A Whistling People.

The natives of Gomera, one of the Canary Isles, converse with one another by whistling on their fingers. It is possible to understand a message a mile off. Each syllable of a word has its own peculiar sound. Gomera is cut up by a number of deep gorges, which are not bridged over, and as it would otherwise be impossible for the inhabitants on separate sides of a glen to talk to one another without going a long way round to meet, they have hit upon the whistling device as the best means of communication.

Happiness depends very much on the condition of the liver and kidneys. The ills of life make but little impression on those who digestion is good. You can regulate your liver and kidneys with Herbine and enjoy health and buoyancy of spirits. Price, 50c.—P. C. Corrigan.

Turk's Reverence for Mother.

The strongest sentiment of the Turk is his reverence for his mother. He always stands in her presence until invited to sit down, a compliment he pays to no one else.

Soda Water a Necessity.

A Concord, N. H., Judge has decided that soda water is one of the necessities of life and may be sold on Sunday.

In anaemia and most women's ailments the digestion is weak, the making of color, flesh and straight out of food, is imperfect so that the patient is weak, wan, nervous and dyspeptic. This condition can be corrected by taking a course of Herbine. Price 50c.—P. C. Corrigan.

Value of the Seedless Orange.

The seedless orange was a freak of nature found in a swamp on the north shore of the Amazon about 1872. Today its cultivation in the United States has revolutionized the orange industry. It has brought the orange yield of California up to 17,000 car loads a year and the amount of money invested directly and indirectly in it is over $100,000,000.

Corn-buskers' sprained wrists, barbed wire cuts, burns, bruises, severe lacerations and external injuries of any kind are promptly and happily cured by applying Ballards Snow Liniment. Price 25 and 50c.—P. C. Corrigan.

Russian Stamps in Finland.

Finnish stamps are no longer officially allowed for foreign correspondence, Russian stamps having been substituted therefor. As a protest the Finnish people have adopted an unofficial stamp, and this they are using instead of the Russian stamp. Of course, it is not recognized as postage, but its use calls attention to this downtrodden people mourning for the loss of their national privileges.

Thousand Tongues.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of Philadelphia, when Dr. King's New Discovery cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. She says: "After all other removed remedies and doctors failed it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed to cure all troubles of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at P. C. Corrigan drug store.

Berlin-Paris Pneumatic Tubes.

Letters dropped into a box in Paris are delivered in Berlin within an hour and a half, and sometimes within 30 minutes. They are whisked through tubes by pneumatic power.

There are thousands of people, suffering untold torture from piles, because of the popular impression that they cannot be cured. Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment will cure them and the patient will remain cured. Price, 50c in bottles Tubes, 75c.—P. C. Corrigan.

RESORTING TO FALSEHOOD

Fusion Campaigners In Their Desperation to Save Poynter Resort to Base Slander.

Charley Towne's Oratory Never Raised the Price of a Bushel of Grain or Pound of Meat.

Omaha, Oct. 15.—In so called temperance districts in the state and among temperance people some of Governor Poynter's friends are trying to make votes for him by telling falsehoods about Charles H. Dietrich, the Republican candidate for governor. When they are talking to these people they tell stories about Dietrich being a saloon man, part owner of a brewery and of making a "saloon campaign." When they speak of Mr. Dietrich to the saloon element they tell them that he is a rank temperance man and is in favor of prohibition. There are 50 different places in the city of Omaha where the minions of Governor Poynter have been and represented that Charles H. Dietrich was not alone a temperance man, but a prohibitionist. They have gone into many saloons of this city and campaigned against Dietrich on the ground that he is a temperance man.

In other communities, among church and temperance people, they have taken just the opposite tact and circulated reports that Dietrich is part owner of a brewery and is in league with the saloon element.

Democrats and Populists, some of them holding office, are going over the state in the temperance districts in the guise of temperance advocates attacking his record and spreading vicious falsehoods about him. It is known that one of the state bank examiners has devoted a great deal of his time to this class of work the last few months. He has kept his identity covered up and has been instrumental, under the pretense of working for the good of the temperance cause, in organizing temperance clubs against Dietrich and in misleading by false statements members of churches and ministers of the gospel.

