Tom Reed is a bigger man today than he ever was.

There is no question as to who will be the next speaker of the house. The big man from Maine will occupy that honorable position.

The more people who take Mr. Bryan's advice about studying the financial question the heavier the vote will be for McKinley.

Boss Jones said that Arkansas answered Vermont. Now Maine answered Arkansas and the Boss is not feeling quite so jubilant.

The tactics adopted by the Bryan heeled at the Cochran meeting at Omaha will lose votes for their candidate. In this country of free speech such methods will not be tolerated or sanctioned by the voters of Nebraska.

We believe the election of McKinley and Hobart to be already assured; but in order for the country to get the full benefit of the rebuke to the dangerous elements represented by Bryan they must get an overwhelming majority.

The oratorical star of two of the local free silver speakers has fallen. T. V. Golden met his Waterloo in O'Neill last Thursday night at the hands of General Kelley; Judge Gillespie was vanquished at Atkinson Monday night, by W. E. Scott.

I am in favor of protecting today the laboring man of the United States against a degraded currency, and I am opposed to free trade because it degrades American labor. I am opposed to free coinage because it degrades American money.—William McKinley.

Mr. SWALL has been very emphatic in asserting that he will not withdraw. Now that his state has repudiated him—even his own ward in the city of Bath, which more than doubled its republican majority of 1894—it is not at all unlikely that he will be kicked off.

Maine, the Pine Tree state, sends greetings to William McKinley and republicans everywhere. The state election was held last Monday, the republicans carrying the state by 50,000. With one exception this majority is over twice as large as ever before given by that state.

You must attribute it (the decline of price) to the inventive genius that has multiplied a thousand times. In many instances, the strength of a single arm, and enable us to do today with one man what fifty men could do fifty years ago. That is what has brought prices down in this country and everywhere.—Bryan in 1892.

LATE returns from Arkansas show that the democratic majority in that state is only about 45,000 instead of 60,000 as claimed. The republican gain in two years is 20,000. Compare that to Maine where the democratic loss was forty per cent. and you can see how the election is going.

A. E. CADY is the first republican speaker who has visited this city during this campaign who has not been challenged by the local popocrats to divide time with them. Why was this? The question is easily answered. Last week one of the oratorical stars of the popocrats went up against General Kelley, of commonwealth army fame, in a joint debate upon the political issues of the day, and it was really deplorable the manner in which the popocratic gentleman was worsted. When they got so badly worsted by Kelley they wisely concluded to leave Cady alone. They want no more debates.

Doc MATHEWS was an independent candidate for the legislature down in Arkansas. He received 310 out of 1988 votes cast. Now he comes out and says that hereafter he will support the democratic principles, as he believes that in the south they stand for what is best. This flop is no surprise to the residents of this county as Doc has only got back to the party he belonged to prior to his removal to republican Nebraska. The only thing the people here are surprised about is that his flexible political belief did not undergo a transformation about the time he moved into democratic Arkansas.

The Chadron Signal-recorder, the leading populist paper of the northwest is evidently not very well pleased over the nomination of Judge Green, judging by the following editorial comment:

In its judgment the nomination was an unwise one. The convention ought to have given the populists of the district such a candidate as would have kept personal defenses out of the campaign, and made it one entirely upon the issues.

The Schuyler Quill, another staunch pop paper, the editor of which is a warm friend of Mr. Beal, of the Beacon, who can no doubt vouch for his party's fidelity, says:

The populists of the Sixth congressional district have nominated W. L. Green, of Kearney, for congress. He will probably be endorsed by the democrats and as it is a populist district any way he will beat our A. E. Cady. The Quill doesn't think much of the nomination of Green. In the first place he is serving as district judge, having been elected for a four-years term. He should remain on the bench where he made a good judge and not be running every fall for some thing. Green is a man of good ideas and is a bright and a great stump speaker, but he has had a failing of getting drunk occasionally and congress is a bad place for a man so addicted. We always have our doubts about a man who preaches at times, then goes on a spree for another time. There is a screw loose somewhere.

Let some other good pop brother please arise and bear testimony to the greatness of the Sixth district nominee.—Broken Bow Republican.

Look about you! See for yourself! Who suffer most from sleeplessness, nervousness, nervous dyspepsia, neuralgia, despondency, general weakness? Who are on the edge of nervous prostration all the time? Those who are thin, Opium, chloral, bromides, headache powders, only make matters worse. Iron and biters are only stimulants. DON'T STOP TOBACCO

HOW TO CURE YOURSELF WHILE USING IT.
The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing health, comfort and happiness. To quit suddenly is too severe a shock to the system, as tobacco, to an inveterate user, becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. "Baco-Curo" is a scientific cure for the tobacco habit, in all its forms, carefully compounded after the formula of an eminent Berlin physician who has used it in his private practice since 1872, without a failure. It is purely vegetable and guaranteed perfectly harmless. You can use all the tobacco you want while taking "Baco-Curo." It will notify you when to stop. We give a written guarantee to cure permanently any case with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent. interest. "Baco-Curo" is not a substitute, but a scientific cure, that cures without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day you took your first chew or smoke. CURED BY "BACO-CURO" AND GAINED THIRTY POUNDS.

From hundreds of testimonials, the originals of which are on file and open to inspection, the following is presented: Clayton, Nevada Co., Ark., Jan. 28, 1896. Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse Wis.—Gentlemen: For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For 25 years of that time it was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Baco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased 30 pounds in weight and am relieved from all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feeling and condition. Yours respectfully, F. H. MARBUR, Pastor C. F. Church, Clayton, Ark.

Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per box; three boxes, (thirty day's treatment), $2.50 with iron-clad, written guarantee, or sent direct upon receipt of price. Write for booklet and proofs. Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis., and Boston, Mass. Oct 16/06.
