Populists deny that the water works in the court-house froze up during Senator Allen's speech last Friday.

"I have been in chilly places before," remarked Senator Allen. Well, probably that was true but it must have been in the dead of winter.

The fusionists have reduced their estimate of Mr. Bryan's Nebraska majority from 15,000 to 8,000. That means that he will lose Nebraska by 10,000.

For the benefit of those who wish to take to the woods The Frontier furthers the announcement that two-horned, cloven-hoofed and spike-tailed Mark Hanna will be at Norfolk tomorrow.

According to a notice in last week's Plain-Dealer, Seth Woods of Atkinson has signed a statement to the effect that he has not forsaken Bryan as reported two weeks ago. The Frontier makes the correction; it is glad to do so; it wants to circulate nothing but facts, and it needs nothing but facts in politics. Moreover, republicans have enough without Mr. Woods.

Samuel Barnard of this city is another old-time democrat who has deserted the Bryan party and come out for McKinley and the flag. During the memorable campaign of 1896, Mr. Bryan had no more enthusiastic follower than Sam. He was honest and sincere in the belief that unless Bryan and free silver came out on top the country would go to Halifax a-lying. Bryan said so, and of course he knew. Well, his man failed to reach the Whitehouse and instead of the ruin and disaster predicted came the full dinner pail and widespread impetus to all kinds and classes of business. Labor was again employed at good wages and everybody is prosperous and happy. "That," says Mr. Barnard, "is enough for me. His prophecies have been unfulfilled while those of the republicans have come true and I am henceforth a republican and shall take special pride and delight in casting my first republican vote for those gallant and patriotic statesmen, William McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt."

An example of the folly of fools comes from Forest Hill, N. J. Sixty of the highest paid men in the world went out on a strike last week to force the big jewelry firm of Tiffany & Co. to recognize the copperplate engravers union in the matter of apprenticeship. The men were being paid $50 to $100 a week each. The firm announced that it would close down that branch of its business rather than conform to the strikers' demands. It would do those men good to be jobless for a while.

Thomas Berry, who lives eighteen miles north of O'Neill, in Paddock township, is one of the Holt county pioneers and has always been an uncompromising democrat, never voting anything else, when a democratic ticket was in sight. In 1896 he worked and voted for the election of W. J. Bryan, but says he cannot do so this fall. He will vote for McKinley and the republican ticket, being convinced that the republican party is the party of prosperity, progress and true Americanism. And there are many others.

The republicans of this county exercised exceptionally good sense in naming the supervisor ticket. In the first district Silas Rohr is a candidate and beyond question no better selection could have been made. Mr. Rohr is a man of business ability and does things by the common sense method. Down in the Seventh district Mr. Grimes is going to be elected by a good majority because of the confidence the people have in him, while in the Third Bob Marsh will thrash young Sullivan out of his boots.

It seems to us that the interests of the republican party could be better served if republicans would quit scrapping over who is going to be the United States senator, put their shoulder to the wheel and work for the success of the state and legislative tickets. After election will be time enough to start on the work of electing senators. This senseless scrapping will not redound to any good and those engaged in it should not be encouraged. Any republican, who is an American citizen and a citizen of Nebraska, has a right to aspire to this office and the heaping of malidictions on a few men because they are aspirants is not a good way to prove republicanism. Let us get through with one election before we start on another.

If any republican tells you that the trust is a good thing, ask him why the republican platform denounces the trust. If a republican says that the trust is a bad thing, ask him why a republican administration allowed more trusts to be organized than were ever organized in all the previous history of the country."

The foregoing is from a speech by Mr. Bryan at Laporte, Ind., September 1. The question of Prof. Gunton's is pertinent in this connection: "Is it possible that Mr. Bryan doesn't know that the administration has no more to do with 'allowing' trusts to organize than it has with allowing the sun to rise?" Trusts are organized under state laws and the national administration has no more authority over them than the humblest citizen. The American people are asked to take Mr. Bryan seriously as a statesman.

