AGE LIMIT OF GREAT MEN.

Out of 77 Men of Genius Less Than Half Attained 70.

A great man does not always attain a ripe old age; in fact, hardly half of the greatest men of modern and ancient times have reached that limit of age set by the Bible—70. Among statesmen Mirabeau was 42, Pitt 47, Caesar 55, Richelieu 57, Cromwell 59, Washington 67, Charlemagne 71, Frederick the Great 74, Disraeli 75, Augustus 76, Bismarck 83, Talleyrand 84. Of great conquerors, Alexander the Great died at 32, Napoleon at 51, Hannibal at 63, Themistocles at 65, Marius at 71, Marlborough at 72, Tilly at 72, Blucher at 76, Barnardotte at 80, Wellington at 83, Xenophon at 86, Moltke at 91. The age at death of philosophers was, Spinoza 44, Descartes 53, Hegel 61, Aristotle 62, Socrates 68, Leibnitz 70, Linnaeus 70, Copernicus 70, Galileo 78, Kant 79, Plato 82, Newton 84, Humboldt 89. The longevity of great writers and poets is as follows: Byron 36, Schiller 45, Mollere 51, Virgil 51, Shakespeare 52, Dante 56, Dickens 57, Horace 57, Racine 59, Scott 61, Milton 65, Cervantes 68, Aeschylus 69, Rabelais 70, Petrarch 70, Euripides 74, Corneille 78, Victor Hugo 83, Goethe 83, Voltaire 84, Sophocles 90. To printers death came at the ages stated: Raphael 37, Correggio 40, Van Dyck 42, Holbein 57, Valesquez 61, Rembrandt 63, Rubens 61, Michaelangelo 59, Titian 90. Musicians died at these ages: Schubert 31, Mozart 35, Mendelssohn 38, Chopin 39, Weber 39, Schumann 41, Beethoven 56, Bach 65, Palestrina 70, Spohr 75, Handel 75, Haydn 77. And four great religious leaders died at these ages: Calvin at 54, Mahomet at 62, Luther at 66, Confucius at 71.

Many of the blotches, pimples and other affections of the skin are caused by the failure of the liver and kidneys to cast off impurities, which remain in the system. Herbine will stimulate the liver and kidneys, and cleanse the system of all impurities. Price, 50 cents. P. C. Corrigan.

Alaska Growing Warmer.

Prospective visitors and gold-seekers in the Klondike region may extract some comfort from the discovery, made by the Harriman Alaska expedition, that most of the glaciers which abound in that territory are receding. The fact is an indication that the average weather there is growing warmer. If it were growing colder the glaciers would be advancing, while if it were about the same year with another they would maintain the same general position, neither creeping nearer to the sea nor melting away from their terminal moraines. The rate of glacial recession is so slow, however, that fur overcoats and warm sleeping-bags are likely to remain as a part of the necessary equipment of Alaskan travel for some years to come. Nothing, it may be added, is slower than the movement of a glacier, except the settlement of the Alaskan boundary dispute.

Herbine should be used to enrich and purify the blood; it cures all forms of blood disorders, is especially useful in fevers, skin eruptions, boils, pimples, blackheads, scrofula, salt rheum and every form of blood impurity; it is a safe and effectual cure. Price 50 cents. P. C. Corrigan.

Kipling to Julia Marlowe.
Rudyard Kipling sent as a Christmas present to Julia Marlowe a copy of his latest book, "The Day's Work," with this verse in autograph on the flyleaf:
When skies are gray instead of blue,
With clouds that come to dishearten;
When things go wrong as they sometimes do,
In life's little kindergarten;
I beg you, my child, don't weep and wail,
And don't, don't take to tipping;
But cheer your soul with a little tale
By Neighbor Rudyard Kipling.

