ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Mrs. M. B. Ford, Ruddell's, Ill., suffered for eight years from dyspepsia and chronic constipation and was finally cured by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for all stomach and liver troubles.—Hershiser & Gilligan.

J. A. Perkins, of Antiquity, O., was for thirty years needlessly tortured by physicians for the cure of eczema. He was quickly cured by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve the famous healing salve for pills and skin diseases.—Hershiser & Gilligan.

Mrs. Stark, Pleasant Ridge, O., says, "After two doctors gave up my boy to die, I saved him from croup by using One Minute Cough Cure." It is the quickest and most certain remedy for coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles.—Hershiser & Gilligan.

The following is the list of officers elected for the ensuing term by the Modern Woodmen of America at their regular meeting last Tuesday evening: Bernard McGreevey, V. C.; J. C. Morrow, W. A.; D. H. Cronin, clerk; Henry Zimmerman, banker; R. H. Mills, escort; J. P. Gilligan, physician; B. J. Ryan, Peter Sodersten, watchman; Sam Burge, sentinel.

A Tennessee lady, Mrs. J. W. Towle, of Philadelphia, Tenn., has been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for her baby, who is subject to croup, and says of it: "I find it just as good as you claim it to be. Since I've had your cough remedy, baby has been threatened with croup ever so many times, but I would give him a dose of the remedy and it prevented his having it every time." Hundreds of mothers say the same. Sold by P. C. Corrigan, druggist.

There is no medicine in the world equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the cure of throat and lung diseases. This is a fact that has been proven in numberless cases. Here is a sample of thousands of letters received: "I have tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy while suffering from a severe throat trouble, and found immediate and effective relief. I can unhesitatingly recommend it." EDNA W. WHITTEMORE, Gdltor Grand Rivers, (Ky.) Herald. For sale at P. C. Corrigan's drug store.

The Surprise of All.
Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with the grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottle at P. C. Corrigan's drug store.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate, or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder, and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pains in passing it, or bad effects following the use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention THE FRONTIER and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

TOO MEAN TO LIVE.

A British Fellow Who Did Not Deserve to Have a Wife.

She was a pale, quiet, old woman who did washing for a living, relates the Chicago Times. One day she was paler than usual, and her hands trembled. Her mistress asked her the reason. She said:

"I been thinkin' of a lady I helped to nurse once—out in Colorado 'twas. She was took bad sudden an' they sent for me. The house was only kind of roofed in, an' the rainy season was on them. I set tubs to catch the water, else it would have dripped on her. I'd heard tell about her before I went there, an' him, too."

"She was used to things fine back East. Her folks had warned her not to marry him. When she did, she found out her foolishness. She was too proud to make moan. He was a man o' means, but stingy! Great Jerusalem! Child, the good Lord couldn't never have made him. He hadn't the print of decent fingers on him!"

"Get a doctor!" says I, seeing how bad she was.

"No," he answers cool, it's a useless expense. I've got a book here it do."

"Bimeby the hired girl come to the door."

"What for dinner, sir?" she asked.

"Graham bread and potato balls," he says.

"But the children wants to know if they can have a bit o' ham. There's two hams in the cellar—"

"By no means. Meat is not hygienic for children. But you kin cook one slice—jus' one thick slice—fur me."

"David," begged her weak voice from the bed, "kin I have a cup of tea?"

"Certainly not!" he replies prompt.

"I would affect your heart?"

"Coffee, then?"

"No, indeed! In your nervous condition! I am surprised Idella!"

"Everything was the same way. There wasn't nuthin he thought mightn't injure her but crackers an' water. The children couldn't have but one helpin' at meals. That wasn't a big one. But his plate was plied while a bit would go on it. Fust day she was up I made some rolls. Mighty nice rolls they was, too. She et one. Then the baby cried. She want to tend to it. When she comes back she took up another roll."

"Drop that!" he says.

"Why?"

"He was after swallowin' seven himself in about the time you'd be sryin' Jack Robinson."

"You've been away from the table three minutes an' a half. Do you want to begin eatin' again? You'd ruin your digestion."

"But—I'm hungry, David! An' they're so good—"

"Did you hear me?"

"She looked as if she was goin' to cry. But she put the roll back."

"Dried corn an' crackers for dinner," he says. "I can't be back in time. I'll take my frugal bite down town."

"I followed him to the door."

"She ain't strong. An' a-nursing that big baby. What for her?"

"What's wholesome for the rest," he growls.

"But if she had a bit o' meat—or some chicken broth—"

"He looked at me awful mad."

"D'ye think I'm Vanderbilt?" he asks.

"The letter my grandson brought me over just now? Yea, 'twas from my niece, who lives out there. She's dead—the sweet, starved little creature! An' the children—mostly the baby—(I'm suddin' the clothes clean, main)—don't mind me—is what I am thinkin' about!"
