

THE FRONTIER.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY THE FRONTIER PRINTING CO.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA.

NEBRASKA.

Farmer's Course at the State University. The University of Nebraska has just issued a very attractive pamphlet...

The effect of Buffalo Bill's wild west show has developed nearly every boy into a lasso thrower, and the evil effects of the same came very near causing a serious accident.

J. B. Sharrett, a pioneer resident of Johnson county, died at his home near Tecumseh last week, of old age.

News reached Wanneta that J. R. Doty, formerly of that place, now residing at Ward, Col., was accidentally shot and killed at Fort Morgan, Col.

General Palmer tried to speak, but his words were drowned. "This is a fine country," he exclaimed, finally, "and if you want to argue your causes this way you can do so with impunity."

General Palmer pointed at the banner and said: "Let me tell you who and what constitute the McKinley Aid society." Then referring to Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio, he said that the free silver agitators were the authors of the Democracy's ruin.

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner was cheered, but the crowd set up renewed cheers of "Look at the McKinley Aid Society!"

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

The Union Pacific section foreman Green, who has been in charge of the gang of track men on the Omaha & Republican Valley line near North Loup was found dead by some of the men...

Burglars broke into the Elkhorn depot at Geneva by prying up the window, opened the money drawer, from which they got but a few pennies. They drilled the front door to the safe and blew it open, but failed to get the inside door open, which was time wasted, as no money whatever was kept in it.

The effect of Buffalo Bill's wild west show has developed nearly every boy into a lasso thrower, and the evil effects of the same came very near causing a serious accident.

J. B. Sharrett, a pioneer resident of Johnson county, died at his home near Tecumseh last week, of old age.

News reached Wanneta that J. R. Doty, formerly of that place, now residing at Ward, Col., was accidentally shot and killed at Fort Morgan, Col.

General Palmer tried to speak, but his words were drowned. "This is a fine country," he exclaimed, finally, "and if you want to argue your causes this way you can do so with impunity."

General Palmer pointed at the banner and said: "Let me tell you who and what constitute the McKinley Aid society." Then referring to Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio, he said that the free silver agitators were the authors of the Democracy's ruin.

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner was cheered, but the crowd set up renewed cheers of "Look at the McKinley Aid Society!"

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

TWAS A ROCKY ROAD

THAT PALMER AND BUCKNER TRAVELED.

In Missouri the Bryan Banner is Flaunted in Their Faces—At Paris, Fayette and Other Places, Silver Men Hoot Them Down—Gen. Buckner Uses Hot Language—Gen. Palmer Surprised.

Palmer and Buckner's Experiences. PARIS, Mo., Oct. 31.—As Generals Palmer and Buckner stood on the rear platform of their car here this morning to speak for the gold standard, a number of young men pushed up with a Bryan banner and flaunted it in the faces of the generals.

General Palmer tried to speak, but his words were drowned. "This is a fine country," he exclaimed, finally, "and if you want to argue your causes this way you can do so with impunity."

General Palmer pointed at the banner and said: "Let me tell you who and what constitute the McKinley Aid society." Then referring to Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio, he said that the free silver agitators were the authors of the Democracy's ruin.

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner was cheered, but the crowd set up renewed cheers of "Look at the McKinley Aid Society!"

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

ETHEL SPRAGUE MARRIED.

The Young Actress of Noted Family Becomes a Physician's Wife.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 31.—A San Francisco dispatch announcing the hasty marriage in that city of Dr. Frank Donaldson and Ethel Chase Sprague, the actress, daughter of Kate Chase Sprague, did not surprise the Maryland friends of Dr. Donaldson. He is the son of a Baltimore physician.

Upon his graduation from Harvard he practiced his profession for several years in this city with success. In early life he married Miss Nannie B. McDonald, member of an old Virginia family. They spent several years abroad, but upon their return from Europe Mrs. Donaldson procured a divorce from her husband.

General Palmer tried to speak, but his words were drowned. "This is a fine country," he exclaimed, finally, "and if you want to argue your causes this way you can do so with impunity."

General Palmer pointed at the banner and said: "Let me tell you who and what constitute the McKinley Aid society." Then referring to Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio, he said that the free silver agitators were the authors of the Democracy's ruin.

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner was cheered, but the crowd set up renewed cheers of "Look at the McKinley Aid Society!"

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

WATSON'S ACCEPTANCE.

Chairman Butler Has the Letter, but Refuses to Give It Out.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Senator Butler, chairman of the Populist national committee, before leaving here for Indiana, authorized the publication of the following signed statement concerning Watson's letter of acceptance: "Mr. Watson's letter was received Saturday night. It had been detained in the postoffice for want of sufficient postage, and I had not been notified by the postoffice authorities. Of course, I expected Mr. Watson to give his letter to the public in the usual way, as soon as he had it ready. Mr. Washburne went to Nashville, Tenn., on last Saturday for a conference with Mr. Watson. I wired Mr. Washburne, who had just returned from Nashville, where he had a second conference with Mr. Watson, that the letter had been received. Mr. Washburne wired me in reply, asking me not to publish the letter at present. In the meantime, I have written to Mr. Watson, urging the advisability of making at least one important change in his letter. If he authorizes this change, I will give out the letter. Otherwise, he must take the responsibility of publishing it himself."