"No," said a Walnut street physician, "It is not true that all automobilists suffer from the complaint popularly known as 'wrong-lever mania,' for my practice lies largely among this class of people, and I can say positively that not more than seven out of ten are ever attacked by the disease. It is a thing that comes on them in moments of intense excitement, when a street is overcrowded, when a runaway is making directly for them, or when they are on the point of shooting over a precipice. Then, if ever, wrong-lever mania—a silly name, though the complaint is so new that we haven't yet had time to give it a good Greek or Latin title—then, I say, if ever, they are liable to be attacked. There are generally—I may say always—in an automobile three levers, one to steer with, one to go fast with and the other to stop short. And the victim, the poor sufferer in this deadly crisis, forgets which is which in the matter of levers, decides to guess, and pulls, naturally, the wrong one. That is why, in an acute attack of wrong-lever mania, Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs, at Newport last summer, drove over a stone wall, up a flight of marble steps and through the stained glass windows of the music room of a friend. It is why Alfred Vanderbilt went swiftly in an automobile phaeton down one of the cliffs backward into the sea, and it is why Henry Lehr, in a petroleum T-cart, completely demolished a greenhouse of glass. No, we have not yet found a remedy for the disease."—Philadelphia Record.

HE FOOLED THE SURGEONS.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Johnson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed, but he cured himself with Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world. Surest Pile cure on Earth. 25c a box at P. C. Corrigan's Drug Store.

Killed 256 Rattlesnakes.
The Omaha Bee publishes the following: Mr. Berry and Miss Caldwell, of Sioux City, his niece, were strolling along the river bottom east of the house, through a beautiful natural grove, when all at once they discovered by the warning whirr of hundreds of horny tails that they were in the midst of a congress of rattlesnakes, that seemed to be in session as a committee of the whole for executive business. Mr. Berry happened to have a spade in his hand and with it laid about him vigorously right and left. Miss Caldwell assisted with a club. When the battle was over they counted 256 dead rattlesnakes and half as many blue racers. A great many of the snakes had as high as 14 rattles. They were an extraordinary vicious lot, and instead of attempting to escape came savagely at the intruders and fought doggedly until the last one was exterminated. The rattles, which will fill an ordinary cigar box, they cut off and prize very highly as mementoes of an exceedingly perilous position.

Start the Year Right.

By this we mean that if you are not already a subscriber to the The Nebraska State Journal you should become one at once. The Journal is Nebraska's old reliable. Being published at the state capital it prints more news of interest to Nebraskans than any other paper in the state. Many of its patrons have been subscribers for over a quarter of a century. The Journal has built up a tremendous business by its push and energy and the paper stands at the head of the column. Its daily and Sunday issues not only contain all the current news of the world, but are filled with special features. The Semi-Weekly Journal, which by many is called "the farmers' daily," gives 104 papers a year for $1.00 and is one of the greatest bargains ever offered readers. The year 1900 will be a record-breaker with The Journal, as 1899 has been. Join the army of readers for the coming presidential campaign.

Cordova Wax Candles

Nothing else adds so much to the charm of the drawing room or parlour as the soft, radiant light from CORDOVA Candles. Nothing will contribute more to the artistic success of the dinner, tea or dinner. The best decorative handled for the simplest or the most elaborate function—of cottage or mansion. Made in all colors and the most delicate tints by STANDARD OIL CO. and sold everywhere.

The lady got angry and said "Oh, fudge!" But Miss Maud Muller married the Judge. And they lived in a house built of brown stone. With eight fine children they called their own.

BANKER ROUTS A ROBBER.

J. R. Garrison, Cashier of the bank of Thorntown, Ohio, had been robbed of health by a serious lung trouble until he tried Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption. Then he wrote: "It is the best medicine I ever used for a severe cold or a bad case of lung trouble. I always keep a bottle on hand." Don't suffer with Coughs, Colds, or any Throat, Chest or Lung trouble when you can be cured so easily. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at P. C. Corrigan's Drug Store.

Mexicans to Meet the End of the World.

Several young men belonging to families in Pachuca decided to greet the end of the world announced by Prof. Falb in a royal manner. They therefore hired three flat cars which they adorned with a profusion of Chinese lanterns. The first car was occupied by a splendid piano which was played by Arturo Jimenez; the second car was occupied by an orchestra of well-known amateurs. These cars were followed by a long procession of cyclists with their wheels adorned and all carrying torches. Flowers, confetti and serpentine rained on the merry-makers from the balconies as they passed.—Mexican Herald.

A FIENDISH ATTACK.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Coiller of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain nor sit, in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvellous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 25c at C. P. Corrigan's.
