Dr. Trueblood has about completed a fine new addition to his residence.

Joe Mann and Con Coffey were over from Spencer Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Finnegan of Chadron is visiting in the city, the guest of Miss O'Donnell.

Will buy good baled hay on cars at O'Neill.—W. P. Keefe, Sioux City, Ia.

Pat McNichols has moved from his homestead to the Green place near town.

Irene Sutherland of Tekamah, a sister of Mrs. James Stout, is visiting in the city.

Rapha King was out with gun and dog Tuesday and bagged a sand hill crane.

The lighting plant is in operation day and night thawing out the water works.

Miss Maude Hamilton returned to Stuart Saturday after a week's stay in the city.

Jake and William Binkerd departed Wednesday for Utah, where they expect to locate.

Judge Selah issued marriage license Monday to Mr. T. E. Shobe and Miss Theresa Nilson, both of Ewing.

Representative John Carton was on our streets yesterday, having returned from Lincoln Tuesday evening.

John Plessell made final proof before the O'Neill land office Tuesday on his homestead fourteen miles north.

For teeth and photos, go to Dr. Corbett's parlors 23rd to 30th, of each month. Photographs $1 a dozen. 30tf

J. A. Donahue, who has been attending school at Fremont the past six months, is back preparing for farming.

Z. Warner of Atkinson was in the city last Saturday and had his name enrolled upon The Frontier subscription list.

We want to call attention of the public to the ad of the International Medical Co., of Chicago, Illinois, on last page.

John F. Walker, Page's real estate dealer, was in the city Wednesday and ordered bills of the Frontier for a sale the 15th.

If you are going to paper your house this spring don't fail to see Gilligan and Stout's line of beautiful patterns now on display. 37tf.

Jacon Roberts has leased Sam Howard's lots in the west part of the city and is erecting a dwelling house 16 X24 thereon.

Tuesday a half dozen families with teams stopped in the city. They came from the east and were on their way to Boyd county.

A prairie fire in the vicinity of Ewing did some damage the first of the week. One farmer lost a barn and other out buildings were burned.

Miss Flora Lowrie went to Norfolk yesterday to represent the O'Neill schools at the oratorical contest. Her sister, Miss Anna, accompanied her.

C. W. Moss of the Amelia Creamery company was a pleasant caller at this office this morning. Mr. Moss is supplying Black Hills parties with butter and reports business flourishing. He left an order for job work while in.

Mrs. Thomas Shively of Norfolk visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hershiser, and other relatives here a few days this week and last.

Dr. McDonald and Dr. Blackburn were down from Atkinson yesterday attending a meeting of the pension examining board.

Miss Nora Holland arrived in the city Saturday evening and is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Holland, who reside west of town.

Last Friday Miss Maggie Hurley closed a term of school in the Stillwell district, near Bliss, and is now teaching in the northern part of the county.

Spencer Advocate: Con Coffey went to O'Neill Tuesday to get his sister who will teach the primary department of our school during Miss Spicknall's illness.

Dr. O'Neill visited in the city a few days the first of the week. The doctor is now located at Mapletown, Ia., and enjoys a nice practice. His friends here were pleased to see him.

Mr. Wade, who recently sold his ranch eighteen miles southwest of town, Tuesday evening received a bunch of steers over the Short Line and will dispose of the same in the county.

Scott Hough went to his farm in the south part of the county the first of the week to commence the erection of a new house. He will move his family out as soon as the house is ready.

Ernest Adams came in from the east part of the county Saturday and remained home over election. Wednesday morning he started for Venus to organize a camp of Woodmen of the World.

Edward Adams, the Page banker, was in the city yesterday and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Adams says business is unusually good in their section and prospects very bright for them becoming better.

Yesterday afternoon personal grievances led Mike Fallon and George Gaughen into a flurry of fists. They encountered down town and battled a few rounds, when separated by the bystanders.

The Easter ball given by the O'Neill band at the opera-house Monday evening was a pleasant social event. About thirty couples participated. Smith's orchestra furnished the music. Hotel Evans served supper.

