A LITTLE SMOOTH DETECTIVE WORK

An attachment suit was begun in county court yesterday by E. H. Benedict against A. Montgomery, the attachment involving a team and wagon owned by Montgomery. The case grows out of a failure to pay attorney's fees.

Montgomery lives over in Dakota. Mr. Benedict did some work before the United States land office some time ago for him and he returned to his home without paying the attorney's fee. As the fee was not forthcoming the attorney thought it best to use a little law to secure the satisfaction of his claim.

The other day Montgomery was in O'Neill and Attorney Benedict thought he would secure his fee by attaching the man's team, and accordingly placed the necessary document in Deputy Sheriff Bradstreet's hands and the deputy started on Montgomery's trail. The man was found in a downtown saloon and all that was necessary was to await his move for a departure from the city to locate the whereabouts of the team and wagon. Deputy Sheriff Bradstreet kept an eye on his man. Montgomery apparently had anticipated the design of the attorney on his property if he brought it into town and so left his team in a grove outside the city. But this made no difference to the wily deputy, who was after his scalp, so to speak. When Montgomery left town he was followed by Brad and the property found as above indicated.

The case now rests in county court, where a trial will be had the 25th. Montgomery claims the team belongs to his wife and therefore cannot be held for a debt contracted by him. The wife, who was with him, also claims that she is the owner of the team. Attorney Benedict expects to prove otherwise.

Resolutions.

At a regular meeting of Grattan lodge, No. 14, Independent Workmen of America, held June 1, 1900, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased the Supreme Architect and Ruler of the universe to remove from our midst our late brother, Thomas Campbell; and

Whereas, the intimate relations long held by our deceased brother with the members of this lodge render it proper that we should place on record our appreciation of his services as a fellow Workmen, and his merits as a man; therefore be it

Resolved by Grattan lodge, No. 14, Independent Workmen of America, that while we bow with humble submission the will of the Most High, we do not the less mourn for our brother who has been called from his labor to eternal rest.

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Thomas Campbell this lodge loses a brother who was always active and zealous in his work as a member of the Independent Workmen of America; ever ready to succor the needy and distressed of the fraternity; prompt to advance the interests of the order; devoted to its welfare and prosperity; one who was wise in counsel and fearless in action; an honest and upright man, whose virtues endeared him not only to his brethren of the order, but to his fellow-citizens.

Resolved, That this lodge tender its sympathy to the family and friends of our deceased brother in this sad hour of their affliction.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of this lodge and that a copy of them be sent the family of our deceased brother.

Neil Brennan.
C. W. Hagensick.
G. A. McCutcheon.

Card of Thanks.

The aid, sympathy and tender administration of neighbors and relatives, friends and fraternal brethren was a strong support during the trying and sorrowful days and hours of my husband's sickness and death. I thank each one and especially wish to express appreciation and gratitude to the members of the Independent Workmen.

Mrs. Thomas Campbell.

A surprise party was given Miss Tena Gatz at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gatz, on Tuesday evening, Miss Mary Toohill, who is here from the west visiting, being the leading actor in getting up the affair. Dancing was the principal entertainment and the guests were made to thoroughly enjoy the evening.

Visiting cards just like an engraving, 50c for 50 at The Frontier.

A Little Late.

A broken casting on our press caused The Frontier some delay this week. Through the courtesy of Mr. Eves we are allowed to print on the Independent press.

An Alliance watchmaker repaired a watch for a man named Mathews, the latter failing to pay for it at the time. The watchmaker "dunned" Mathews for the money and the latter hit him on the head with a piece of iron which any way caused his death a few hours later. Alliance is evidently a "hot town".

The prohibitionists of Holt county are hereby called to meet in convention at the court-house in O'Neill on Tuesday, June 12, at 10 o'clock, to elect delegates to the state convention to meet at Lincoln July 10 and to transact any other business that may legally come before the convention.

T. M. Elder, county chairman.

A Madison paper contains the following complimentary notice of an O'Neill boy, Rev. C. W. Lowrie, son of Rev. and Mrs. N. S. Lowrie, who preached the memorial sermon for the old veterans in that city: "The sermon was a masterly one and was delivered with force. The lines usually followed were abandoned and instead comparisons made with other lands during the early struggles, giving their causes and effect and showing the divine providence of God. The veterans were delighted with the sermon."

Last Saturday we attended the Fourth annual meeting of the Elkhorn Valley Editorial Association at Gordon, Gordon is a good town and her citizens an enterprising class. The meeting was well attended, and the papers read and the discussion that followed instructive. The evening program commenced with an entertaining lecture by Dr. A. L. Bixby, of the State Journal, and ended with a sumptuous banquet at the Odd Fellows hall. Valentine was selected as the next meeting place and the following officers elected for the ensuing year: President, H. G. Lyon, Gordon Journal; Vice-president, Dean Effner, Chadron Journal; Secretary-treasurer, I. Rice, Valentine Democrat.

Will Nolckemper of Eagle Mills is the luckiest man in Holt county. The other day his father gave him some money to come to O'Neill and pay a freight bill. The money consisted of a $20 bill and a number of silver dollars, and was wrapped in a paper. When Will went to pay his freight bill he unfolded the paper, rolled out ten silver dollars and, not noticing the twenty, crushed the paper and the bill in his hand and threw it on the floor. When he got home he learned that he had thrown away $20. Coming back to town the next day he found the piece of paper holding within its folds the $20 bill lying beside the railroad track where it had been swept out by the depot boy.

