CONCERT.

[Some verses with a local application] A little dog barked at the big, round moon. That smiled in the evening sky. And the neighbors smote him with rocks and shoon—

But still he continued his rafeul tune And he barked till his throat was dry.

The little dog bounced like a rubber ball, For his anger quite drove him wild; And he said, "I'm a terror although I am small

And I dare you, you impudent fell low, to fall." But the moon only smiled and smiled.

Then the little dog barked at a terrible rate, But he challenged the moon in vain, For as calmly and slow as the workluz of fate

The moon moved along in a manner sedate And smiled at the dog in disdain.

But soon neath a hill that obstructed the West The moon sank out of sight, And it smiled as it slowly dropped under the crest.

But the little dog said, as he lay down to rest, "Well! I scared it away, all right!"

NEIL BRENNAN.

Since Casper Englehaup of this city made known the fact that he had a bible over 300 years old aged books have been discovered all over the state. The latest to be discovered is one at North Loup, Neb., said to have been printed in 1528. Next!

Frank Snoring, clerk in the Weir hotel, was brought before Judge Selah last Saturday, charged with perjury. He waived preliminary examination and was bound over to district court, bond being fixed at $300, in default of which he is now in the county jail.

A petition is being circulated today placing in nomination for the office of mayor C. W. Hagensick. Mr. Hagensick has represented the people of the First ward upon the city council and the experience there gained would be of much benefit to him should he be elected.

Service in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath evening, as usual. After the regular preaching service, the ordinance of the Lord's supper will be observed. Any one desirous of uniting with the church are requested to meet the pastor and session at the church at 7:15.

Mrs. C. S. Handlon, who left here for Portland, in company with her son, Gus, last month after the death of her husband, passed away last Saturday evening. The remains will be brought to this city for interment beside the body of her husband. Mr. Handlon will arrive with the remains tomorrow night.

We see by the daily papers the past few days that it is the intention of the government to have all the volunteer soldiers now in Cuba on American soil by April 1. This will be cheering news to the members of company M, who we believe, would be glad to be able to inhale the pure air of Holt county once again.

Butte Gazette: Married, by Judge Graves, Thursday, March 16th. Mr. Frank Cornick, of Butte, to Miss Gertrude Fort, of Stuart. The Gazette extends congratulations to the young couple and wishes them much happiness and prosperity.

The many O'Neill friends of the bride will wish her much happiness and joy on the matrimonial sea.

The Sullivan Mercantile Company are wholesale agents for barrel salt, flour, chop feed, bran, shorts. We have secured the agencies for the above goods from the largest manufacturers in the country and we will sell at wholesale prices for spot cash. We will save you money if you buy at the SULLIVAN MERCANTILE CO.

Ed. Tremaine, who has been employed by Maylon Price for the past two years has resigned his position and will open up a shop for himself in the building formerly occupied by M. F. Kirwan. Ed has been a resident of O'Neill a little over two years and has made many friends here who will wish him success in his business undertaking.

Dr. C. V. Crooks, the well-known specialist of Fremont, will be in O'Neill on Wednesday evening, March 29, until Friday evening, March 31, for two days only. Dr. Crooks successfully treats all diseases of the nerves, diseases of women and chronic ailments. Piles positively cured without the use of the knife. Consultation free. 3712

E. S. Eves took charge of the Independent last Saturday. Mr. Eves will move his family to O'Neill as soon as he can dispose of the Plain Dealer at Atkinson. We understand Clyde King will be local editor until Mr. Eves becomes a permanent resident of O'Neill. THE FRONTIER welcomes Mr. Eves to the O'Neill journalistic field and hopes that our relations will be pleasant.

The Sullivan Mercantile Company are the only wholesale dealers in flour, chop feed, bran and barrel salt in the city. You must buy of us if you want to get goods at wholesale prices and the spot cash must accompany each order. We will sell the above goods for cash only. We are the only wholesale agents in the city. SULLIVAN MERCANTILE CO.

It is a matter of general interest to know what constitutes a carload of different material. It takes 99 barrels of salt, 99 of flour, 60 of whiskey, 200 sacks of flour, 10 cords of wood, 18 to 20 head of cattle, 50 to 65 hogs, 80 to 100 sheep, 9,000 feet of boards, 17,000 feet of siding, 13,000 feet of flooring, 44,000 shingles, one half less of joists, scantling or other timbers, 340 bushels of corn, 400 of wheat, 580 of oats, 420 of flax seed, 260 of apples, 340 of Irish potatoes and 1,000 of bran.

John G. Woolley delivered an address upon temperance at the court house last Friday night. Although the night was very stormy a packed house greeted him and he entertained them for about two hours in a very able manner. Although not an orator he is a very pleasing speaker and done ample justice to his subject. He was introduced by Mrs. Jeanette Taylor in a few well chosen words.

A grand ball will be given at the rink, April 6. The Royal Neighbors intend making this one of the most enjoyable evenings ever spent in O'Neill. The best of music will be procured and we expect every Woodman to attend and enjoy themselves with us on that night. All are cordially invited to attend. A good supper.

By ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

W. P. O'Brien, who for several years was in the general merchandise business at Atkinson and recently in the same business in Iowa, has returned to Holt county and is now located on a ranch in Saratoga precinct and expects hereafter to remain a resident of old Holt. THE FRONTIER welcomes Will back to "God's Country" and hopes that prosperity will never cease to shine upon his domicile.

James Donovan, of Great Falls, Kas., deeded to J. J. Case, of Houghton, Mich., for a consideration of $1,734.52 a one-half interest in the Omaha quartz lode, 1/3 interest in the Hagerty lode and a 1/3 interest in the Owl No. 2 lode in the Warm Springs unorganized mining district.

The above clipping is from a Montana paper. The mines mentioned, the "Omaha" and the "Hagerty," were located by H. C. McEvony, for many years sheriff of this county. The former was named in honor of Nebraska's metropolitan city and the latter in honor of Patrick Hagerty, cashier of the Elkhorn Valley bank. Hank evidently wanted to imagine himself in old Holt although many miles away.

A herd of swine while meandering along on the sidewalk on the east side of Main street Sunday were suddenly surprised by the deep and stentorian voice of our chief of police, notifying them to clear the walk. The aforesaid swine did their best to save themselves from arrest and dodged the eagle eye of the said officer by jumping through the minus boards in the afore mentioned walk. The chief thus seeing himself baffled in making arrest of the herd immediately betook himself to the nearest place of worship where he partook of the ceremony and emerged forth, not in sack cloth and ashes, but vowing vengeance on the swine and the boards which were not in the sidewalk.

"The best is none too good," and this is particularly true of bicycles, and now that the "best" can be bought at such reasonable figures it is a waste of money to buy cheap wheels. Every maker, every dealer, and every rider of wheels knows that the "Columbia" is the best. It has no equal and the price now is only $50.00. The "Hartford" made by the same company is positively as good as any wheel in America except the Columbia, only, and you can buy them for $35.00. We have a limited number of '98 Hartfords, that are as good in every way as the '99 wheels and they will be sold as long as they last at $28.00. This is certainly the best bargain now offered by anybody, not excepting those who offer to sell you wheels at wholesale prices. We have samples of all the above now on hand and will be pleased to show them to you. J. P. MANN.

Joseph Weir, who was up before Judge Kinkaid last Thursday morning charged with attempting to bribe one J. Dowd, a juror, in the case of Barrett vs. Robinson was, given a hearing last Friday. Bailiff Edkins testified that Weir said there was $10.00 in it for him if he would influence his son-in-law, of whom he had two on the jury, to keep a verdict adverse to Barrett from being rendered. Mr. Weir denied the allegation and testified that Edkins had proposed to him that if there was anything in it he could influence his son-in-law, and referred to Frank Snoring, a clerk in the hotel for confirmation of his statements. The case was then continued until Saturday morning when Weir and Snoring were examined but their testimony was so conflicting and the prosecution so strong that Judge Kinkaid decided he was guilty and sentenced him to twenty days in the county days jail, where he now is.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.
St. Patrick's day in O'Neill was celebrated in a becoming manner, creditable alike to the memory of Ireland's patron saint, and the people of this city. The green flag floated to the breeze by the side of the stars and stripes, emblematic of the love between two countries who have always been allies in peace, auxiliaries in war. The services at St. Patrick's Catholic church was attended by a large audience, who listened with rapt attention to the Rev. _____, of Creighton college, Omaha, who eloquently and learnedly told of the sufferings and trials of St. Patrick; how he succeeded into the fold of Christ a pagan people. Not as many suppose an ignorant, vicious race, but a learned and intelligent people, who were competent to properly diagnose and dissect all possible subjects and theories advanced to them by the apostle of christianity.

St. Patrick's last words were as he lay lying upon his bed was that the people of Ireland would always remain faithful to the church, regardless of persecution. How truthful his words were, is fully exemplified as the Irish people, like the rock of Gibraltar, stands supremely unshaken in their faith, purity and loyalty to all the teachings of Christ and his church, instilled into the hearts of their ancestors over sixteen hundred years ago.

Immediately preceding the last mass a beautiful and costly statue of St. Patrick was blessed and presented to the congregation, the same being the gift of Mr. Neil Brennan, who deserves the thanks of the people of the parish for the splendid gift.

TEACHERS' MEETING.

At two o'clock Saturday afternoon in the high school room will be held the regular monthly teachers' meeting.

There will be the usual lesson in psychology with Mr. Whelan as leader, followed by the study of the drama, "Othello, the Moor of Venice," under the direction of Miss Lowrie.

The lessons and discussions are sources of interest and profit. The attendance of visitors has been good, but some of the teachers are neglecting their interests in not availing themselves of these meetings designed more especially for them.

L. E. SHUMATE, President.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by P. C. Corrigan, druggist.

Everything goes at Leeper's sale.
