

THE FRONTIER.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY THE FRONTIER PRINTING COMPANY
D. H. CRONIN, EDITOR.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

For several years we have been publishing notices of entertainments, balls, suppers, resolutions of respect, cards of thanks, etc., gratuitously. We have discovered that this method of doing business does not pay hired help or paper bills and hereafter we will charge for all notices of this character. No person would think of going into a grocery store every week and asking the proprietor to donate them ten or fifteen pounds of sugar, coffee, or other commodity, yet they come to a newspaper office week after week and year after year for free advertising, and they get it and then forget to give the editor even a complimentary ticket, and get angry if he does not buy one.

The advertising space of a newspaper is for sale and upon it the paper has to depend for support and no person or persons ought to expect to receive three or four dollars worth of advertising for a fifteen-cent entertainment and then if the editor attends, on a complimentary ticket—paid for ten times over—they call him a deadhead. In order to obviate this difficulty we have decided to join the ranks of a large number of Nebraska newspapers and charge for such notices and then if we desire to attend the balls, suppers or entertainments to pay our way with the coin of the realm.

Cards of thanks and resolutions of respect are of interest only to those directly interested and properly belong to the paid advertising list where we have placed them. We are always willing and ready to publish them at the prices quoted.

The following rates will be charged: All notices of church or other socials, lectures, etc., which are held for the purpose of raising money and where an admission fee is charged 5 cents per counted line, each insertion; all resolutions of respect and cards of thanks will be charged for at the rate of 5 cents per counted line, with a minimum charge of 50 cents for resolutions and 25 cents for cards of thanks; all obituary poetry 10 cents per counted line. Terms: Cash in advance. No deviation from from these rules.

REPUBLICANS should nominate the ablest man in the party for governor this fall. If we do this we can carry the state easily.

Every citizen of Nebraska should put his shoulder to the wheel and aid the Trans-Mississippi Exposition. It is going to be a great success.

The magnificent buildings on the Exposition grounds is evidence to the observer that it has passed the experimental stage. The Expo. should be the pride of all Nebraskans.

Two herds of Woodbury, Iowa, cattle will be slaughtered on account of the disease of ergotism which has developed. They cannot be cured. The disease is not contagious, but is infectious.—Columbus Journal.

The time has arrived in the history of the republican party in Nebraska when the politician must take a back seat. Chronic office seekers should be ignored. Pick a man from the ranks, make him our standard bearer and we will win.

The meeting of the State Press association held at Lincoln last week was the most successful in the history of the organization, both in point of attendance and sociability. The State Journal staff were untiring in their efforts to entertain the boys, and on Wednesday evening tendered them a complimentary banquet at the Lincoln hotel that was greatly appreciated by the "quill pushers." On Thursday morning, through the courtesy of the Omaha World-Herald and the B. and M. railroad company, the members of the association were taken to Omaha to view the Trans-Mississippi Exposition grounds, after which they were wined and dined at the Paxton hotel. The members of the association returned to their homes Tuesday afternoon, feeling better for the short vacation and with a warmer feeling in their hearts for the citizens of Lincoln and Omaha who entertained them so royally. The next meeting will be held in Omaha.

WHEN William J. Bryan was nominated amid the most favorable circumstances at Chicago nearly two years ago, he stepped immediately upon a platform of pessimism, and proclaimed aloud that the country was in dire straits, which was obviously true, and that he, and he alone, could lead the toiling masses, "the common people," to prosperity, which was obviously false. He stated repeatedly that through no whim of fate, by no turn of fortune's wheel, could the people of the United States enjoy prosperity so long as the gold standard existed in this great land. Upon that theory he rested his reputation as a financier. It was the backbone of his political anatomy; the mainspring of his political machine. That backbone has been fractured; the rusting fragments of that mainspring are exposed to wind and weather. The gold standard is here, yet prosperity, dear, cheerful, companionable prosperity stubbornly refuses to leave the stage and is strictly in performance at all times, yet this prophet, this soloman, this messiah who assumed the responsibility of leading a nation out of the wilderness at the suggestion of none but himself, again comes to the front and proffers his services. Where does he keep his stock of cheek? You are lost in a desert; there is but one right path and you are unable to choose. To make a mistake means death on the burning sands, and, as you falter, two guides appear and each point a different direction; each says, "this way is life, that is death." You are impressed with the truthfulness and capability of one, and follow him to a refuge in a land of plenty. Again you are called upon to choose between the two although this time you are amid plenty. Will you desert the man who carried you out of danger for the man who would have destroyed your life? One is a good guide, the other is not, because when there is but one right path you cannot travel both in safety. Your experience has told you which to trust, and, if you possess the degree of intelligence which is accredited to the American, you will trust the one whom you know to be worthy of trust.—Hastings Record.

Consumption

Will SCOTT'S EMULSION cure consumption? Yes and no. Will it cure every case? No. What cases will it cure then? Those in their earlier stages, especially in young people. We make no exaggerated claims, but we have positive evidence that the early use of

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda in these cases results in a positive cure to a large number. In advanced cases, however, where a cure is impossible, this well-known remedy should be relied upon to prolong life surprisingly.

MONTHLY SUFFERING.

Thousands of women are troubled at monthly intervals with pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides, hips and limbs. But they need not suffer.

These pains are symptoms of dangerous derangements that can be corrected. The menstrual function should operate painlessly.

McElree's Wine of Cardui

makes menstruation painless, and regular. It puts the delicate menstrual organs in condition to do their work properly. And that stops all this pain. Why will any woman suffer month after month when Wine of Cardui will relieve her? It costs $1.00 at the drug store. Why don't you get a bottle to-day?

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. ROZENA LEWIS, of Greenville, Texas, says: "I was troubled at monthly intervals with terrible pains in my head and back, but have been entirely relieved by Wine of Cardui."

The Discovery Saved His Mr. G. Caillouette, druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with lagrippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but was of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Corrigan's drug store.
