What a Prominent Insurance Man Says.

H. M. Blossom, senior member of H. M. Blossom & Co., 217 N. 3rd St. Louis writes: I had been left with a very distressing cough, the result of influenza, which nothing seemed to relieve, until I took Ballard's Horehound Syrup. One bottle completely cured me. I sent one bottle to my sister who had a severe cough, and she experienced immediate relief. I always recommended this syrup to my friends.

John Cranston 908 Hampshire Street, Quincy, Ill., writes: I have found Ballard's Horehound Syrup superior to any other cough medicine I have ever known. It never disappoints. Price 25 and 50 cents. Free sample bottles at P. C. Corrigan's.

71f NEIL BRENNAN.

When tramps hit the town of Pierce for meals and lodging, the city marshal accommodates them and then puts them on the street to work it out. The "Willies" are shying clear of that town as a consequence. We think it would be a holy and wholesome thought if the city marshal of O'Neill would go and do likewise. If some such action is not taken the city will be overrun with them again this summer the same as it was last. Already there has been a "gang" of them here for over a week, trying to dispose of some stolen hardware, and had to be ordered the second time before they would leave town.
