

ATKINSON ITEMS.

VERN McDONALD, Editor.

It was a fine rain we had.

The corn is looking fine.

Mike Lyons, of Emmet, was in town Monday.

J. L. McDonald went to O'Neill Wednesday.

John McNichols drove to O'Neill Wednesday.

H. A. Allen took Monday morning's train for O'Neill.

There will be a shooting tournament in Atkinson August 16, 17 and 18.

Rev. Burleigh was shaking hands with his many friends in Atkinson last Monday.

The post office is being moved into the Chambers building on main street which has lately been occupied as a billiard hall.

Arthur Coykendall came up from O'Neill last Saturday and stayed over Sunday. Of course it was purely a business trip.

Jess Brook caught a fine bass Tuesday. We might say it weighed 7 pounds but for fear of injuring our reputation for truthfulness we will put it at 3 1/2 pounds.

James Johnson, son of Col. B. W. Johnson, arrived Tuesday evening from San Francisco for a visit with his relatives here whom he had not seen for ten years.

Miss Florence McDonald returned home from Fremont last Saturday to remain a short time. She was accompanied by Miss Nellie Flood, of Chicago, who will visit with her during her stay.

The boxing matches Saturday evening were interesting and well attended. There were three matches and all of them were warm. The "go" of the evening was between Jeston Boehme and George Purnell, the decision of the referee going to Boehme after five rounds.

Attorney General Smythe was in Atkinson Tuesday looking for evidence that would assist him in establishing his claim that Bartley's deposit in the Exchange bank was state money. The action of the state in endeavoring to appropriate this deposit and get it paid ahead of the regular depositors is very unpopular here.

The horse races came off as scheduled last Saturday and a good crowd was in attendance. The trotting race was won by John McNichols' horse, he coming out first in both heats. In the horse race Keelers black got first with Neesley's horse second. Hitchcocks pony won first in the pony race and Alworths pony second. The novelty race was won by a horse belonging to Bert Freed.

Miss Emma Reisinger and Mr. Austin Butler were married at the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday evening, July 21, 1897, Rev. Beck officiating. Mr. Butler, who is an employee of the Atkinson Roller Mills, has lived here for a number of years and is well and favorably known. The bride is a daughter of Wm. Reisinger, a well-to-do farmer living east of Atkinson, and although she has been here only about three years she has made many warm friends all of whom join with us in wishing the happy pair a bright and prosperous future.

The ball game last Friday between the O'Neill and Atkinson "kid" nines was close and exciting although the boys let the score run up pretty well. The two nines are very evenly matched and the players on both sides full of life and if the diamond had been cut down to kids size the score would have been greatly lowered. When the Atkinson team went to bat in the last half of the ninth the score stood 17 to 18 in favor of O'Neill but the boys went right after the ball and made the two winning runs with only one out. The score by innings was as follows:

Atkinson 5 4 3 2 0 0 1 2 2-19
O'Neill 4 4 1 2 3 3 0 1 0-18

Condensed Testimony.

Chas. B. Hood, broker and manufacturer's agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's new discovery has no equal as a cough remedy. J. D. Brown, proprietor St. James hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testified that he was cured of a cough of two years' standing, caused by la grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery. B. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming 292 E 25th St., Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has no fear of croup, because it instantly relieves. Free trial bottles at P. C. Corrigan's drug store.

Believed of Terrible Pains.

R. E. Morse, traveling salesman, Galveston, Texas, says: Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me of rheumatism of three months' standing after use of two bottles. J. S. Doan, Danville, Ill., says: I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment for years and would not be without it. J. E. Crouch, Rio, Ill., says: Ballard's Snow Liniment cured terrible pains in back of head and neck when nothing else would. Every bottle guaranteed. Price 50 cents. Free trial bottles at P. C. Corrigan's.

Middle Branch.

Cultivating is a thing of the past.

A game of ball was played at Grimsen last Saturday.

Miss Eva Stevens visited Miss Elsie Bright last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Conwell and wife visited Mr. and Mrs. John Darr last Sunday.

Very hot weather was experienced here last week.

An unusual number of buggies and other vehicles were on the road Sunday.

People were calling on their aunts, uncles, brothers, etc.

Uncle Johnny Walker was taken suddenly ill Thursday evening with an attack of neuralgia of the stomach, but he is now up again.

One of the neighbors called at P. T. Stevens' last Sunday and asked to see THE FRONTIER. He said that he would like to see a good old republican paper once more.

Harry Bright and his mother called at John Walker's last Friday.
