Bowles, formerly of Duquesne College, Pittsburg, Pa., and recently professor in history in Nebraska Wesleyan University, Lincoln, has been secured by the trustees to put the Plain-view Normal in effective running condition. The move is not a temporary venture, for the Dr. has been guaranteed sufficient money by the Board to accomplish the object. The fall term will open Sept. 11. Send for information. 10-2 Just how many divorces have been brought about by the failure of the man to get up and light the fire, only the records of the court will show, but there is a Georgia man who has apparently solved a correct plan to overcome this evil, by devising a lighting attachment for alarm clocks. With an invention of this character in the house, the husband can prepare his fire at night and set the alarm clock, say for seven o'clock the next morning. When the hour of seven rolls around, a spring actuated match-holder is caused to ignite a match and start the fire and the pot boiling. Whether some one will go a step further and prepare the coffee and meals over night, so that all the wife will have to do will be to set the table, is as yet a question. No fair-minded woman would object to that service.

Golden received a message Monday morning from his son, Parnell, stating that he had passed the mental examination preparatory to his entering the naval academy, but that he had failed on the physical examination on account of some slight defect. The physical defect being so slight, Parnell's many friends hope that the examining board will waive that point and allow him to enter the academy. A Wonderful Cure of Diarrhoea. A Prominent Virginia Editor had almost given up, but was brought back to perfect health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Read his editorial from the Times, Hillside, Va. I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. Mr. Lukens was a member of Company M, in the Spanish-American war, and met many of his old comrades while in town who extended congratulations. The rape case has been occupying the attention of the district court the past week. Saturday the defendants filed a motion for a change of venue alleging they could not secure a fair and impartial trial in this county, presenting several affidavits in support of their petition. The state protested against the change of venue being granted, on the grounds that a fair trial could be had in this county and presented numerous affidavits to that effect. Judge Kinkaid refused the petition of the defendants. Judge Kinkaid being called to Virginia on account of the death of his sister court was adjourned Tuesday morning until Wednesday when it was presided over by Judge Westover. The defendants filed a motion for a continuance until the regular term of court in November which was overruled by the court and the trial set for next Tuesday. Some one asks the Frontier, "What is Kissing?" and then goes on to tell all about it himself, in this way: "Kissing is by nature a gift. A gift is a present. A present is a token of respect, love, etc. When you wish to kiss a young lady, just find a nice seat, (single preferred) then muster up your courage to about sixty degrees above your heart. But first of all, get a girl, (white, or black will do if it is dark) and then go through the above program. You will probably be coaxed to vote for the "Democratic" party or to sing with "Ignatius Donnelly" but it doesn't matter, "it is only a promise." Put your arm around her plum and pudding neck, draw her strawberry jam face, to your alabaster lips, and—wait a minute. Look into her divine features. Don't open your mouth as though you were going to swallow her, but lay her head on your protective arm, gaze into the unexplorable, part her lips lightly and then—wait a minute. Screw your courage up to the last test or notch and then smack her. Where? Well, any place on her head from her chin, up. How does it feel? "Aw Hush." Requiescat in Pace. Died, at Stafford, Neb., Thursday, Sept. 7, 1899, Patrick McGrane, aged 72 years, 5 months and 21 days. Mr. McGrane was a native of Dublin, Ireland, and emigrated to Quincy, Mass., while a young man. In 1879 Mr. McGrane and family moved to Nebraska and settled near where Inman now is, and has resided there since, except a few years spent in Illinois. The remains were laid to rest in Calvary Cemetery Saturday, followed by a large concourse of friends of the deceased. He leaves a wife, five sons and two daughters to mourn his loss. He was an honest, upright, God fearing citizen, highly respected by all who knew him. Card of Thanks.
