The public may want to know just what "principle" our high school principal stands for.

A bicycle race against time last Friday created some interest among speed lovers. Will Davis rode three miles against a time limit of nine minutes. He came out fifty-nine seconds ahead, making the three miles in eight minutes and one second. More or less betting was done.

One of the most interesting members of the Sioux Indian delegation at the Paris exposition is the young woman who takes part in the concerts of the Carlyle Indian band. This is Zitkala, or Red Bird. She is probably the most accomplished young Indian woman to be found anywhere.

C. A. Meals departed Tuesday morning for West Point, N. Y., where for the next four years he will pursue the studies of a cadet at the United States military academy. Charley has the qualities to make a mark in the profession and his O'Neill friends wish him the utmost success.

John Olsen has a hand in a sling and is taking a layoff. He ignited some gasoline at Sniggs' blacksmith shop which he thought was kerosene, and the bloomin' stuff blazed up and burned his face and hands. The injuries of the face were slight, but the right hand was quite badly burned.

Neligh Advocate: O'Neill has determined to abandon their pumping station and will depend upon three wells and windmills for their water supply. They are making the change as an economical measure. If the Independent's editorial page is an index to the wind velocity of our sister town they are in no danger of lack of motive power.

A man of fifty odd years in a light spring wagon with a cover, stopped in town over night and started west this morning. He had in charge a young man of eighteen or twenty years who was a pitiable sight. The boy has consumption and is being taken to the mountains. They are from east of Council Bluffs.

O. F. Biglin received a postal card from Father Cassidy. The card was dated May 23 and was written aboard the steamer, within one day's sail of Naples. He said he was enjoying the trip and was in the best of health. He stated they passed the Azore Islands on the 19th and Gibraltar on the 21st, and expected to reach Rome May 26.

Dr. Flynn had an expensive fishing excursion last Sunday. He and some friends drove over to Dry Creek, driving the doctor's horse. They tied the horse to the buggy by the bank of the creek, so that he could graze, and in some manner the horse fell from the embankment into the creek and was drowned. It was a fine horse and is quite a loss to the doctor.

Seward Reporter: A sunrise wedding took place yesterday morning at the M. E. parsonage, Rev. Dr. Gallagher officiating. Wm. E. Frazer of Hyannis, Neb., and Miss Grace M. Beeman of O'Neill, Neb., were the happy parties who were made man and wife. The groom has a sister in this county, a school teacher. He is principal of the Hyannis school, and the bride was also a teacher. They proceeded on a wedding trip to Canada.

Charley Schram sends us $5 on subscription from Chicago, he lately removing to that city from Milwaukee. Charley asks: "How is the old town getting on? I suppose it is the same old place, with a few new faces sprinkled in." In some respects the town has changed materially since you were here, Charley. The resident part you would hardly recognize owing to the improvements since the pioneer days. A good many new faces are "sprinkled in" and hardly more than a score of the early settlers are left. Thanks for your substantial remembrance.

Bran's Iconoclast: "The place to take the true measure of a man is not in the market place or amen corners, nor in the field of fortune, but his own fireside. There he lays aside his mask and you may learn whether he is an ape or an angel, king or cur, hero or humbug. I do not care a copper what the world says of him, whether it crowns him with glory or pelts him with bad eggs. I do not care what his religion may be. If his babies dread his home coming and his better half swallows her heart every time she has to ask for a five dollar bill, he is a fraud of the first water, even though he prays night and day until he shakes the eternal hills. But if the children run to the front gate to meet him and love's own sunshine illuminates the face of his wife when she hears his footsteps, you may take it for granted that he is pure gold, his home is a heaven and a humbug never gets that near to the throne of God. I can forgive much in a fellow mortal who would rather make men weep than women weep; would rather have the hate of the world than the contempt of his wife; would rather call anger to the face of a king, than fear to the face of a child.

Butte Gazette: Judge Kinkaid was in attendance at district court this week, having several important cases to look after. His ability as an attorney is well recognized and while here he was urged to go into quite a number of new cases but was forced to decline on account of pressure of legal business now on hand. Next week he appears in a murder trial at Valentine as counsel for the defense.

