battle at Manila between Aguinaldo's insurgents and the American troops in which the insurgents were completely routed with terrible loss. The American losses will agregate about 250 killed and wounded. During the battle the First Nebraska regiment was in the thickest of the fight and have proven themselves thorough soldiers and the bravest of the brave. They have taken an active and aggressive part in every engagement. The first shot was fired by Corporal Greeley, of the First Nebraska, killing one insurgent and wounding another, while they were making an attempt to pass the American picket line after being challenged by him the third time. This shot seemed to be a signal for the Filipinos to open fire which was done from three places simultaneously. supplemented by two seige guns and by advancing their skirmishers. This was responded to by the Americans with a terrible fire, but owing to dark ness they were unable to determine its effect. The second annual meeting of the Holt County Farmers' Institute was held at the court Tuesday and Wednesday and was largely attended notwithstanding the very severe cold weather. A number of very interesting and instructive addresses were given, among the most interesting being one by a Mr Woolcot of the state university on Tuesday, and one by Deputy State Superintendent Beck on Wednesday. These institutes are very beneficial to the farmers and all who were in attendance went away well pleased and benefitted with the program as carried out.

The girl who gives way to a desire to gad about the streets and cultivate the acquaintance of young men and acting the simpering simpleton is laying the foundation for a useless after life, says an exchange. Ten to one after she is married she will develop into a slatterly gossip, if no greater misfortune befalls her. It is the girl of good sound sense the girl that loves home and helps mother that wins the model husband and becomes an ornament to womanhood. The girl that does this and devotes some of her time to reading tries to win the esteem of everybody. while the gadding street ornament wins the admiration of those whose admiration is not worth having.

Sioux City Times, Feb. 8: Henry J. Taylor, counsel for the Credits Commutation company, returned last night from St. Louis, where he and John C, Coombs, of Boston, made arguments in the Pacific Short Line case. John L. Webster, of Omaha, appeared for the Manhattan Trust company. The case was in the United States circuit court of appeals, the court consisting of Judges Sanborn, Thayer and Adams. Judge Adams is a United States district judge, and he took the place of Judge Caldwell, who was disqualified by reason of his having heard the case in a had taken the matter under advisement liniment known as Chamberlain's Pain lower court.