General Palmer tried to speak, but his words were drowned. "This is a fine country," he exclaimed, finally, "and if you want to argue your causes this way you can do so with impunity."

General Palmer pointed at the banner and said: "Let me tell you who and what constitute the McKinley Aid society." Then referring to Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio, he said that the free silver agitators were the authors of the Democracy's ruin.

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner was cheered, but the crowd set up renewed cheers of "Look at the McKinley Aid Society!"

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs."

General Palmer said that all through the South he had not met with anything of the sort and was deeply surprised.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

ILL SINCE GIRLHOOD, NOW A PICTURE OF HEALTH.

From the Star, Valparaiso, Ind. The attention of the Star having been called to several cases of radical cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, it was determined to investigate some of the more notable of these cases, with a view to disseminating exact information on the subject and benefiting others who were suffering. Prominent among those who had experienced benefits from the use of this remedy was mentioned Mrs. Mary Noren, wife of John Noren, a prosperous farmer, living northeast of Valparaiso, Ind., and to her a reporter was accordingly dispatched.

Mrs. Noren was found busily engaged in household duties, but she found time to detail her experience, and was willing and even anxious that the benefits she had felt should be told for the benefit of those who had suffered as she did.

"I had been ill since girlhood with a complication of complaints," said Mrs. Noren, "never so much as to be confined long in bed, but I suffered intense misery. My chief trouble was with my stomach. I felt a constant gnawing pain that was at times almost distracting, and which had been diagnosed by different physicians as dyspepsia and sympathetic derangement dependent on the condition of the generative organs. I had pains in the back, sometimes so great as to make me unable to work, and frequent bilious attacks. I also suffered greatly from constipation, from which I never could find permanent relief. Then these symptoms were aggravated by rheumatic pains between the shoulder blades, which were most excruciating in damp or cold weather. After my marriage about five years ago, when my baby was born the trouble seemed to increase, and I was frequently so sick that I could not do my household work. I tried different physicians and used numerous remedies, but all in vain, until one day last fall I happened to read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. My husband got three boxes from Mr. C. D. Rushton, the druggist, and I began to use them. From the first I began to feel relief, and before the three boxes were gone I was nearly well. The constipation was cured and the other troubles were so much relieved that I felt better than I had felt for years. As I continued in the use of the pills I grew better and stronger, my appetite was more natural, and my flesh increased, until I am in the condition you see me now."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold in bulk or by the 100,) by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

In It for Him. Young Lawyer—Why do you take that case when there is nothing in it? Old Lawyer—Nothing in it? Blunt paid me a big retainer, and I'm charging him $50 a day during the trial.—Detroit Free Press.

Texas. In the agricultural line, Texas leads all other states in the variety of its products. Cotton, corn, and the cereals grow and are raised in every section of the state and in the central and southern portions sugar cane and sorghum are profitably cultivated. On the Gulf Coast two or three crops of vegetables are raised each year. Berries are shipped six weeks in advance of the home crop in the north. Pears, peaches, plums, oranges, figs, olives, and nuts all grow abundantly and can be marketed from two to three weeks in advance of the California crops. Large quantities of rice are now grown.

If the land seeker, the home seeker, and the settler desires to secure a farm larger than the one he occupies, on vastly more reasonable terms, if he wants more land to cultivate, a greater variety of crops to harvest, a proportionately increased remuneration, at a less outlay for cost of production, if he wants an earlier season, with correspondingly higher prices; if he wants milder winter, all the year pasturage for his stock, improved health, increased bodily comforts and wealth and prosperity he should go to Texas.

Send for pamphlet descriptive of the resources of this great state (mailed free). Low rate home seekers' excursions via the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway on Tuesday, November 17th, December 1st and 15th, 1896. H. A. Cherrier Northern Passenger agent, 326 Marquette Building, Chicago, Ill.

Buckwheat for Cleaning. No matter how large the spot of oil, any carpet or woolen stuff can be cleaned by applying buckwheat plentifully, brushing it into a dustpan after a short time, and putting on fresh until the oil has disappeared.

For Free Distribution. The Cotton Belt Route has had published a series of attractive pamphlets, beautifully illustrated, which set forth in a clear and concise manner the wonderful resources of the States of Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, commonly known as "The Great South-west."

The information contained in these pamphlets is thoroughly reliable, being compiled from the best sources, and each one is complete in itself. Much interest is being taken in them, and the general good they are doing in upbuilding the country traversed by the Cotton Belt Route is commendable.

The pamphlets are entitled "Homes in the South-west," "Texas," "Truth About Arkansas," "Glimpses of Southeast Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana," "Lands for Sale Along the Cotton Belt Route."