In speaking of the progress of work on the academy, the mechanic editor of the esteemed Independent says "the carpenters are beginning work putting in rafters for the basement floor." Now that will be a nice looking building with "rafters" under the floor. The Frontier always supposed the rafters were to support the roof, but maybe those "carpenters" are going to build the academy bottomsides up.

We are told that a young man of Atkinson was out driving the other evening with his most particularly "best" girl. The conversation having turned upon fortune telling, he asked her if she believed in palmistry. She looked up demurely and naively said: "Well, I don't know, but I think I could foretell more pleasure in this drive if I saw the lines in one of your hands". The fellow sat with bowed head and wrinkled brow until at least two miles had been traversed, then an expansive smile illumined his features. He took the lines in one hand—and grasped the situation.

The Holt county prohibition convention was held in the court-house Tuesday. G. H. Candee was chairman and Mrs. Elder of Atkinson clerk. Delegates from different parts of the county were present. Nine delegates to the state convention at Lincoln in July were appointed. Mrs. Jennette Taylor was nominated for county attorney. Rev. Miller of Paddock was authorized to take steps to organize a prohibition party in Boyd county. Nine dollars were raised for the state work and an effort will be made to increase the amount to $25. The convention was not largely attended, but enthusiasm was high.

Atkinson Republican: The Dakotas, Nebraska and Southern railroad company officials have been in Atkinson this week and the preliminary work of taking up right-of-way and laying out stations, is now going on between Spalding and Atkinson and will be completed in about three weeks. By that time the survey between Grand Island and Spalding will be finished, and in about another week right-of-way and stations laid out. At the same time the work will be done from Atkinson north. This shows that the company is pushing the work all along the line with vigor. They have already secured valuable terminal facilities at Grand Island, Neb., and Pierre, South Dakota. The actual work of grading and laying tracks will be well underway sooner than a good many think it will. Success to the enterprising men who are pushing this, and no town or community along the line will receive more benefit from the new railroad than Atkinson.

An exchange says: "A patriarchal business man lay dying in his bed; there was lack of woman's nursing, for his women folks were dead. But his partner sat beside him for an hour—maybe more—while now and then a tear rolled down and splashed upon the floor. The dying merchant saw a tear and shook his head at it, saying, 'Weep not for me brother, I am old enough to quit; but I want to say ere leaving, for my future happiness—judicious advertising is the keystone to success.' His healthy partner turned to him and smoothed his snow white locks, and he said with deep emotion, 'You are mighty right, old son; for the business that we carry I am quite inclined to think we are very much indebted to the use of printers' ink.' The old man winked approval, having nothing more to say, and in less than half a jiffy he had passed from earth away. Now a shaft of pure white marble bears the truth he would impress—'Judicious advertising is the keystone to success.'"

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dickson-Skirving Nuptials.

One of the prettiest home weddings that has taken place in this city for many years was the one at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Skirving, at 8:30 o'clock this morning, when their eldest daughter, Miss Mae, was united in marriage to Mr. R. R. Dickson, Rev. E. T. George of Neligh officiating.

The bride was dressed in a pretty going-away gown of fawn ventian clothe and carried an elaborate bouquet of bride's roses.

The parlor was beautifully decorated with palms, smilax, roses and carnations. The wedding was a private one, only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. After the ceremony the bride and groom received the good wishes of the guests and the wedding breakfast of sumptuous and delicious fare followed.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Skirving, who for two years served as deputy clerk of the district court and in which position she demonstrated that she was possessed of business ability seldom found in the gentler sex. In a social way she has always been a leader among the young people of O'Neill, and by her winsome ways and amiable disposition has proven on many occasions that she has few equals as a social entertainer.

Of the groom, Mr. Dickson, laudatory words from us would be superfluous, as he is known and recognized throughout the state as one of the leading lawyers of north Nebraska. Mr. Dickson served two terms as mayor of O'Neill.

The happy couple, amid a shower of rice, rose leaves and good wishes, boarded the 10 o'clock train and departed for Philadelphia, where they will attend the republican national convention, and from there go on an extended tour through the east. They will be at home at the handsome residence of Mr. Dickson's in this city about August 1.

