QUITE a sensation has arisen in Holstein over the shooting of an imported English watchdog belonging to L. Schellenberger, a merchant of that town, valued at $200. A young man by the name of Joseph Hershey was arrested and tried for the offense under the village ordinance, but was acquitted through the efforts of one of the legal lights and a flaw in the ordinance under which he was arrested.

Hopkins, Friend; secretary, Miss Anna Howland, Lincoln; treasurer, E. H. Morgan, Nebraska City. J. W. Dinmore of Humboldt and Superintendent Heeler of Beatrice were elected members of the executive committee.

A GERMAN farmer, John Nissen, residing near Bristol, about four miles east of Spencer, died suddenly from the effects of poison, administered, presumably his actions have been rather queer, indicating melancholy and other nervous troubles, superinduced by brooding over the disgrace incurred by reason of several petty acts of larceny, indulged in lately, by the deceased, who, it appears, is a sort of kleptomaniac.

JOHN WIGGINS, a respected and wealthy farmer living a few miles west of St. Helena, Cedar county, was found dead on the bank of the Missouri river, about a mile from his home, with a bullet wound in his head and a revolver lying close by. Unknown to his family Wiggins, in a half-dressed condition, wandered from his home to the river bank. There he shot himself. Insanity is thought to be the cause of the suicide.

SENATOR THURSTON, who is in Omaha at this writing, wired General Grosvener, who is chairman of the subcommittee to which the Trans-Mississippi exposition was referred in the house of representatives, asking his earnest and prompt support of the measure.

The people of Nebraska are asked to write a letter something like the following to anyone you may know east of the Mississippi river who would likely comply with your request, especially to people of influence: "Dear Sir—A bill is now pending before congress to make an appropriation to aid the trans-Mississippi exposition to be held in Omaha in 1888. I would regard it as a personal favor if you would write your congressmen and senators requesting them to give their support to this bill and aid in its early passage."

THE contest started by the Nebraska club for articles showing up the resources of the state and the advantages offered here for the homekeeper, was closed Wednesday, and the articles submitted have been turned over to the committee to pass upon. This committee is composed of Ross L. Hammond of the Fremont Tribune, ex-Governor R. W. Furnas and C. H. Morrill of Lincoln. There were not as many competitors as the officers of the club had hoped for, and for that reason it will not take the committee long to reach a decision.

THE secretary of war has ordered Major E. J. Fitch, who is detailed as special military aid to the governor of Nebraska, to make a full report as to the condition of the military force of the state to the department at Washington. This is to embrace not only the men and officers enlisted in the National guard, but all subject to military duty. As it relates to the guard the report asked for is to be a complete relation of the discipline, equipment and training of the force, with special reports as to the capacity and attainment of the individual officers.

UNITED STATES COURT will be open in Lincoln May 4, and at the present time it looks as if there would be two judges there. Judge Riner of Cheyenne wrote some time ago that he would open the term, and a few days ago a letter was received from Judge Shiras of Dubuque saying that he would be in Lincoln to open the term. The court calendar includes a term of court at Hastings, commencing April 20, and one at Norfolk, commencing April 27, but owing to the absence from the state of the resident judge these terms will probably be allowed to go by default.

JAMES LEEK, who works at F. B. Quimby's livery barn, Lexington, is in the hospital, a victim of a runaway team. He took a party across the river and after leaving them the accident occurred. Leek was thrown from the vehicle, his clothes caught in one of the wheels and he was dragged for some distance. His nether garments were all torn from him with the exception of a portion of his underwear around one ankle. One shoulder was dislocated, there was a severe gash on the upper lip and one temple and on the back of his head the hair was worn away to the flesh.

DICK RINGER of Friend committed suicide the other day by cutting his throat with a razor. He had been bitten on the hand by a dog about four months ago. The animal was not known to be rabid. The wound healed quickly and no bad effects were felt until recently, when he was taken with what was supposed to be grip. Doctors being called at once pronounced the case one of hydrophobia. While lying on a cot in the small kitchen, he sprang up, rushed to an adjoining bedroom, seized a razor from a stand and cut his throat a most before his parents and three young men who were watching were able to realize what was being done.

THE real estate exchange of Omaha passed the following: Whereas, The Nebraska club has been organized among the business and professional men of the state for the purpose of counteracting the evil reports that have been spread broadcast of our state, and for the promotion of immigration into our state by setting before the people of the east its abundant advantages and opportunities as an agricultural, stock and business state; we, the Real Estate association of Omaha, Neb., do hereby extend to the Nebraska club our hearty support. That as individual members we pledge it our material assistance, and we will do all we can to induce them to hold realty in our state to induce them to join the association and promote its interests.

