FOR THE NORTH POLE

PEARY WILL FIND IT OR DIE IN THE ATTEMPT.

Plans Laid for 'Next Year's Expedition. Which Will Start July, 1898-Conditions Under Which the Journey to be Undertaken -Sanguine of Success.

Lieutenant Peary's Next Trip. PRILADELPHIA, Sept. 27. - Lieutenant Peary said to-day, concerning the Arctic trip from which he has just returned:

"In addition to securing the Cape York meteorite, I laid the plans for next year's expedition, and when I leave again, which will be about the end of next July, it will be to remain up there until I reach the pole or lose my life in the attempt, if it takes five years to accomplish this object.

"Next summer I shall take my vessel up to Sherard Osborne Fjord and make that place my base of supplies. "On the last trip, I made arrangements with Arctic highlanders, a tribe of Eskimos, consisting of 230 men, women and children, known as the most northerly tribe of human beings on earth; to put in this coming winter in obtaining seal, bear and deer skins for our clothing, and in securing all the walrus meat they can for dog food. I have singled out eight young men of the tribe, who, with their wives, canoes, dogs, sleighs and tera's, are to accompany me to Sherard Osborne Fjord, which is about 300 miles further north than their present abode.

"My party will consist of a surgeon, possibly another white man and myself. The rest will be Eskimos. The latter know how to drive dogs, they can go hungry, and know how to get food

"The conditions under which I shall make the coming expedition are of the most satisfactory character. The American Geographical Society has assured $150,000 to meet all expenses, and I have been given five years' leave of absence. I shall probably buy a new ship for next year, though we may use the Hope again. Mrs. Peary will not accompany me.

"I am quite sure that I shall succeed in reaching the pole. Nansan got within 260 miles of it, but Andree did not have one chance in 1,000 when he started to drift over the pole. I don't think Andree will accomplish anything, and he may have lost his life long before this '" his attempt."

DUN'S REVIEW.

Europe Sending Gold to Pay for Amer-

lean Grain. NEW YORK, Sept. 27 .- R. G. Dun & o.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: Gold imports, have begun direct from England and from France, besides the arrival of $4,000,000 at San Francisco from Australia for wheat exported. The gold received there and stapted from Europe amounts to $6,500,000 in four days, and the advance of its rate by the Bank of England to 21/2 per cent seems little likely to check the movement, in view of heavy merchandise balances due this country and a rise in the rate of interest here. The August excess of merchandise and specie exports over imports was not far from $42,000,000, and the September excess will evidently be larger, unless shipments of gold are considerable.

Bradstreet's says: "There is a check staple lines noticeable throughout the country for the past six weeks. The yellow fever quarantine, which extends from Texas to Georgia, has brought wholesale business to a practical standstill throughout the greater portion of the region embraced by the Gulf states."

ENGLAND'S CHANGE

Canada's Protest Against Participation

in Sealing Conference Heeded. LONDON, Sept. 27. -Officials of the foreign office decline to give the reasons for Great Britian's notification to the United States that it cannot participate in the sealing conference at Washington if Russia and Japan take part in it. The action of the Marquis of Salisbury is the more surprising because he accepted for Great Britain the invitation to take part in the conference with the full knowledge that Russia and Japan were included in the invitation.

It is known that Canada requested the withdrawal of Great Britain from the sealing conference and the government unwillingly acceded to this request, in accordance with its policy of cultivating the friendship of the colonies, even at the risk of offending other powers. It is thought in diplo matic circles that Canada's action in the premises was influenced by the fear that Great Britain would be outvoted by the United States, Bussia and Japan, whose views regarding the protection of seals coincide.

LOVERS DIE TOGETHER.

A Blacksmith of Shamotin, Pa., Kill

His Sweetheart and Himself. SHAMOKIN, Pa., Sept. 27. - The bodies of Arthur W. May, aged 24, and Miss Cora Kasman, aged 15, were found in the blacksmith shop of Joseph Smink this morning. May had shot his sweetheart and then himself through the head. The murderer and suicide was a blacksmith, and up to the time of his death had been employed by Smink. The couple had been lovers for some time, and last week they arranged to go away and be quietly married. The parents of the young woman objected, and this caused a postponement. Then the pair made up their minds to end their troubles by dying together, and met last night and made all arrangements. The girl left her home early this morning and went direct to the blacksmith shop where May was waiting for her.

Orleans as It Was in 1887. NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 27. - Eminent doctors believe that the work of the board of health is productive of good results and that the fever is not spreading, but, on the contrary, is being confined to localities. Thus far there have been a few less than 100 cases and fifteen deaths. The death rate is in the neighborhood of 15 per cent. It was, in 1878, 16 per cent; so that up to the present time the disease is about as virulent as it was in the last great epidemic New Orleans had

Buried in an Avalauche

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Sept. 25 .-The tug Pioneer, which left Puget Sound September 12 with the bark Shirley in tow for Skaguay, returned at I o'clock this morning, having made the run down in ninety-six hours. The Pioneer brings a report of a landslide near Sheep camp, on the Chilcoot pass, last Sunday morning, in which eighteen men are said to have lost their lives. Only one body is said to have been recovered, that of a man named Choynski, a cousin of Joe Choynski, the prize fighter. The men supposed to have been lost were packers on the Dyea trail.

