

ATKINSON ITEMS.

VERN McDONALD, Editor.

News is very scarce this week. Miss Rothers left for Iowa Wednesday morning. Frank Moore went to O'Neill this morning. J. F. Brady left Wednesday for a short trip to Chicago. C. M. Forney came up from Norfolk Sunday and returned Tuesday. John Hanly, of Hammond, was doing business in Atkinson last Tuesday. Monday evening Miss Blanche Shuttis gave a party to a number of her friends, all of whom report a good time. Dell Akin and Lew Brown were in from Hammond Tuesday. They report the crops doing well in that locality.

Miss Pearl Burleson returned Friday from Arlington, Neb., where she has closed a very successful term teaching. Thos. Carlon was taken to O'Neill Wednesday morning. He has been getting along nicely since the amputation of his leg. The North Nebraska amateur shooting tournament will be held at Atkinson August 18, 19 and 20. Better get out your gun practice up a little and attend. Mrs. C. J. Brook accompanied by her daughter, Jessie, left Friday for Spencer, Ia., where she will spend about a month visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clark. Miss Florence McDonald returned to Fremont Wednesday morning where she will stay about three weeks to complete the course of study she is taking at the normal. Miss Nellie Flood, who has been visiting her returned to Chicago on the same day.

The ball game last Saturday between O'Neill and Atkinson could not help being exciting, for there was no telling just when one nine might run in fifty or sixty scores and so clinch the game. Although a lead of fifty or sixty would not have made the game sure, still it was felt that if one nine could have got that much ahead in the last half of the game they would very likely, barring accident, win out. But this was not to be, for the game continued close, Atkinson never getting more than twelve scores ahead, and so the excitement was always at the highest pitch. In the sixth and ninth innings the O'Neill boys made a bluff or two at trying to win but when the Atkinson boys thought that they had allowed them to amuse the ladies in the grand stand long enough they just put them out and laughed at them. And talk about kicking! There were only two mules on the ground, but when the O'Neillites started to kick those mules had to be taken away as their owner said they would surely die of envy, for they had always prided themselves on being the champion kickers of North Nebraska. Whenever an O'Neill player got within six feet of a base and was called out they considered they had a chance for a kick, and so they kicked, for you can bet they never let a chance go by. Twice they said that they wouldn't play any more and started for home with their ball and bat, but the crowd felt sorry for them both times and presented the umpire and the captain of the Atkinson nine with a petition asking that they let the kickers have their own way, as it would make no difference with the outcome of the game and the crowd didn't want them to go home for it was too much fun watching them try to play ball. So the umpire, at the request of the Atkinson nine, granted the petition. After that whenever an O'Neillite thought he should not be put out he kicked, and the umpire would say, "all right, hold your base, I must have been mistaken." We understand that O'Neill claims she can get up a better nine than the one they sent. If they couldn't we would feel sorry for them, and we hope they will send it up before long so that we can see it. Here is the score by innings of last Saturday's game:

O'Neill - 1-0-3-0-2-3-1-0-5-18.
Atkinson - 3-2-0-6-2-5-3-4-25.

R. E. Morse, traveling salesman, Galveston, Texas, says: Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me of rheumatism of three months' standing after use of two bottles. J. S. Doan, Danville, Ill., says: I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment for years and would not be without it. J. E. Condensed Testimony.
Chas. B. Hood, broker and manufacturer's agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's new discovery has no equal as a cough remedy. J. D. Brown, proprietor St. James hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testified that he was cured of a cough of two years' standing, caused by la grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery. B. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming 222 E 25th St., Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has no fear of croup, because it instantly relieves. Free trial bottles at P. C. Corrigan's drug store.