From the way new wagons, plows and other farm implements are being hauled out of town these blessed days we would judge that our rural friends are flourishing like the green bay tree. The prosperity wave is with us.

J. W. Leeper, who had a public sale last week, is now a firm believer in advertising. He advertised his sale extensively and had one of the largest crowds ever assembled at a public sale in Holt county. Everything brought good prices.

Farmers and villagers who have potatoes frozen in a pit need only to let them alone until the frost is thoroughly out of the ground when the potatoes will be fresh and sound. Potatoes are 45 cents at the present writing and are worth saving.

Police Judge Davidson had some business Tuesday. Monday a quarrel over some personal matters led Pat Redden and J. Younger, a servant at Hotel Evans, to do things they otherwise would not have done. Judge Davidson fined them $5 each and costs.

Mrs. W. J. Dobbs, daughter Bertha and son Nye arrived in the city Saturday evening from Iowa and visited a short time with friends. They join Mr. Dobbs at Atkinson where they will make their home, Mr. Dobbs being interested in the Atkinson and Northern railway.

The volunteer Cuban army is being transported back to the States in every available vessel and mustered out as soon as they strike port. There are now seven regiments on the island, including the one Holt county people are interested in and which expects to sail daily.

One drop of mutton suet applied warm to any sore at night, just before retiring, will soon cause it to disappear; the same for chapped hands or parched lips. Keep the wound clean and put a little suet, melted, on a rag and you will be astonished to see how soon the sore will heal.

Through the kindness of Senator Thurston The Frontier has received a bushel of garden seeds which we will give away to our farmer friends who may call at this office for them. Each package contains six different kinds of seeds done up separately. We will give one package to each person as long as the supply lasts.

Go to Brennan's where you get the best garden seeds found anywhere. I carry the Sioux City seeds which are known everywhere as the best. Also the D. M. Ferry seeds, Rice's seeds, and Rush Park and Co. Independence seeds which are very fine. Neil Brennan. 31tf.

David E. Eisele of Saltillo, Neb., was in the city Monday. Mr. Eisele was a farmer resident of Holt but removed to his present home about three years ago, where he is engaged in the general merchandise business. He still thinks a great deal of old Holt and is considering the advisability of moving back this fall.

H. A. Trowbridge of Page was in the city Saturday. Mr. Trowbridge has been appointed guardian of the minor children of Oliver F. Bradeen, deceased, formerly of this county, who are now in Northwest Territory. We understand he expects to go soon to the territory and settle up the affairs of the family and bring the children to Holt county.

Monday evening some excitement was generated at one of the saloons. Arthur Bachus, an Independent employe, went into the place to get some money changed and as the barkeeper handed out the change John McKinney grabbed a 25-cent piece. This incensed Bachus and a tussle ensued. The latter recovered his coin and the other is said to have got the worst of the fracas.

C. V. Shepler of Kansas City was in the city Friday last. Mr. Shepler represents a firm which publishes a cow brand directory and was looking over the county locating the cattle men. They are getting up a directory for Wyoming, Nebraska and South Dakota. Mr. Shepler paid The Frontier a call and says he will have to use some of our printer's ink to advertise his business.

A weather prognosticator of uncertain reputation gives out that it will be a wet summer in Nebraska this year. The basis for the predictions is found in the large amount of snow that has fallen during the present winter in the Rocky mountains. It is maintained that heavy falls of snow in the mountains in the winter never fails to produce abundance of rain in the territory east the succeeding summer. And so mote it be.

This afternoon The Frontier force commences moving to their new, or old, location. Postmaster Cronin expects his new office outfit in the latter part of the week and will at once put it in shape to move the postoffice. New floors have been laid in the postoffice department of the building and both rooms will be repaired and cleaned. The Frontier will be in the back room as formerly. By Saturday morning we will be ready for business in our new location. Come in.