The officers of the Pioneer says that the story was brought to Skaguay Sunday evening by three men, who told it in such a way as to leave no doubt as to its truthfulness. They described the avalanche as consisting of rocks, ice and dirt which had been loosened by the rain, which had been falling continuously during the past month. All the bridges on the Skaguay river have been washed out and the river is a raging torrent.

W. W. Sprague, of Tacome, who started eight weeks ago with a threeyears' outfit, returned from Skaguay on the schooner

The steamer Alki, a week overdue from Alaska, arrived this morning at 4 o'clock. It carried a large list of men returning from Skaguay who were unable to cross the pass. The snow was six inches deep at Lake Benton, and three inches fell on the summit of the Chilcoot pass last Satorday.

HURRICANE PREDICTED.

Professor Wiggins Says the Planets Are in Position to Raise a Rumpus. OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 25 .- Professor

Wiggins predicts a great hurricane and savs:

"The announcement by the marine department that a hurricane is now moving up the Atlantic coast from the West Indies is a meteorological event of more than common interest. That a great storm is near is a meteorological fact. The moon will be in conjunction with Jupiter and Mercury on the 25th, and Mars on the 27th. The moon crosses the celestial equator on the 25th, moving southward. She will be in conjunction with the sun on the 26th at 1 o'clock, p. m., London time, and will be at her perigree or nearest point in her orbit to the earth on the 28th. They are all or nearly all dangerous elements to the mariner, for they indicate a storm on the afternoon of Wednesday, the 29th, with high tides on the North American coast.' LILY'S MARRIAGE PLANS.

Mrs. Langtry Fapects to Become Princess Esterhazy in California.

Prince pany her and immediately upon their arrival here they will be married in Lake county, I presume, for her home is there. Because they have preferred to be married in this state it must not be argued that either Mrs. Langtry or Prince Esterhazy regard the former divorce as lacking in legality in any other jurisdiction. On the contrary, they are advised by their solicitors in London that the decree granted at Lakeport has freed her absolutely from Edward Langtry, so that she may marry in any part of the world, if she chooses."

THE NEW SCHOOL LAW.

It Will Educate the Children and Save Money to the Tax-Payers.

The law passed by the last legislature, says a Lincoln correspondent of the Omaha Bee, empowering school boards to provide transportation for pupils to another school in the same district whenever the distance to the school is impracticable for the pupils school is impracticable for the pupils to attend without transportation, is being taken advantage of by several districts of the state. In Lincoln it has been decided to abandon one of the schools in the edge of the town and transport the pupils by street cars to one of the other graded schools. It is estimated by this the expense of proestimated by this the expense of pro-viding an education for these pupils will be reduced 45 per cent. In Fremont and Nebraska City the school boards are also preparing to try the new system.

In many of the western counties there are districts in which the average at-tendance of pupils is less than five. In some it runs as low as one pupil to the school. In 1,700 districts the average attendance is below ten pupils to the school. Should districts of this sort agree among themselves and transport the pupils of one district over to the run by another district, there would be a saving of fully 30 per cent in the furnishing of an education for

It is learned by consulting the rec-ords at the office of the state superin-tendent that in one district the expense of maintaining a school from February 2, 1891 to October 8, 1892, was $1,389.65, although the average attendance during that time was shown to be two pupils. The teacher was paid $40 a month and the directors got the balance. In another district the report shows that in 1892 the school house was 14x14 feet in size and was fitted out with nine single seats. average daily attendance for that year was three. The expense account, aside from the teacher's salary, shows that $30 was expended for a map, and that $508.09 was drawn by the three directors in various amounts of from $20 to $75, the vouchers showing that the money was drawn to pay for "attending meetings, work and visiting schools." The same district in 1893 contained thirteen pupils of school age of whom six attended school. The average attendance was three as on the previous year. The levy for the year was 18 mills. The expenditures were as follows: Teacher, $360; repairs and fuel, $73.75; maps and charts. $41.40; books and supplies, $13.30; well and windmill, $294.45; janitor work kindling and carrying water, $100; other purposes, $90.76. In 1894 the district contained eleven pupils of school age, the average daily attendance was four. The directors paid the teacher $120; new school house, $466.10; repairs and fuel, $28; books, maps, etc.. $66.73; books and supplies, $20; janitor and furnishing water, $90; in-surance, $17.50; all other purposes, court at Omaha. The syndicate has already deposited a forfeit of $4,500,000, and has, it is understood, completed all necessary finantcial arrangements to pay the balance as soon as the road is sold in compli-ance with the orders of the court. This arrangement meets with the approval of the subcommittee of the senate committe on Pacific roads, which held a meeting here last week, and as soon as he terms of purchase have been com-plied with by the syndicate, the gov-ernment's connection with the road will cease.

Nebraska Products Abroad, The El Paso (Ill.) Journal of September has this to say of the Nebraska agricultural exhibit which is going the rounds of the Illinois county fairs:

The exhibit made by the gentlemen from Nebraska is a beauty. In point of artistic arrangement it would do credit to our state fair and should be seen by every visitor to the El Paso fair

We judge by the expression from the many who have been to the building in which it is located that the display of farm products is equal in its entirety to any ever shown in this county, despite the fact that Woodford county has the reputation of taking great in-terest in this department and was sucthe fact that Woodford county cessful in carrying off the premiums at the world's fair display in the Illinois building.
