

Clinton, Missouri.
Mr. A. L. Armstrong, an old druggist, and a prominent citizen of this enterprising town, says: "I sell some forty different kinds of cough medicines, but have never in my experience sold so much of any one article as I have of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. All who use it say it is the most perfect remedy for cough, cold, consumption, and all diseases of the throat and lungs they have ever tried." It is a specific for croup and whooping cough. It will relieve a cough in one minute. Contains no opiates. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Don't fool away your money buying worthless remedies, which are warranted to cure every disease. Remember that DeWitt's Sarsaparilla is a blood purifier and blood maker. Morris & Co.

DeWitt's Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood, increases the appetite and tones up the system. It has benefited many people who have suffered from blood disorders. It will help you. Morris & Co.

Mrs. R. DeYoung, Middleburg, Ia., writes, I have used One Minute Cough Cure for six years, both for myself and children, and I consider it the quickest acting and most satisfactory cough cure I have ever used. Morris & Co.

Did you ever think how readily the blood is poisoned by constipation? Bad blood means bad health and premature old age. DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills, overcome obstinate constipation. Morris & Co.

Young mothers dread the summer months on account of the great mortality among children, caused by bowel troubles. Perfect safety may be assured those who keep on hand DeWitt's Colic and Cholera cure, and administer it promptly. For Cramps, bilious colic, dysentery and diarrhea, it affords instant relief. ONLY FOOLED HER ONCE.

An Impetuous Husband Forgot the Trick He Played on His Wife.

I have a friend who is comfortably well off, with a reasonable amount of good investments and a good salary, but he has a weakness for using money freely. He has also a good wife with "a frugal mind," and by a domestic arrangement she exerts a salutary check on the liberality of her spouse. Occasionally he exceeds his allowance and indulges in tricks on his "banker" to secure a little pocket money, for which he does not desire to render a strict account. Not long ago he needed a new hat and bought it, reporting to his good wife that it cost him $3, and that sum was duly charged by her to his personal expenses, while in fact he paid but $1.50 at a "mark-down" sale, and so had an equal amount to "blow in" without exposure. In a little time, however, the wife called his attention to the fact that his hat was looking shabby and suggested that he should get a new one, coupling the suggestion with the remark that the hat did not seem to have worn well, and he must exercise more care in his next selection. Having forgotten his "little game," the husband replied hastily that he thought the hat had done pretty good service for a cheap one. "You can't expect anything from a $1.50 hat."

"How's that?" says the wife, and forthwith she exhibited her account book with its charge of $3, and the husband was forced to confess his fraud and promise better conduct in future. There is peace just now in that family, but when he brings home a purchase the wife calmly but firmly asks him to turn in a receipted bill from the salesman.

THAT WONDERFUL BABY.

Not All Its Fond Mother Imagined, But Did Its Little Best.

The proud young mother had come to pay her first visit, accompanied by the infant son and heir and his nurse. "I don't wish to appear in any way partial," said she, "but, really for a child of sixteen months I consider Algernon a marvel of intelligence. He understands every word and joins in the conversation with a sagacity that almost alarms me at times. Speak to the lady, Algernon."

"Boo-boo," said Algernon.

"Listen to that!" cried the delighted mother. "He means, 'How do you do?' Isn't it wonderful?"

"Now, Algernon, ask the lady to play for you (he adores the piano). Now, Algernon, dear" (very coaxingly). "Boo-boo!" said Algernon.

"He means, 'music' by that. 'Boo-boo'—'music.' Isn't he too smart for anything? Now, love, tell the lady mamma's name."

"Boo-boo!" said Algernon.

"That's right. 'Boo-boo'—'Louise' My name's Louise, you know. Oh, dear, I do hope he isn't too clever to live! Now, say by-by to the lady, precious."

"Boo-boo!" said Algernon.

"Boo-boo'—'by-by.' Why, upon my word there's hardly any difference. Bless his little darling heart! Isn't he a wor'?"

A. L. Wooster, a prominent citizen of Osseo, Mich., after suffering excruciatingly from piles for twenty years, was cured in a short time by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve, an absolute cure for all skin diseases. More of this preparation is used than all others combined. Morris & Co.

HOW TO CURE YOURSELF WHILE USING IT.

CURED BY "BACO-CURO" AND GAINED THIRTY POUNDS.

From hundreds of testimonials, the originals of which are on file and open to inspection, the following is presented: Clayton, Nevada Co., Ark., Jan. 28, 1895. Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse Wis.—Gentlemen: For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For 25 years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Baco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased 30 pounds in weight and am relieved from all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feeling and condition. Yours respectfully,
P. H. MARBUX,
