BANK OF EWING FAILS.

The Bank of Ewing failed to open its doors for business Tuesday morning, having gone into voluntary liquidation. They are paying off depositors, allowing them to take paper of the bank's assets to reimburse them for the amount of their deposits. It is claimed that all depositors will be paid up. We understand it had deposits amounting to about $17,000. The bank changed hands about January 1, Messrs. Van Zandt and Ege retiring, having disposed of their interest to C. F. Lytle of Iowa. The county had about $3,000 on deposit in the bank. The following persons are on the bond of the bank, and justified for the amount opposite their names:

- Thos. D. Slevers.....$ 8,000.
- F. C. Felt.....5,000.
- C. F. Lytle.....17,000.
- Wm. Lewis.....3,500.
- C. F. Lytle, bank property.....10,000.
- Carl Crocker.....10,000.

A brother editor of a poetic turn of mind thus delivers himself: "The preacher works for the souls of men, and generally gets his pay; the merchant reaps his just reward in profits from day to day; the banker sits in his office chair with his bundle of cash to rent; the dealer of grog stands behind the bar and fills up the schoolers high, and jingles the tin that the boys 'blow in' for portions of good old rye; the doctors and lawyers find work to do that brings in the cold hard cash; and the men who wield the plane or spade find money to buy their hab; but the editor has a thankless task as the busy months roll by, and he knows no rest of body or brain, while he misses the chance to dig. His reward in this world never comes, but over the silent sea, if justice reigns, he is bound to have an elegant jubilee.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamonddale, Mich., we are permitted to make this abstract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding the grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at P. C. Corrigan's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00.
