What a Prominent Insurance Man Says.
 H. M. Blossom, senior member of H. M. Blossom & Co., 317 N. 3rd St. Louis writes: I had been left with a very distressing cough, the result of influenza, which nothing seemed to relieve, until I took Ballard's Horehound Syrup. One bottle completely cured me. I sent one bottle to my sister who had a severe cough, and she experienced immediate relief. I always recommended this syrup to my friends.

John Cranston 908 Hampshire Street, Quincy, Ill., writes: I have found Ballard's Horehound Syrup superior to any other cough medicine I have ever known. It never disappoints. Price 25 and 50 cents. Free sample bottles at P. C. Corrigan's.

An exchange gives this excellent advice to merchants: Every bright advertisement that you notice in your local papers or those of other towns, every model advertisement that you notice in trade papers and trade beginning, plan or hint, should be cut out and pasted in a book with full date of the paper. You will find such a book as this an inexhaustible treasure of riches, especially on those days when your ideas run scarce and you are too busy to evolve a good advertisement.

When tramps hit the town of Pierce for meals and lodging, the city marshal accommodates them and then puts them on the street to work it out. The "Willies" are shyng clear of that town as a consequence. We think it would be a holy and wholesome thought if the city marshal of O'Neill would go and do likewise. If some such action is not taken the city will be overrun with them again this summer the same as it was last. Already there has been a "gang" of them here for over a week, trying to dispose of some stolen hardware, and had to be ordered the second time before they would leave town.

PACIFIC SHORT LINE TIME TABLE.

Passenger leaves, 10:10 A. M.; Arrives 9:30 P. M. Daily, except Sunday.

Through connections both ways with Black Hills train. By taking this line you can go to Sioux City and return the same day. Connections made with all trains for the east and for South Dakota. Buy local tickets to O'Neill. 39-1f