THE clerical force of the Burlington shops have finished compiling the cost of the four new class K engines, the construction of which was commenced at Havelock, Nebraska, last September and finished the first of the year. The average cost of each engine was $73,318.94, the cost for material $4,171.22 and for labor $3,147.72. A like number of engines were built at Aurora, Ill., and Burlington, Ia., at the same time. The results place Havelock at the bottom as to the matter of cost of construction and at the top as to efficiency in management. The Havelock shops are among the largest in the west and in all their appointments there is nothing finer or more complete in the country. It is perhaps needless to state that Havelock people are quite elated over the showing which the local shops have made.

THE grain dealers of Omaha passed the following: Whereas, the Nebraska club has been organized by representative citizens for the purpose of promoting the interests of our state by spreading reliable information as to its resources and opportunities for the new settler and furthering immigration to the state. Resolved, That we, the grain dealers of Douglas county and the state, most cordially approve of the objects of the club and pledge it our hearty support. That as individual members we will contribute to its stock and aid it in every possible way; that we will impress upon our customers and clients the objects of the club and urge their co-operation in its promotion.

MORE TALKS ABOUT CUBA REPRESENTATIVES EXPRESS THEIR VIEWS ON THE RESOLUTIONS.

WILL VOTE ON MONDAY.

Immediately After the Reading of the Journal the Cuban Resolutions Will Be Disposed of—Mr. Adams of Pennsylvania, Charges the Senate With Filibustering Against Cuba.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—In the House today Mr. Adams of Pennsylvania, of the committee on foreign affairs, was the first speaker on Cuban resolutions. He said that he should have refrained from addressing the House further on this question but for the "extraordinary performance of the gentleman from Maine (Mr. Boutelle) yesterday." Referring to the charge that the people were not behind the effort of Congress to grant proper recognition to Cuba, he asserted that Congress had seldom before received so many petitions on any subject as this. He contended that a handful of Senators had taken advantage of the rules of the Senate to prevent the adoption of the conference report by filibustering. The Cubans had an organized form of government and were in every way entitled to recognition.

Mr. Knox of Massachusetts was recognized to read a letter from his colleague, Mr. Draper, a member of the foreign affairs committee, opposing the adoption of the conference report. He said that he differed from Mr. Draper and made a plea for affirmative action. He thought measures should be taken to put an end to the barbarous warfare and that for this country to fail to do this would be to incur the loss of self-respect as well as to deserve the contempt of all foreign nations.

The House then decided to hold a night session for debate on the Cuban resolutions and to vote Monday after the reading of the journal.

The Rivers and Harbors Bill Reported

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Chairman Hooker of the River and Harbor committee today submitted to the House a report on the river and harbor bill made public yesterday. It shows that the aggregate amount recommended is $10,330,560, and is based on estimates, by the chief of engineers, amounting to $12,686,880, and by the engineers in charge to $48,837,027; besides the estimates of the Mississippi and Missouri River commissions. Of the total amount recommended, about 36 per cent, or $3,642,800, is for harbors, $6,587,760 for rivers and $100,000 for surveys, etc. The continuous contract system is especially recommended, and the bill gives authority to the secretary of war to enter into contracts for the completion of thirty-two different projects, amounting to $51,721,210.

BURGLARS AT THE CAPITOL

A Bold Attempt to Break Into Senator Quay's Desk.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The Senate committee room on public buildings and grounds was broken into last evening, and an unsuccessful attempt made to break into Mr. Quay's desk. The iron bolts fastening the doors at the top and bottom were pried out of the sockets, showing that strong tools had been employed.

It is believed by the senator that an attempt was made to get possession of his political papers, but, even if the desk had been opened, the political papers would not have been obtained, as they had all been removed to Mr. Quay's house a week ago. Nothing else in the room was disturbed.

About a year after the election of 1888 Mr. Quay's desk was robbed of all his political papers, and they have never been recovered. They were not important, as they were what the senator termed "trash left over which might well have been destroyed."

The W. C. T. U. With Hughes.

CHICAGO, April 6.—The officers of the W. C. T. U. have sent a telegram to Senator Fry to be presented to the Secretary of the Interior protesting against the removal of Governor Hughes of Arizona and urging a thorough investigation. The reason for this is "Governor Hughes' well known championship of temperance in all questions of reform." The state presidents of the W. C. T. U. are being urged to wire similar requests to their senators.

EDISON'S LATEST.

Reproductions of Kinetoscope Pictures Cast Life-Like on a Screen. NEW YORK, April 6.—Thomas Edison was in a very happy mood when seen in his laboratory in West Orange last night. He had about completed another machine, which he calls the "vitascope." It is an improvement of the kinetoscope, and Mr. Edison says he has no doubt that it will prove to be a success.

