LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTICE.

In the District Court of Holt County, Nebr. Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, Plaintiff vs. Daniel O'Donnell, Sarah A. O'Donnell, Emplie Hardware Company, Nell McCarvey, Eber Leek, John Hynes, Schneider & Loomis, J. T. Robinson Notion Company and C. H. Fisher, Defendants.

To each and all of the above named defendants, and to all persons interested in the following described tract of land: The north and north half of the northeast quarter, and the north half of the northwest quarter of section three (3) in township twenty-seven north, range ten (10) west of the 6th P. M. in Holt County, Nebraska. You and each of you are hereby notified, that the petition of plaintiff is now on file in the office of the clerk of the district court of Holt County, Nebraska, claiming that plaintiff purchased said lands at a tax sale on the 27th day of December, 1889, for the taxes of 1888 and 1889, and under said sale has paid subsequent taxes as follows: On the 14th day of July, 1890, the sum of thirteen and 3/4 dollars, and on the 16th day of June, 1891, the sum of fourteen and 25/100 dollars; that on the 10th day of August, 1892, a tax deed based on said sale and payment was issued and delivered to plaintiff purporting to convey to it said real estate, which deed was duly recorded, and that for serving the notice to redeem, taking and recording said tax deed, plaintiff paid the sum of seven dollars, and that by reason of said sale, payment and tax deed, plaintiff claims to be the absolute owner of said land free and clear of all liens and interests.

You are further notified that on the 7th day of November, 1892, one James F. Toy purchased said tract of land at a regular tax sale of lands for the taxes for the year 1891, and paid therefor the sum of thirteen and 9/100 dollars; and that under and by virtue of said sale plaintiff subsequent tax as follows: October 24, 1893, Nineteen and 70/100 dollars; and May 14, 1894, the sum of eleven and 50/100 dollars; that on the 22nd day of December, 1894, a tax deed based on such sale and payment was issued and delivered to plaintiff purporting to convey to him all of said real estate, which deed was duly recorded, and that for serving the notice to redeem, taking and recording said deed, the said James F. Toy paid expenses to the amount of seven dollars.

You are further notified that on the 19th day of November, 1895, the said James F. Toy again purchased said real estate at a regular tax sale for the taxes for the year 1894, and paid therefor the sum of fourteen and 25/100 dollars, and that under and by virtue of said sale the said James F. Toy paid subsequent taxes as follows: November 11, 1896, the sum of nine and 8/100 dollars; that the interest acquired by the said James F. Toy in said real estate by virtue of said sales payment of subsequent taxes, has been assigned to plaintiff and plaintiff is now the holder and owner of all such interests.

You are further notified that plaintiff, by virtue of its purchase of said real estate, and the acquiring of the interests of the said James F. Toy, claims to be the absolute and unqualified owner of all said real estate, and asks that the equity of the defendants be foreclosed and cut off, and that the assets and interests in said real estate of the several defendants to said action and all other persons in said real estate be fully established and quieted against the adverse claims of each and all of the defendants and all other persons, and if it be found by such determination that plaintiff's title to said real estate is defective and void, then that the amount of said claim within the time as may be fixed by the court, and upon a failure to make such payment, that plaintiff's title to said premises become fixed, established and quieted against each and all of said defendants, and all other persons, and plaintiff asks also for a general equitable relief including a decree for a general and ordinary foreclosure of its tax lien as by statute in such cases made and provided, and the sale of said premises in satisfaction thereof.

You are further notified that you are required to appear and answer said petition on or before Monday, the 18th day of January, 1897. Dated at O'Neill, Nebr., this 23rd day of December, 1896. FARMERS' LOAN AND TRUST COMPANY, Plaintiff. By M. J. Sweeley and E. H. Benedict, Its Attorneys.

You are further notified that on the 19th day of November, 1895, the said James F. Toy again purchased said real estate at a regular tax sale for the taxes for the year 1894, and paid therefor the sum of Nine and 8/100 Dollars, and that under and by virtue of said sale the said James F. Toy paid subsequent taxes as follows: November 11, 1896, the sum of nine and 8/100 Dollars. That all the interest acquired by the said James F. Toy in said real estate by virtue of said sales payment of subsequent taxes, has been assigned to plaintiff and plaintiff is now the holder and owner of all such interests.

You are further notified that plaintiff, by virtue of its purchase of said real estate, and the acquiring of the interests of the said James F. Toy, claims to be the absolute and unqualified owner of all said real estate, and asks that the equity of the defendants be foreclosed and cut off, and that the assets and interests of the several defendants to said action and all other persons in said real estate be fully established and quieted against the adverse claims of each and all of the defendants and all other persons, and if it be found by such determination that plaintiff's title to said real estate is defective and void, then that the amount of said claim within the time as may be fixed by
