is currently reported that H. R. Henry has promised to make him his deputy in case of THE STATE OF NEBRASKA, } s.s. his election as district clerk. Does the Jew want any more personal

The above notes are just a few samples. We have a lot more evidence that the reformers had their greedy paws in Scott's pocket stated, and the same are true. up to their elbows. The following is a partial list:

H. G. Baluss $100. Baluss is the man who discovered Scott up in Minnesota. The fact that Scott's body was at that time lying under 7 feet of Niobrara river water didn't cut any figure. He saw him up in Minnesota anyway.

S. S. Waters, $100. Waters, at the time of borrowing this money, was editor of a pop paper at Amelia.

J. R. Pointer, three notes for $15, $55 and $52 respectively. Pointer was a prominent alliance man and among the first to denounce Scott by resolution through that organization.

The private books of Barrett Scott show that he loaned money to one Stephen McGinnis, another prominent reformer out in Shields. This is the man who made the remark on the streets of O'Neill last winter that he was "d---d sorry he was not invited to the from the defendant the sum of $416.00 hanging," as he would like to "have pulled a rope on the s—b's and his costs expended therein taxed at neck." Does the Jew want any more personal campaign? $1.45. G. A. McCutchan,

If he does we guess we can arrange to accommodate him. We have plenty more evidence of pop rottenness, entirely too much to publish in any one single issue. For instance: How would a fac simile of a letter written by a pop candidate to a young girl whom he had seduced and sent away to be "treated," look in print? How would a little conversation between a pop candidate and a "lady" on Ninth street take among Holt county voters? How would the history of an Iowa murder case go, provided we could connect, by the best evidence, a leading pop candidate? What's the matter of publishing a petition for divorce filed by the wife of a pop candidate?

All this is a duty from which THE FRONTIER shrinks. We have respect for the families of men running for office on the pop ticket and would regret being compelled to humiliate them by publishing to the world past misdeeds of men who are now husbands and fathers, but if we are forced into it by the fool editors of the opposition press we will cut their records to the core and spread them out for public inspection.

Now dear reader, if Ham Kautzman or any other man denies the genuineness of these notes and checks, challenge him to come with you to this office, and if we fail to produce the originals we will pay him well for his time.

John Skirving shows just about as much as a check could be expected to show. and that is absolutely nothing. The check was issued November 25, 1891. in Stuart. A FRONTIER reporter called him a copy of the Beacon Light containing the check and the accusation that he had borrowed county money said in substance, this:

"Brother Jim and myself had a note in the First National bank of O'Neill, for $1,000, upon which there was a balance due of $299.46. I was to pay this amount. About the time this note came due Barrett Scott was in Stuart and I told him about the note and asked him that none were. him if he would drop into the bank and pay it for me when he went down, as it said he would and I gave him the money, $299.46, and he put it in his pocket. When he came to O'Neill he went into the bank and instead of paying Gallgher the money I had given him, he drew a personal check for the amount, and that is all there is to it."

That the statement is true no man has a right to question, and it knocks the force completely out of the Beacon's great sensation. The Jew will find it impossible to connect either Skirving or Brady with the Scott defalcation, and when the people understand the matter thoroughly his attempt to do so will prove a boomerang. It is a boomerang.

This is the same man who held up the county until another levy was made in favor of the Union National Bank, of Omaha, for $2,500.—Beacon Light.

The above extract refers to John Skirv ing. It is the easiest thing in the world to refute these flimsy campaign lies of Kautzman's. The following affidavit, made by Thomas Carlon, explains the matter thoroughly and throws the lie directly in the Jew's teeth: THE STATE OF NEBRASKA, | 88.

[SEAL.] G. A. MCCUTCHAN,

County Judge. ELSEWHERE in this issue we publish a copy of a judgment rendered in county court last week against H. R. Henry, populist candidate for clerk of the court. If Henry and Harrington and a few more of the reformers would pay this institution what they owe it the county would be in better shape financially.

THIS issue of THE FRONTIER contains much food for thought. The people are for the first time permitted to examine the positive proof of populist boodling. The checks and notes produced this week are genuine, and may be seen at this office at any time prior to election. If any man entertains a doubt regarding these papers we invite him to call at our office and satisfy himself.

MR. WOODS SPEAKS.

EWING, NEB., Oct. 2, 1895. EDITORS FRONTIER-It has been with considerable interest and a great deal more surprise that I have read in the populist press of Holt county words of sympathy for that "Honest Old Soldier, John Woods," after he failed to secure the republican nomination for treasurer. I know that these tender lines were not written because of any kind feeling they harbor for the old soldier; the record of their party makes such an assumption ridiculous. I would like a small pertion of your space this week to inform these blue and grey Cheviots. papers in language that cannot be misunderstood, that John Woods seeks no sympathy.

From the birth of the populist party until now they, the populists, have deprecated the waving of the bloody shirt. Now their sole object is to sow dissension, in the republican ranks and draw votes from Biglin. Let us see how much love the populists have for the boys who wore the blue. In 1892, only three years ago, they voted for a rebel brigadier for vice-president of the United States. And right here in Holt county they elected an ex- proposes to remain. regiments.

From the birth of the party until the nomination in any populist county convention in Holt county. Such men as have invariably been turned down in favor of men who had nothing to do with the war or else were followers of Vallandigham. Even Judge Bowen after one term was turned down and villified by those wretches who are now slobbering over the old soldiers. Look at the court-house gang today. Every office that is controlled by the populists is filled by men who were not soldiers. Not an official, not a deputy was in the army. We find in the treasurer's office, as one of the principal clerks, a loudmouthed blatant populist who has repeatedly denounced the men who saved the Union as a lot of bums and chicken thieves. In the same office we find at the present time one comrade placed there just a few weeks before election for the sole purpose of catching the soldier vote, while his soldier-hating associate has had a lucrative position ever since the county had the misfortune to fall under populist misrule.

We appeal to every member of the G. A. R., and every comrade who stood fire during the rebellion. Do not be deceived by these lying wretches. Let us be united as in days of yore. We have two comrades on the republican ticket. They have none on the populist ticket. We have several comrades on the ticket for supervisor. They have none. Let us then be true to ourselves That boy will be heard from next year. and each other. Vote from top to bottom the entire republican-democratic ticket and wipe out the last vestige of Butte the soldier-despising, pension-hating crew, who have no use for us except our votes. There is no national principle involved in the election of O. F. Biglin as county treasurer. This is purely a local county affair Mr. Biglin is certainly as loyal, efficient and trustworthy as his opponent, and unlike his opponen he has a family war record to be proud of. O. F. Biglin was born in 1861, the year the war commenced. Three of his family were slain by rebel bullets: one

> The Sheep Breeders and Wool Grow ers' Association held a very enthusiastic meeting in this city last Monday. Representatives from all parts of the county were present. Rev. Mr. Caldwell, of Chicago, was in attendance and as the reverend gentleman represents a large per cent. of the sheep industry of Holt county his presence was highly appreciated. As court was in session and the association could not get any of the rooms, Judge Kinkaid tendered the use of his rooms to the association which were accepted with thanks. After discussion on the merits of the different breed of sheep, the association adjourned to meet in Atkinson on April 7, 1896.