Mrs. G. C. Hazelet and children and Master Andy Potter are visiting in the city.

O'Neill ball players—the second nine—went to Atkinson Wednesday and engaged in a game. They were victorious by a score of 23 to 3 and claim that Atkinson employed the assistance of grown men. Lee Reed was the hero of the day, making a homerun hit and piling up four scores thereby.

In a private letter to W. T. Evans from his son Ralph it is stated that the Meals-Hazelet mining party in Alaska are making good progress toward the gold fields and they expect to be located and ready for operation by the 1st of July. Summer has opened up, snow all gone and grass is green.

John Kearns is to be married in Chicago to-day and will arrive in O'Neill this evening with his bride for a visit here for a few days before going west on a more extended tour. Mr. Kearns formerly operated what is now the Caldwell sheep ranch northwest of O'Neill.

O'Neill, June 4.—Advertised letters: Miss Ethel E. Moore, Mrs. Lattie Corinck, Miss Canfield, Fred W. Cain, S. L. Hubbard, W. G. Youbert, Will Cave, W. B. Haigh. In calling for foregoing say "advertised." If not called for in two weeks will be sent to dead letter office.—D. H. Cronin, postmaster.

As we open our note book the following excerpt from the Dodge Criterion falls to the table: "About three weeks ago we sent out statements to delinquent subscribers to the amount of $125. We feel very much elated over the returns, $2.50 having showed up to date. Thanks."

A New Method.

For years dentists have been experimenting so that they would be able to fill aching teeth without first treating them for several days, even weeks, causing the sufferer to make several visits before relief could be had, and the teeth filled.

At the state dental meeting in Omaha last month, Dr. Corbett of Madison gave an exhibition, having been successful in making the long sought discovery. A doctor present having a very painful tooth allowed the operation to be made on him. It was a great success. The nerve was taken out, causing no pain, and the tooth successfully filled at one sitting to the great relief of the sufferer. The dentists present at the convention were enthusiastic over the demonstration. Dr. Corbett uses this system in his daily practice. 50-1

On the 9th inst. complaint of larceny was filed in county court by C. W. Hagensick against Michael Tierney. The complaint charges that Tierney took from Hagensick's blacksmith shop a wagon wheel, tires, buggy and wagon spokes, an account book and a number of tools. Tierney was summoned into court by Sheriff Stewart and by agreement of both parties Judge Selah set the day of trial on June 19, taking recognition of defendant with bond at $100 and B. W. Cooper as surety.

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times Its Price

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Liverlyman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by Corrigan.

CITY PUMP TEST RESULTS O. K.

A test of one of the wells and mills just completed for the city by Mills & Farmer is being made today. Everything works satisfactorily. A flow of twenty-two gallons per minute is obtained from the well with an ordinary wind. The test thus far has been unable to lower the water supply in the well to a less depth than twenty feet. Hence there is abundance of water.

The well on the hill is completed and the pump will be ready for operation in a few days. One more well will complete the system and the use of the engine will be dispensed with.

Fourth of July.

EAR SIR: A new season has begun and we think it likely you will need something in the way of clothing or furnishing goods before long. We are very anxious to show you some special qualities and prices that we think are the best we have ever had in the store. We are positive nothing to compare with them has ever been shown here and we would like you to examine the goods and try on your size in some of the different styles.

A man can go anywhere and buy a suit of clothes, but it is not always so easy to find just what he wants or to get a suit that will wear well, keep its shape, feel right and look well all the time.

We sell the best clothing in the United States, positively the best; not because we say so, but because everybody says so. It is the Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothing you see advertised in the leading magazines. It is worn by good dressers in all large cities. If you paid three times our price and had your clothes made to measure you could not get a better fit. H. S. & M. clothing has a stylish cut and becoming appearance that few merchant tailors can equal.

While we pride ourselves on the quality of everything we sell, yet when it comes to the matter of prices we will not be understood. All we ask is a chance to show you personally what we can do. Come and see us. You are perfectly welcome whether you buy or not. If you are pleased with what you see here we want your trade when you are ready to buy. Hoping to see you in the store, we remain, Yours very truly, P. J. McMANUS.
