The People Wondered

and the People will Wonder!

Such merchandising. No wonder the people comes here as if of one mind. An even dozen helpers were to few to wait on the throngs---your pardon is asked. Yet we only tell of one bargain of each fifty secured by Mr. P. J. McManus during his recent eastern purchasing trip. No room for further comment---this broad page will not hold half the bargain news that could be told of this month.

Farmers Loan & Trust Company, plaintiff, vs.
Owen G. Snell, Hattie Snell, Lombard Investment Company, G. H. Peebles, David Dean, and the Southwest quarter of section No. Twenty-one (21), in township No. Thirty-one (31), of range fifteen in Holt county, Nebraska (defendants.

To each and all of the above named defendants and to all persons interested in the above described tract of land: You and each of you are hereby notified that the petition of plaintiff is now on file in the office of the clerk of the District Court of Holt county, Nebraska, alleging that plaintiff purchased said lands at tax sale on the 27th day of December, 1889, for the taxes for the year 1888, and paid therefor the sum of Forty-nine and 42-100 Dollars, and under and by virtue of said sale paid, subsequent taxes thereon as follows: On the 14th day of July, 1890, the sum of eighteen and 13-100 Dollars, and on the 16th day of June, 1891. Twelve and 96 100 Dollars; that on the 16th day of August, 1892, a tax deed based on such sale and payment was issued and delivered to plaintiff purporting to convey said real estate to it, which deed was duly recorded, and that for the serving of the notice to redeem and taking and recording said tax deed plaintiff paid costs amounting to the sum of Seven Dollars. Said petition further alleges that on the 21st day of November, 1893, one James F. Toy purchased said tract of land at a regular tax sale for the taxes for the year 1892, and paid therefor the sum of Thirteen and 48-100 Dollars, and that the said James F. Toy, under and by virtue of sald sale paid subsequent taxes as follows, to-wit: on the 17th day of May, 1894, the sum of Eight and 66-100 Dollars, and on the 5th day of June, 1895, the sum of Twelve and 86-100 Dollars; that on the 12th day of February, 1896, the county treasurer of said Holt county, Nebraska, 1896, the sum of Twelve and 86-100 Dollars; that on the 12th day of February, 1896, the county treasurer of said Holt county, Nebraska, 1896, the sum of Twelve and sale and payment, purporting to convey to the said James F. Toy at tax deed based on said sale and payment, purporting to convey to the said James F. Toy at 1897, and that for serving the notice to redeem, taking and recording said tax deed the said James F. Toy paid costs to the amount of Seven Dollars. That all the right, title and interest in and to said land acquired by the said James F. Toy as signed and transferred to this plaintiff, and plaintiff is now the holder and owner of all such interests.

You are further notified that by virtue of the sale, payment and deed first referred to and the acquiring of the interests of the said James P. Toy, plaintiff claims to be the absolute and unqualified owner of all said real estate, and asks in said petition that its title thereto be quieted in it and against all the adverse claims of all and each of the defendants herein and against all other persons. Plaintiff further asks that if its title to said real estate be found defective then that the interests and assets of the several defendants herein and all other persons be taken and determined that its liten for taxes so paid on said lands be decreed to be a first lien and paramount to the interests of each of the defendants and against all other persons. Plaintiff further asks for a general equitable