The vitascope throws on a screen by means of bright lights and powerful lenses the moving life size figures of human beings and animals. Last night in the big foundry building adjacent to the laboratory the machine was rigged up and a very satisfactory exhibition was made.

The first picture shown on the screen was a colored panorama of a serpentine dance by Anabelle, who posed before the kinetoscope last summer. The film roll on which the photographs were attached was arranged over a half dozen spools and pulleys, and when the machine was set in motion the dancer's image appeared upon the screen, as if in life. The original photographs, as taken by the kinetograph and developed on the roll, are about the size of a special delivery postage stamp, and to produce a picture life size are magnified about 600 times.

Mr. Edison expects shortly to be able to so improve the phonograph that he will be able to take records much longer than now and the vitascope and phonograph will be so combined that it will be possible for an audience to watch a photographic reproduction of an opera and hear the music at the same time.

BARKER FAVORS A BOLT.

The Philadelphia Silverite Calls for a Union of White Metal Advocates.

DENVER, Colo., April 6.—The Rocky Mountain News has received the following message from Mr. Wharton Barker of Philadelphia: "PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 3.—This action of the Manufacturers' Club, this weak straddle, taken with the declaration of Mr. John Converse, candidate for president of the club: 'I am for the single gold standard,' convinces all those bimetalists who have hoped to see the Republican party adopt a straight-out plank for the restoration of independent action of the United States, that the friends of silver remonetization must abandon that hope. As the Democratic party is not likely to do better than the Republican party, it is the duty of those of all parties who do not hold principle subservient to political expediency and who put patriotism before partisanship, to come to a common understanding with each other, unite on a common policy, join in the promulgation of a definite policy and unite and at once organize for political action. The several conventions called to meet at St. Louis will, of course, ratify any action the plain people agree in demanding.—Wharton Barker."

CHUBA INDUSTRIES RUINED

The Business of the Island Paralyzed by the Rebellion.

HAVANA, April 6.—The total amount of sugar made in Cuba this year will not exceed 130,000 tons. This enormous shrinkage means, it is estimated, a money loss of $56,000,000. The tobacco crop will be greatly diminished. The other products of the island, hides, mahogany and cedar are practically not to be had. Nothing is being done on the stock exchange, and the produce exchange is lifeless.

Flour, potatoes and the commonest necessities of life cannot be sold on business principles. There is no money. Havana is like a tomb. Even the cabs ceased to run in the streets in recognition of Holy Thursday and Good Friday. Business, what there is, has been suspended. No newspapers are printed.

"Where Am I At?" Must Go.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—House committee on elections No. 1 has voted to unseat James E. Cobb, the Democratic incumbent, and seat Goodwin, who ran against him as a Populist. The decision was reached by a party vote. There was no Republican candidate in the district, but the Republican vote was largely cast for Goodwin. According to the returns the vote was: Cobb, 10,651; Goodwin, 9,908. Allegations of ballot box stuffing and intimidation were made. Cobb is now serving his fourth term in Congress. He was the author of the famous "Where am I at?"

May Not See Their Father Married.

NEW YORK, April 6.—It is reported that neither Russell Harrison nor Mrs. McKee will attend their father's marriage to Mrs. Dimmick next Monday, but the ex-President is going ahead with his plans with as much enthusiasm as might be expected from a young lover. General Tracy, who was Secretary of the Navy in the Harrison administration will be his former chief's best man. All the members of the old Harrison cabinet are expected to attend except Mr. Wanmaker, who is out of the country.

LOWELL, Mass., April 6.—No. 5 mill of the Lawrence Manufacturing Company has been shut down, throwing 2,000 men out of work. The action is the result of the decision of the directors, to discontinue making cotton goods.

DIPLOMATISTS CONFER.

Representatives of American Governments Consider the Bureau's Needs. WASHINGTON, April 2.—In accordance with a call issued by Secretary Olney, representatives of the countries party to the Pan-American conference gathered in the diplomatic room at the State department to-day to consider the needs of the bureau of American republics. After some consideration Secretary Olney was authorized to appoint a committee of five to take the subject under advisement and present a plan of work for the bureau at the next meeting, April 18.

Dyergert Alive, But in Prison.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Official advice received by the State department from the representatives of the United States in Cuba, show that Walter Grant Dyergert, the citizen of Illinois arrested by the Spanish authorities, is alive, but in jail.

The report of the torturing of five Cubans in Havana yesterday has aroused intense indignation among the Cuban leaders here. All declare that such performances are only too common in Cuba under Spanish rule, but that such news is usually suppressed. Minister De Lome declares that the victims were negro brutes, and that the torturing was not intentional.