The statement by the Independent last week that Dickson let the Butler disbarment case go by default was just as reliable and near the truth as anything of a political nature that thoroughly unreliable sheet is in the habit of publishing. The case was set for June 5 by Judge Harrington to be tried by Judge Westover. It was known at the time that Westover would be holding court in Boyd county and could not try the case. The disbarment has not gone by default, but by some hocus pocus the bringing to justice of a populist attorney is staved off. The fact that the prosecution was on hand the 5th with the sheriffs of Otoe and Adams counties as witnesses doesn't look like the case was to be allowed to "go by default" As it is, trial will not be had for another month.

A. T. Sinclair, a Boyd county farmer and known by a number of O'Neill citizens, was killed by lightning during the storm of last Wednesday night while on his way to this city with a load of hogs, the tragic accident occurring out in the Eagle creek country. Editor Coombs of Spencer, who returned home from O'Neill Thursday, gives these particulars in the Advocate: "While coming from O'Neill this morning we met a boy who informed us that A. T. Sinclair had been struck and killed by lightning during the storm which occurred about midnight Wednesday, on Eagle creek, near Lid's. He said that when he went to turn out the cattle this morning he noticed the team standing in the road part way up the hill. On going closer he discovered the dead body of a man lying among and partly covered by a load of hogs, in the wagon. Mr. Lid's, Mr. Nolckemper, and Jim Hornbeck were called and unloaded the hogs. The body was then recognized. We arrived about 11 o'clock and viewed the remains. There was a slight wound on the top of the head, and the hair was scorched considerably. There was a small round hole burned through the hat which denoted where the bolt had struck."

EPWORTH LEAGUERS COMING 200 STRONG

A district convention of Epworth Leaguers for the territory comprising what is known as the Neligh district will convene at the Methodist church in this city on Tuesday evening of next week and continue until Thursday evening. Preparations are being made by the Methodist people for a great demonstration. Something like 200 delegates are expected and some of the very best speakers and foremost workers in the League movement will be present. Various subjects of interest to the members of the organization will be taken up and discussed, besides address on matters of interest to all.

Rev. E. A. Schell, D.D., of Chicago, ex-general secretary of the national Epworth League organization, and official head of nearly two millions young people, will be present. No man in the country (except Col. Bryan) in the last three years has spoken to so many and such large audiences as Dr. Schell. He will address the convention here Wednesday evening on the subject, "Aristocracy of Youth."

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer says of Dr. Schell as a speaker: "Rarely do you hear one who has the easy flow of words, the blending of wit and pathos, the attractive personality, the enthralling eloquence of Dr. Schell."

On Thursday evening Ai Saburo Isbida, a Japanese minister, dressed in native costume, will speak to the convention about Japan, her people and religion.

The opening session will be held at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. The topics to be discussed at the convention are:

1. Is the plan of admitting associate members into our leagues conducive of the spiritual life of the chapters?—R. W. Wilcox.

2. In our devotional meetings do we insist as much as we should on a personal testimony from every member as to their religious experience?—Grace Farmer.

3. The social influence of the Epworth League.—Anna Wantlin.

4. Our bodies God's temples.—E. W. Horton.

5. How can the Epworth League encourage our young people to attend the Nebraska Wesleyan university.—Pierce Chapter.

Amusements.—Ethel Brown.

The relation of the Epworth League to the church.—Bessie Snyder.

The social mission of the Epworth League.—Lennie Reynolds.

Ought we to have a north Nebraska Epworth League assembly.—J. B. Priest.

(a) In what way can we increase the utility of the mercy and help department.—Lou French; (b) of the literary department.—Oakdale Chapter.

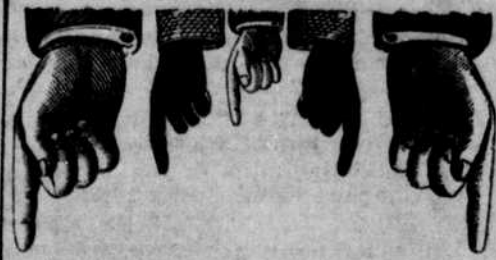

Happenings at general conference of interest to young people.—William Gorst.

If the church of the next generation is after the present spiritual type of the league will it be adapted to the times?—E. T. George.

Music, singing, choruses, etc.—W. A. Rominger, Allen Bishop, A. E. Fowler.

Junior League.—1. A model business meeting.—O'Neill Chapter. 2. How to hold and interest the older members of the Junior League. Lizzie Bowman.

3. How best to preserve order in the devotional meeting of the Junior League.—Neligh chapter. 4. How to keep spiritual interest alive.—Mrs. Allen Bishop.

Fourth of July.

EAR SIR: A new season has begun and we think it likely you will need something in the way of clothing or furnishing goods before long. We are very anxious to show you some special qualities and prices that we think are the best we have ever had in the store. We are positive nothing to compare with them has ever been shown here and we would like you to examine the goods and try on your size in some of the different styles.

A man can go anywhere and buy a suit of clothes, but it is not always so easy to find just what he wants or to get a suit that will wear well, keep its shape, feel right and look well all the time.

We sell the best clothing in the United States, positively the best; not because we say so, but because everybody says so. It is the Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothing you see advertised in the leading magazines. It is worn by good dressers in all large cities. If you paid three times our price and had your clothes made to measure you could not get a better fit. H. S. & M. clothing has a stylish cut and becoming appearance that few merchant tailors can equal.

While we pride ourselves on the quality of everything we sell, yet when it comes to the matter of prices we will not be understood. All we ask is a chance to show you personally what we can do. Come and see us. You are perfectly welcome whether you buy or not. If you are pleased with what you see here we want your trade when you are ready to buy. Hoping to see you in the store, we remain,

Yours very truly,
P. J. McMANUS.