These books are for free distribution and will be cheerfully sent to any address free, upon application to E. W. LaBeaume, Gen'l Passenger and Ticket Agent, St. Louis, Mo.

HINTS FOR THE HOUSEHOLD. In making a salad of fish, if you add a little cucumber pickle, chopped very fine, to the dish before the dressing is poured over, you will greatly improve it.

In all lives there is a crisis in the formation of character. It comes from many causes, and from some which on the surface are apparently trivial, but the result is the same—a sudden revelation to ourselves of our secret purposes, and a recognition of our perhaps long shadowed but now masterful convictions.

TORNADO IN OKLAHOMA.

Five Persons Killed at Mitchell—Was a Terrible Storm.

GUTHRIE, Okla., Oct. 31.—Wednesday night a disastrous tornado swept over the little town of Carney, thirty miles east of here, which was recently held up by outlaws.

The tornado came from the southwest and traversed northeast. Its track was about six miles long, and varied from 100 to 150 feet in width. The first house struck was that of a farmer named Miles Tobe. Tobe's house was blown down and Tobe, with his 10-year-old son Millard, was killed in the ruins. The barns and fences were razed, and fourteen head of stock were killed.

One mile from Tobe's place is the Mitchell postoffice. M. T. Mullin kept the postoffice, which was in his store. Postmaster Mullin's residence was lifted from its foundation and carried seventy-five feet, where it was smashed to smithereens. A bedstead which was in the house was blown over a mile.

Yesterday morning the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Mullin were found in the rain and mud about sixty feet from where the houses were shattered to pieces. The two bodies were locked together, and a stick a yard long and two inches thick was driven through Mullin's head.

DENMARK RUSSIA'S ALLY.

Recent Fortifications Activity at Copenhagen Due to a Secret Treaty.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Copenhagen relative to the enormous sums which are being expended by the Danish government upon fortifications of Copenhagen, says that this work is undertaken in pursuance of a secret understanding arrived at between Russia and France, by which Russia guarantees the integrity of Denmark and that, should a favorable occasion arise, she will insist upon a part of Schleswig-Holstein, inhabited by Danes, being restored to Denmark in case a plebiscite of the inhabitants shows a desire of the people that this step should be taken.

On the other hand, the dispatch adds, Denmark undertakes, should Russia be engaged in war, to place at her disposal the harbors, forts and ship building yards of Copenhagen, which, it is pointed out, as a base of operations against North Germany, are worth over 100,000 men.

THE KISSING PROBLEM.

Indiana's Board of Health Secretary Advises the Use of a Disinfectant.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 31.—The secretary of the state health board reports that at Columbus a man persisted in kissing his sweetheart, who was alarmingly ill of diphtheria, by which he also contracted the disease. He therefore wants to interdict all kissing, concerning which he says: "I am convinced of the difficulty the health board will meet in trying to taboo kissing among sweethearts. Although a most dangerous pastime, there seems to be an inherent tendency to indulge in it, and we have little hope of ever being able to do away with it. All that would be necessary would be to rinse the teeth well with it and rub it well on the lips. That would insure devotees against the dangers from osculation."

THE MONEY STRINGENCY.

High Rates Reached Again To-day, but There is No Alarm.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—There was a notable absence of excitement in Wall street at the opening to-day, considering the extreme stringency of money yesterday. Higher London quotations, scarcity of stocks offering in the local market and rumors of financial relief measures to be taken by the banks caused a confident sentiment. The first call loan was 50 per cent. The rate advanced to 100 per cent and then dropped back to 50 before noon. Not much business was done.

A Veteran Democrat Passes Away.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Oct. 31.—Ex-Congressman John D. Stiles, who was the oldest member of the Lehigh county bar, died last night from the effects of a paralytic stroke. He was 75 years of age. In 1856 he was a delegate to the convention which nominated James Buchanan for president, and was the same year elected to Congress to fill the unexpired term of Thomas B. Cooper and was re-elected in 1858 and 1862. In 1864 he was a delegate to the Democratic national convention which nominated General McClellan for president.

Crook in Woman's Attire.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 28.—For the past month fully twenty cases have been reported to the police of men being robbed in the city through the wiles of a mysterious woman, who secured, as far as heard from, in all about $1,000. The perpetrator of these robberies is in jail in the person of Pat O'Brien, a notorious crook, who has been masquerading as the fascinating woman. A search of his room disclosed the various feminine disguises, as well as a lot of jewelry that he had robbed his victims of.

A FILIBUSTER DEFIANT.

Captain Lomm of the Dauntless Dares the Windom to Fire on Him.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 31.—A special to the Journal from Fernandina, Fla., says: "Captain Lomm of the filibusterer Dauntless, now lying under the guns of the revenue cutter Windom, Captain Hand, says he is going to Jacksonville to-morrow. Hand says he will sink the tug if she moves, and Lomm replies: 'All right, get ready your small boats to pick up my men, for I shall certainly make the attempt.'"