A vote for Collins is a vote for a painstaking and worthy official.

The court-house gang are getting desperate. They will do anything to win.

Even Mike Harrington admits that Stewart is not a fit man for sheriff, but says he has to elect him.

Why didn't the gentleman who went to Atkinson to investigate the character and standing of John M. Stewart go to Mrs. Stewart for his information? She is better acquainted with him than any person.

Jim Harnish was paid the same salary as deputy county clerk that McCarthy, the present chairman of the populist county central committee received. We have failed to see any kick registered by the syndicate sheet as to the salary he received.

The pops are circulating the report that D. C. Harrison has pulled off the ticket. This is false, Mr. Harrison has not pulled off, but will be elected by a big majority. After election Mr. Selah will wish he had moved to Omaha, as he intended doing, before the "gang" promised him the nomination.