A case from Stuart occupied Judge Selah's attention Monday. Thomas Steinhauser was brought into court on a peace warrant sworn out on complaint of William Brayton. The trouble brewed at Stuart over a week ago. Steinhauser alleged that Brayton had committed rape upon his wife. The charge was denied and many dire threats were uttered, Steinhauser threatening to the person of Brayton great bodily harm. Judge Selah placed defendant under $200 bonds and the case will come to a head in the district court. About a dozen of Stuart's business men were here at the hearing.

A well filled house greeted the school entertainment at the rink Saturday evening. It was a contest for merit and the students were on their mettle. The high school contested for a gold medal and the representativeness of the O'Neill schools at the North Nebraska oratorical contest to be held before the teachers' association at Norfolk Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. The contestants were: Joe Sullivan, Bessie DeYarman, Kittie Dwyer, Coila Utley, Mike Horiskey, Flora Lowrie, Alice Turner and John Fallon. Flora Lowrie won the prize, with John Fallon second and Kittie Dwyer third. From the grammar rooms were: Anna Dwyer, Lind Trueblood, Mike Sullivan, Mabel Snyder, Nellie Brennan and Agnes Hazerty. Lind Trueblood of Mr. Kelley's room and Nellie Brennan of Mr. Mullen's room were the prize winners and were presented with $5 each. The scholars of our schools conduct themselves in a commendable way at these contests. It is an educational enterprise worthy of substantial encouragement.

EASTER IN THE CHURCHES.
The Easter season was observed by all the churches in the city last Sunday. While the weather was not at all propitious for the occasion the exercises at the different churches were liberally attended.

At the Methodist church the children and young people were given the day and rendered a very pretty program in the forenoon. They had not an elaborate but very beautiful display of potted plants and flowers, among them the universal emblem, the lily. Superintendent Woodruff conducted the exercises. The program consisted of vocal music, recitations and responsive reading. A choir of girls rendered several selections and one selection was sung by a class of little girls. The little folks with their chubby hands and round smiling faces made interesting spectacles as they recited pieces which brought to the thought of the listeners the story of the resurrection. Rev. Hutchinson made a few remarks and a collection followed for the benefit of foreign missions.

A great outpouring of people greeted the Presbyterians, who held their exercises in the evening. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and many were turned away unable to gain admittance. Miss Lowrie superintended the program, which opened with a selection from Smith's orchestra. Rev. E. Grant Hutchinson of the Methodist church offered prayer. The children of the Sunday school came on with their share in the exercises in songs and recitations. All performed their parts well and some were especially praiseworthy. The orchestra rendered several selections during the evening which added much to the merit of the program. A solo sung by Mrs. Minnick was a pleasing feature.

An unusually large congregation attended the Catholic church Sunday morning. The altar was beautifully decorated with flowers appropriate to the occasion. The choir rendered some very choice selections especially prepared for Easter. Easter, like Christmas, is a day when all the world rejoices; the cares and sorrows disappear and everyone appears happy. Voices dispense sweeter music and all things seem aglow with a spirit of love and tenderness. How much happier all would be if the same spirit prevailed every day.

If you like good singing, dancing and good specialties, don't fail to see the Imsons at the opera house, the 10, 11 and 12th. The opening bill will be a cyclone of fun and amusement.

OBITUARY.
Died, at her home in this city on Wednesday morning, April 5, 1899, of old age, Mrs. Thaddeus O'Malley, aged 84 years.

Deceased was born in Cloomkeni Parish, Kilkenny, County Mayo, Ireland. Her maiden name was Nora O'Malley. In February, 1839, sixty years ago she was united in marriage to Thaddeus O'Malley. In 1847 they emigrated to America and settled at Carbonale, Pa. They remained there for thirteen years and then moved to Scranton, Pa., when they came to Holt county where they have since resided. Besides the aged husband, five children are left to mourn her demise, three of whom live in Shields township, M. O'Malley, Mrs. William Menish and Walter O'Malley; the other two are residents of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Anthony Walsh residing at Scranton, and Mrs. Edward O'Connor, at Wilkesbarre. Deceased leaves 33 grandchildren, 24 of whom are residents of Holt county.