The statement that Charles H. Dietrich, the Republican candidate for governor, now or at any other time owned an interest in a brewery, saloon or any other establishment where liquor was made or sold, or that he is what is termed a drinking man, is as false and malicious a statement as any one could possibly make. There is not a word of truth in it and it is absolutely false in each and every particular. In the city of Hastings, where Mr. Dietrich has been in business and resided for many years, he is recognized as an exemplary citizen, temperate, industrious and a liberal giver to the churches and to charity. Since this question has been raised it may be appropriate to give the good temperance people some inside history concerning Governor Poynter and the liquor element. The statements herein made can be easily verified. Here they are:

Governor Poynter appointed as colonel on his staff Walter Moise of Omaha. Moise is in the liquor business on Fourteenth street, between Farnam and Douglas, in this city, and owns and controls upwards of 30 saloons in different towns in the state. He sells whisky all over Nebraska, as much if not more than any other liquor dealer in the state. Until about a year ago he was connected with one Jack Norton, alias John Robenstein, in the saloon business in the south half of the building occupied by his wholesale liquor house. Norton is a desperate character and his photograph is in the rogue's gallery in the Harrison street police station at Chicago. The resort run by Moise and Norton was a veritable dive. Moise stood in with the police commission at that time and blackmail was levied on dives, gamblers, thugs and thieves. These desperate characters made Norton's saloon their headquarters and the "licensed" thieves and thugs met there and divided up the plunder. The place became such a resort for bad characters that the authorities finally had to close it. During a city campaign which occurred about that time there was a falling out between Moise and some of his "heelers" and the result was that a public circular was issued in which Moise was openly charged with being a bootler and the names of gamblers were given, together with the amount of money they had to pay each week for the privilege of breaking the law. It was even charged that Norton made a deal or demanded $75 per day from two well-known pickpockets for the privilege of robbing the people on street cars during the exposition, he to stop the police from arresting them. This is the Moise who is colonel on Governor Poynter's staff.

Last spring, just before the city election, Governor Poynter came to Omaha and made a deal with the brewers of this city to appoint a police commission that would permit them to run their saloons all night and with back and side doors open on Sunday and the brewers in turn were to give up $1,500 to the Democratic city campaign fund. This deal was made in secret conference. The money was paid and the police commission was appointed, but the whole deal was so fraudulent and unlawful that the supreme court declared the acts of the governor null and void and knocked out the commission appointed by him. Any one who disbelieves these charges has only to consult the docket of the fusion supreme court to ascertain that the commission was appointed and knocked out, and there are any number of people in Omaha who know of the deal between Poynter and the brewers. It is a fact worthy of note, too, that one of the commissioners appointed at that time by Poynter was and is a close and confidential friend of Moise and was and is a gambler on the board of trade. Another of his appointees on the commission was a lawyer whom Judge C. R. Scott of the district court disbarred for attempting to bribe him. Governor Poynter appointed as superintendent of the state fish hatchery at South Bend Adam Sloup, an Omaha saloonkeeper. Sloup still retains his half interest in a saloon at Fourteenth and Williams streets in the city of Omaha. Sloup knew nothing of the fish hatchery business and the property is practically ruined.

The official salaried attorney of the State Liquor League is Matthew Gerling of Plattsmouth, a prominent figure in the state councils of the Democratic party.

One of the fusion regents of the university, elected at the last election, was at the time of his nomination and election the locally retained attorney of a well-known Milwaukee brewing company.

This is only part of Poynter's record on the liquor question. There is no "they say" or "so-and-so told me" about these statements. Some of them are matters of record and all of them can be easily verified.