Kissed and Made Up.

PERRY, Okla., April 2.—Rev. G. M. West of Chicago dismissed his divorce suit here against his wife, Fanny G. West. West filed a suit here last September, alleging that his wife refused to room with him and attend him while sick. In his petition he stated he was married in Chicago in 1894.

Mrs. West was notified of her husband's suit and fled an answer denying his charges. Later Rev. Mr. West came to the conclusion that it was sinful to get a divorce and he left for Chicago. Word now comes that he is again living with his wife and will dismiss his suit in court, which is very sensational.

McGraw Confesses.

SAVANNAH, Mo., April 2.—Phil. Magner, the alleged bank robber, after a consultation with an attorney, willed and acknowledged to Sheriff Kelley that he is Paddy McGraw, the escaped convict from the Western Pennsylvania penitentiary and is willing to return. House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The House spent the day considering the sundry civil bill, and fair progress was made. No amendments of importance were adopted. INSOMNIA.

WHAT IT MEANS TO LOSE THE POWER TO SLEEP.

A Young Baltimore Woman Whose Nerves Prevented Her From Resting.

From the Herald, Baltimore, Md. Mrs. Jessie Shea is a young married woman whose tidy home is at 855 West Lexington Street, Baltimore. For many months Mrs. Shea was a terrible sufferer from a nervous affection which resulted in general debility and superinduced that oftentimes incurable malady, insomnia. A Herald reporter called at her residence recently and was shown into the neatly furnished parlor and told that Mrs. Shea would be down in a few minutes. Soon a light step was heard tripping down the stairway and Mrs. Shea, radiant with health and the vigor of young womanhood, entered the room. When asked if she had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, with a smile which betokens the utmost satisfaction, the young lady replied: "Yes, I have used them, and had I not heard of them I doubt if I would have been here to answer your call."

Continuing, she said: "About two months ago I had an attack of what the doctors termed nervous prostration. My appetite left me entirely and what little sleep I got, and it was very little, I assure you, was not by any means refreshing. On the contrary, when I awoke from a nap I had such a tired and exhausted feeling that I was loth to try to get to sleep again. I continued to lose flesh day after day until I was almost a shadow compared with my former self."

"As soon as I began to take the Pink Pills I commenced to improve. I am no longer troubled with nervousness. I have a good appetite, experience none of the feelings incident to indigestion, and I sleep as sound as a healthy child. The pills are certainly all they are represented to be, and as I believe I owe my life to the fact of having used them, I shall always cheerfully recommend them to my friends and other persons whom I find to be suffering from similar maladies."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. Pink Pills are sold in boxes at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 and may be had of all druggists, or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Old leather can be made to look like new by applying a coat of French polish with a camel's hair brush.

The skin of fruit should never be eaten, not because they are not palatable or digestible or are unhealthy in themselves, but on account of the danger arising from microbes, which may have penetrated into the covering of the fruit.

If you have butter that is not entirely sweet put it in a porcelain dish with a little salt and a tiny piece of soda, cover the fire and bring to a boil. Turn it into a stone jar and set it in a cool place. The butter will be found perfectly sweet and not too salt for cooking. The impurities will settle to the bottom of the jar.

A cement for mending broken glass or china is made by dissolving half an ounce of gum arabic in a wineglassful of boiling water and adding enough plaster of Paris to make a thick paste. Apply it with a brush to the edges of the broken parts. Hold the pieces carefully together until the cement has hardened sufficiently for them to adhere. If the article to be mended is broken in several pieces, do not attempt to cement a second piece before the first has thoroughly hardened.

A tested cough mixture recipe comes from an English lady. It is palatable and very effectual. Boil three large lemons in water seven minutes, drain off the water and slice the lemons as thin as possible. Put them in an earthen bowl with one pound of the best brown sugar and stand the bowl on the stove until the mixture is at boiling point. Then draw to the back of the stove and let the mixture simmer three hours. Remove from the fire, and when it has stood half an hour add small tablespoonful of oil of sweet almonds. It is to be used warm. Stir and take in teaspoonful doses as long as needed.

To make a wax for polishing hardwood floors cut one pound of beeswax into small pieces, put them in a dish and place it over the fire in a pan of hot water. Allow the wax to melt and then stir in three pints of turpentine. When the ingredients have thoroughly blended, place some of the wax on a woolen cloth and rub it on the floor, treating one board at a time and rubbing lengthwise. Then cover a heavy brush with flannel and with it rub the floor until it is perfectly smooth. It is usually the case that some parts of the floor are subject to more wear than others. When the polish has worn off in these spots warm the wax and apply to the worn places and then polish.
