Valentine Democrat: The Edna May company broke their engagement at O'Neill in order to play one more night at Fort Niobrara. This is twice in succession troupes have done this, and consequently O'Neill people feel rather sore.

R. C. Wry was in from Chambers last Friday and made a pleasant call at this office. Mr. Wry reports the south country as prospering nicely. He says their creamery is being operated very successfully this season. It is making eight or nine hundred pounds of butter daily. Several farmers in that vicinity are averaging from forty to fifty dollars per month, in cash, for their cream, besides doing a general farming business.

L. P. Glassburn, of Wheeler county, was in O'Neill Tuesday looking over the situation relative to the republican senatorial nomination, for which he is a candidate. Mr. Glassburn savs he is a republican who believes in abiding by the will of the majority, and while he wants the nomination he will, if defeated, work just as hard for the nominee as he would have worked for himself had he been successful. He has been a resident of Nebraska for 27 years and of the northern part of the state for 15 years. He is by occupation a farmer, and while he resides in Wheeler county his land extends over into Holt. On June 30, at the United States land office in O'Neill, will be sold the remaining parcels of lan I in the Omaha Indian reservation. The terms of sale are as follows: The purchaser may at his option, pay cash at the time of sale, or pay one-third of the price one year from the date of sale, one-third in two years, and one-third in three years from said date, with interest at the rate of five per cent, per annum; but in case of default in either of said payments the person thus defaulting for a period of sixty days shall forfeit absolutely his right to the tract which he has purchased and any payment or payments he may have made.

A Colorado paper remarks: "The populists have adopted three new planks for the coming campaign in addition to those already in their platform. They expect to restore the old time prosperity of the country by having the agricultural department experiment with a view of obtaining the following result: 1st, to encourage the propagation of honey bees by crossing them with lightning bugs, so that the bees could work at night, 2nd: To effect a thoroughbred cross between the American hog and the centiped, so every hog would have one hundred hams. 3rd: To graft the strawberry plant on the milk weed, and thus grow strawberries and cream.'

R. R. Dickson is closing up his law business in O'Neill preparatory to removing to Oakland, Cal. He expects to leave for that place next Sunday. Mrs. Dickson left this morning for Iowa, where she will visit with Mr. Dickson's parents until he gets settled in his new location. The many friends of the family in O'Neill deeply regret their removal. that time has always been closely identified with the city's interests and up- room. building. He was twice elected mayor and the large majorities received evidence his popularity. He is a lawyer of ability and will at once make himself felt in his profession at Oakland.

Married, on Wednesday, June 8, 1896, at 1:30 P. M., Miss Minnie Guyer, of Glenwood, Iowa, and Mr. C. L. Anderson, of O'Neill, Nebraska.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. George, of O'Neill, at the home of the bride's brother-in-law, L. B. Smith, near Creighton, in the presence of the bride's tamily.

Mr. Anderson has been principal of the O'Neill high schools for the year last past and in that capacity has made many warm personal friends. The bride is also an educator and has creditably filled a position in that capacity during journed. the last school year in the Atkinson high schools.

After a short visit with relatives and friends near Creighton, the bride and groom will visit in Iowa until some time their home in O'Neill.

THE SUPREME COURT ACTS.

A telegram was received by Attorney Dickson Tuesday morning from the clerk of the supreme court, stating that Fanton's bond had been approved, and that Barney's was rejected. The court, however, gave Barney until the 16th of this month to secure a bond that will pass rangements for the celebration. muster.

The sheriff and the county attorney had a little argument with the district clerk Tuesday morning over this matter. The sheriff called upon the clerk and asked for a mittimus, saying that he was going to take the men to the penitentiary. The clerk informed him that as the matter of bail was under consideration by the supreme court he did not think he had any right to commit the prisoners until after a decision had been reached. The county attorney thought he had and the question was under vigorous debate when the telegram arrived from the supreme court stating the action as given above. Fanton was released from custody today.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Memorial day was observed in O'Neill with a degree of success that is a source of great satisfaction to the members of General John O'Neill post G. A. R. who had the matter in charge.

The weather was propitious and the attendance probably the largest participating in a like event in this city for

The chairmen of the several committees were made a committee on program with W. J. Dobbs as chairman.

The committee on decoration and parade was empowered to select a marshal of the day and necessary aids.

The meeting then adjourned until Monday evening at 8:30, at which time at O'Neill May 26, 1896, and was called the various committees will meet to perfect their arrangements.

The indications are that the celebration will be a grand success and those looking for an old-fashioned, high-grade time on that day will do well to come to O'Neill.

COUNTY IN TROUBLE.

Deputy United States Marshal Bohme was in the city this morning serving notice upon the county treasurer, clerk and the board of supervisors, to appear at the United States court in Omaha on June 29, 1896, to show cause why mandamus should not issue compelling them to pay the judgment against Holt county secured by the National Life Insurance Company, for the amount of $4,996.98 and costs of suit and interest at the rate of 7 per cent. from 1892.

The debt was contracted by the Stuart school district, which issued bonds for die, Blain and Lowrie. building purposes in 1892. The bonds were never paid. The railroad company refused to pay their proportion of the tax and went into the district court of superintendents and delegates. These Holt county and secured an injunction reports show the schools of the county restraining the county treasurer from in a prosperous condition. collecting the tax. Now the bond holders apply for mandamus to compel him Reaugh, of Hartington, Neb., was electto collect it.

It places the county officials between two fires-an injunction from the district court on the one side and a probable mandamus from the United States | Rev. Lowrie addressed the convention court on the other.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The Holt County Sunday School convention convened in the M. E. church to order by the president, W. R. Jackson, at 10:80 o'clock A. M.

The attendance was the largest ever had at a Sunday School convention in the county, nearly every school being represented.

The convention sang "All Hail the Power of Jesus Fame." which was followed by prayer offered by Rev. Blain. Rev. J. W. Little, of Madison, then delivered an eloquent address entitled

"The Struggle for the Children," Rev. E. T. George read a very carefully prepared paper on the educational features of the Sunday School work, which was very favorably commented upon by Mesars. Jackson, Lowrie, Rosenkrans and others.

The following committees were then appointed: On resolutions, Mrs. A. C. Crossman, O. M. Collins and Mrs. W. T. Evans. On nominations, Messrs. Bro-
