and the railroad passes in their vest pocket, and what do they care for the financial effect, if the political effect is to hold the crowd together?

Shame on the long faced demagogue, who plays upon the prejudices of the masses, to feather his own particular nest, while his splendid state that ought to be beaming in the sunlight of happiness at home and respect abroad is sitting in the ashes of disgrace, gnawing the bitter herbs of pessimism and discontent.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feelings prevail, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle at P. C. Corrigan's Drug Store.

What a Prominent Insurance Man Says.
 H. M. Blossom, senior member of H. M. Blossom & Co., 217 N. 3rd St. Louis writes: I had been left with a very distressing cough, the result of influenza, which nothing seemed to relieve, until I took Ballard's Horehound Syrup. One bottle completely cured me. I sent one bottle to my sister who had a severe cough, and she experienced immediate relief. I always recommended this syrup to my friends.
 John Cranston 908 Hampshire Street, Quincy, Ill., writes: I have found Ballard's Horehound Syrup superior to any other cough medicine I have ever known. It never disappoints. Price 25 and 50 cents. Free sample bottles at P. C. Corrigan's.