Reverting to the reports concerning Mr. Dietrich, it may be well to state that there is a G. H. Dietrich in the wholesale liquor business at Crawford and there is a man named Diederich who represents the Krug Brewing company, and it is possible that some people have confused these names and unintentionally done the Republican candidate for governor an injury. But these gentlemen are in no way related and are separate and distinct individuals. While some may have unintentionally confused these names there are fusion campaign workers who know the facts and their confusion is not only intentional, but it is malicious.

If the earnest temperance workers who are members of the Anti-Saloon League think they are helping their cause by supporting Poynter and defeating Dietrich they are very much mistaken.

IS POOR COLLATERAL.

Charles A. Towne has abandoned Minnesota and Michigan, the two states he agreed to deliver to Bryan, and has come to Nebraska to help stem the tide.

It is claimed for Towne that he is a great orator and has a happy faculty of making auditors believe that black is white whenever the occasion requires.

Well, oratory is all right in its place, but it never filled an empty stomach, bought a crust of bread, raised the price of a bushel of grain or a pound of meat, paid off a mortgage, created employment for labor or a market for farm products.

All the oratory from Demosthenes to Towne never provided any one with a day's labor or afforded means of paying a dollar's worth of indebtedness. It is not bankable, you can not check against it, you can not use it as collateral security, it wouldn't even serve to ignite the kindling in the stove to keep yourself and little ones warm. It never put a shingle on a roof, bought a pair of baby shoes or protected one man, woman or child from the cold.

Yes, oratory is all right in its place, but its place is not on the bill of fare when you want to order something for an empty stomach. Like the plumage of the peacock, oratory is intended for a display, but it adds neither value nor worth to anything. It is simply gaudy plumage, nothing more.

There is a wide distinction between oratory and logic. Oratory is the spray of logic. In politics it is often used as a bridge to span wide gaps and chasms in the chain of reason. Orators arouse the ecstatic admiration of their auditors and then, while they are in this hypnotized condition, lead them across these bridges without their knowing it. Though beset with danger, these poor, misguided victims of effulgent loquacity never realize it.

Mr. Towne is more of a hypnotist than a statesman. It is a common thing for hypnotists to make their subjects believe that wrong is right. Under the will of the operator subjects have gone so far as to respond to every suggestion. They have given up valuables because the hypnotist, through the process of telepathy, told them to. When they recover from their spell they realize their mistake. No doubt Mr. Towne now and then finds one here and there where he is speaking who, like the hypnotized subject, swallows all he says as gospel truth. In the face of conclusive evidence to the contrary he permits Mr. Towne to lead him to conclusions manifestly absurd.

Mr. Towne's oratory did not prevent the hard times of 1896. His oratory did not bring the good times of today. This is something for the Nebraska admirers of Towne to think about.

Let the farmers of Nebraska throw Mr. Towne's oratory and the logic of experience into the same scale and weigh them both. Do this before you vote. Remember that Towneism is Bryanism and Bryanism means low prices and hard times. You do not have to be told by Towne or any one else that Bryanism means hard times.

This nation could live forever without oratory, but it would go to pieces in a very short time without statesmanship. One ounce of McKinley statesmanship in the matter of creating new markets for the products of Nebraska farms and employment for American labor is worth a train-load of Towne oratory.

DON'T BE DUPED

There have been placed upon the market several cheap reprints of an obsolete edition of "Webster's Dictionary." They are being offered under various names at a low price

phototype copies of a book of over fifty years ago, which in its day was sold for about $5.00, and which was much superior in paper, print, and binding to these imitations, being then a work of some merit instead of one

Long Since Obsolete.

The supplement of 10,000 so-called "new words," which some of these books are advertised to contain, was compiled by a gentleman who died over forty years ago, and was published before his death. Other minor additions are probably of more or less value.

The Webster's Unabridged Dictionary published by our house is the only meritorious one of that name familiar to this generation. It contains over 3000 pages, with illustrations on nearly every page, and bears our imprint on the title page. It is protected by copyright from cheap imitation.
Valuable as this work is, we have at vast expense published a thoroughly revised successor, known throughout the world as Webster's International Dictionary. As a dictionary lasts a lifetime you should
