BIG LIN

... is here with the celebrated McCORMICK, first on the ground to pave the way that the timid may follow. Never in the history of this famous machine was she more perfect or presented a more splendid appearance for beauty and strength. The many hundreds now in use in this immediate territory is sufficient guarantee that they are the best, and only reliable machine for the careful buyer to invest in. McCormick has also placed on the market a Queen of Hay Rakes which will be a credit as a companion to their mower, which is the acknowledged leader in the hay field.

We have also added to our list of world beaters in the machinery line the famous Aultman & Taylor Thresher, which, with the renowned Moline Plow goods, consisting of riding and walking plows, cultivators, harrows, listers, corn-planters—in fact everything used on the farm—we stand easily at the top and hold this position undisputed. In wagons we have the celebrated Fish Bros. wagon, made at Racine, Wis. All other wagons bearing the Fish name are frauds and not reliable

The Blue Ribbon buggies are the best and only reliable that it pays to purchase.

The Nichols-Shepard Separator

The essential points in a Separator are capacity, thoroughness of separation, and simplicity and durability of construction. On each of these points the Nichols-Shepard Separator has great advantage over all other threshing machines. Any one of the nine sizes will thresh more and save more grain than the corresponding size of any other separator. The Nichols-Shepard Separator is as strongly, simply, yet perfectly made as a separator can be. The work of separation is done without the aid of pickers, raddles, forks, or other complicated parts that in other machines cause continual bother and expense by breaking or wearing out.

Write for large free catalogues that pictures and explains every part of the Nichols-Shepard Separator and the Nichols-Shepard TRACTION ENGINE, NICHOLS & SHEPARD CO., Battle Creek, Mich.

Retribution Which Overtook a Heartless Editor.

Skimper had a novel newspaper experience in Frontierville. He landed in there with his outfit in a prairie schooner drawn by four mules. His staff consisted of a shock-headed boy that did everything from sweeping the sanctum, when the accumulation of paper and other things amounted to a blockade, to reporting the local events by word of mouth while Skimper put them into English, says the Detroit Free Press.

The town grew like a mushroom, for it became the center of a big mining boom, and money was plenty. Fortunes were quickly made and it was not long before there sprung up a local aristocracy, based solely on a foundation of riches. Skimper, with the true instincts of democracy, ridiculed this in a new town that had no communication with the outer world except by wagon trains and a pony express. The indignant women raised a crusade against him and it was not long until his advertising patronage dwindled to less than a starvation revenue. Skimper was game and swore that he would sink with his colors flying. He found his chance for sweet revenge just as he realized that he must give up the fight and seek for pastures new. There was a branch of a national female organization in Frontierville, especially popular because of its liberal contributions to the cause. It was invited to the general round-up of the society at St. Louis and concluded to go in a body. Just as this was settled Skimper's paper came out with a page of summer styles, stolen from a paper ten years old. There was a great stir in the town and dressmakers were at a premium. When the Frontiersville delegation marched into the big convention hall, wearing antiquated bonnets, teetering crinolines and full-size bustles, propriety and fraternal feeling combined could not restrain the laughter. As soon as money could accomplish the transformation the styles of the visitors were brought up to date, but Skimper was never forgiven and he took retreat in a little town as far east as the Atlantic ocean would permit.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for years and always with good results," says Mr. W. B. Cooper, of El Rio, Cal. "For small children we find it especially effective." For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of the Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth, and all that we could do for him did not seem to give him more than temporary relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, not that you need it to advertise your meritorious remedy.—G. M. Law, Keokuk, Iowa. For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Contest Notice.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, O'Neill, Neb., July 6, 1899.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by John H. Simpson Jr., contestant, against Edith M. Bowman, contestee, No. 3261, made August 29, 1888, for northeast quarter section thirty-three, township twenty-five, range eleven, west of the Sixth principal meridian, in which it is alleged that Edith M. Bowman has failed to cultivate the trees planted in said tract the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth years of said entry; that there never was a fire guard around the trees planted the second and third years of said entry; and that they have all been destroyed by prairie fire and stock; that there are not now to exceed 500 small trees on said tract alive; that said entryman has not complied with the timber culture laws, and these facts now exist. Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegations before the register and receiver at the United States Land office in O'Neill, Nebraska, at 10 o'clock a. m. on 9th day of August, 1899.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit filed July 6, 1899, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that the same be given by due and proper publication.
