EXTRA SESSION CERTAIN. CONFIDANTES OF MCKINLEY SPEAK POSITIVELY.

Chairman of Ways and Means Committee Dingley to Formally Make Such an Announcement at the Proper Time—Will Convene Shortly After March 4—Senator Thurston Talks.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Friends and confidantes of Mr. McKinley who have come direct from Canton, Ohio, bring the positive announcement that a call for a special session of Congress, that will convene a few days after March 4, has been decided upon.

Senator Thurston said: "I am convinced a session of the next Congress will be called for about the 15th of March. That ought to be satisfactory. I cannot quote anyone, but I do not consider that there is any doubt on the point. The complexion of the Senate will not be allowed to influence the decision at all."

RESOURCES OF ALABAMA.

Delivered in the Inaugural Address of Governor Johnston. Governor Joseph E. Johnston was inaugurated governor of Alabama Dec. 1. Before taking the oath of office he delivered a long address, sounding the keynote of his administration, which is to promote the development of Alabama's resources and improve the condition of her people.

"With an area of but little more than fifty thousand square miles, there is no territory of like size in the known world so prolific in the variety of its resources; were a wall erected around our state, cutting off all access, we could produce within our borders everything necessary for the comfort or convenience of man. Great veins of iron ore and seams of coal put at our command almost boundless resources in fuel, iron, and steel.