Deceased will be sadly missed by her aged husband who has been her constant companion for two score and ten years, and who mourns and refuses to be comforted. Sixty years together, a longer period than is usually allotted to mortals, happy with each other and happier when trying to comfort others. Death is never a welcome visitor, it matters not whether it takes one in the springtime of youth or when the locks, once curly and dark, are silvered with the cares and worries of an active life.

But "dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return" and when the death trumpet sounds all earthly cares and sorrows are o'er and the spirit is wafted to the Giver, there to account for its stewardship.

Mrs. O'Connor, daughter of the deceased, is coming to attend the funeral, which will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Opera-house: coming April 10, Imsons comedians in a jolly program of comedies, high class vadeville numbers. If you like redhot dancing, don't miss it.

You will find a complete stock of mixed paints, white lead, linseed oil and all dry colors at

JOHN A. HARMON
ELECTED MAYOR

Successful ones:
Mayor.....JOHN HARMON
City Clerk.....JAMES F. GALLAGHER
City Treasurer.....BERNARD MCGREEVY
Councilman, First ward.....R. H. JENNESS
Councilman, Second ward.....JACOB PFUND
Councilman, Third ward.....H. M. BRADSTREET, EMIL SNIGGS

The city election returns give John Harmon, a free silver democrat, the majority seat. For several days before election it was claimed that the battle was between Davis and Hagensick, but John came in on the home stretch somewhat to the surprise even of his promoters. Mrs. Jennette Taylor, the prohibition candidate, Saturday withdrew from the race. Her supporters were alleged to have joined the Davis crowd. Some tall rustling was done Monday and Tuesday, and interest grew with the campaign.

Below is the vote:
Mayor—First ward, Davis 23, Harmon 30, Hagensick 23; Second ward, Davis 12, Harmon 40, Hagensick 6; Third ward, Davis 55, Harmon 21, Hagensick 22. Totals—Davis 70, Harmon 91, Hagensick 55.

Clerk—First ward, Barnard 42, Gallagher 34; Second ward, Barnard 21, Gallagher 38; Third ward, Barnard 36, Gallagher 38. Totals—Barnard 99, Gallagher 110.

Treasurer—First ward, McGreevy 47, Walmer 28; Second ward, McGreevy 35, Walmer 19; Third ward, McGreevy 46, Walmer 27. Totals—McGreevy 128, Walmer 74.

Councilman—First ward, Birmingham 30, Jenness 45; Second ward, Jacob Pfund 45; Third ward, Bradstreet 41, Mills 37, Sniggs 40, Zimmerman 36.

A Frontier reporter approached Mayor elect Harmon yesterday evening on the matter of appointments and the policy of the new administration. He said that perhaps some changes would be made in offices under his jurisdiction but he was not yet prepared to make any statements as to the future of the city government, saying that he would first have to familiarize himself with its needs. The saloon license, he said, while he did not know as it would be increased, would not be lowered any. In regard to continuing the electric lights Mr. Harmon said that he thought it would be a backward step to do away with them and so far as he was concerned he wished them continued. However, he would investigate the matter and ascertain the feelings of the citizens, placing their welfare above his own wishes.

Sioux City Times: The board of directors of the Iowa State National bank has created another vice-presidency and elected John McHugh to fill the position. There are no other changes. H. A. Jandt remains the other vice-president. Mr. McHugh for several years was cashier of the State Bank of O'Neill, Neb., and was largely interested in farm lands along the line of the Sioux City, O'Neill and Western railway. He removed last year to Sioux City and became the treasurer for the Iowa Loan and Trust company. He resigned that position to become identified with the Iowa State National bank.

The many friends of Mr. McHugh in this city will be pleased to learn that his financial acumen has been recognized in his new home and that he has been selected to fill one of the most important positions in one of the leading banking institutions in western Iowa and wish him prosperity and success in his new position. The Frontier is always pleased to chronicle the success, political as otherwise, of former O'Neillites and in no case does it gratify us more than in this one. Here's our best wishes, placing their welfare above his own wishes.