It is interesting to watch the ingenuity with which southern people invent disfranchising schemes against the negro. An old but still growing southern sentiment is to exact educational qualifications from the colored men at the polls, reading and writing being a requisite of voting. This would not be a bad arrangement if it effected white and black alike, but it is a manifest injustice to exclude one and include the other. Still it would not be so bad were the negroes granted the privileges of education. But on top of the educational test comes the closing of the school doors to colored children, making education well nigh impossible. New Orleans has recently decided to discontinue all grammar school education for colored children and admit them only to the primary grade. The

BRYAN'S PROSPERITY.

No Demand for an Income Tax in the Democratic National Platform This Year.

Statement of the taxable personal property owned by Hon. W. J. Bryan and by him listed for taxation for the years 1893 to 1900, as shown by the records of Lancaster county:

Under Democratic Administration.		Under Republican Administration
YEAR	ASSESSED VALUE	YEAR	ASSESSED VALUE
1893	$280 00	1897	$1,485 00
1894	200 00	1898	2,980 00
1895	340 00	1899	2,980 00
1896	270 00	1900	4,560 00

State of Nebraska, Lancaster County, ss.

I, D. A. Frye, county clerk of Lancaster county, Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct statement of the personal property listed for taxation by W. J. Bryan, and of the assessed valuation thereof as appears by the returns of the assessors of the Fifth ward of the city of Lincoln, in said county, for the years above enumerated, viz.: 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897, 1898, 1899 and 1900.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said county this 22d day of September, 1900.
(Seal) D. A. FRYE, County Clerk.

southern idea, in the abstract, amounts to, first, an educational test for colored people, and second, restriction of education so that they shall never be able to meet that test. This is certainly discouraging to the negro, but the south cannot permanently adjust the colored question in any such unfair and unjust manner.

L. C. Chapman, republican candidate for county attorney, is pledged to discontinue the tax lien foreclosures if elected unless otherwise ordered by the board. Art Mullen, populist candidate for county attorney, is planning on entering into a wholesale business of tax lien foreclosures. This is a matter of interest to the taxpayers of Holt county for the reason that if Mr. Mullen's scheme is carried out endless bills of expense will be piled up against the county. The county is not going to lose any tax money on land that is any good and that which is no good will never be paid if ten thousand foreclosures are instituted. Each sale entails a big bill of expense, which in many cases must come out of the county instead of the individual or corporation land owner. Holt county voters should guard their interests by setting down on Mr. Mullen at the polls.

Poisoning Fish with Cocaine.
Large numbers of fish are being poisoned in the Little Miami river, Ohio, especially in the vicinity of Branch Hill and Remington. Members of the different camping clubs in this section have found fine fish which had succumbed to "dope balls" used by "pot fishermen." Parties have been on the lookout for the men and the other evening a member of the Corryville club, which is camped near Remington, saw a man planting the bait. He escaped, however. Some of the bait was secured. It consisted of corn meal mixed into a pellet and saturated with cocaine. This stupefies the fish and they come to the surface. As a general thing they die from the effects of the drug.

Robbed The Grave.
A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. The I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c. guaranteed, at P. C. Corrigan drug store.

Drift to the Cities.
The Chicago Tribune directs attention to the interesting fact that "while the population of the country at large has increased about 20 per cent during the last decade, the three principal centers of population, New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, have gained 44 per cent." The cities will continue to grow so long as they offer employment and livelihood to increasing population. It all turns on employment. When that ceases to increase the growth of the cities will cease, and will not be forced by mere desire on the part of persons in the country to live in the town.—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

An Open Letter

How many who read this are afflicted with constipation, indigestion or stomach trouble of some kind, and the consequent torturing, sick headaches, especially prevalent among women? You have used patent medicines and drugs that have weakened your digestive organs until loss of sleep and a general illhealth is the result. To the many who are thus afflicted I simply want to say that in nearly every instance you can be restored to perfect health and vigor by osteopathy. Consultation and advice will cost you nothing, and if you will call at our office in O'Neill we will gladly make an examination and tell you whether or not you can be cured and about how long it will take.

NOT UNPLEASANT.
Our treatment is not unpleasant or annoying, as many might suppose, and we believe it is the only logical and permanent cure for stomach troubles and the many diseases and ailments arising as a natural result of such trouble.

BE TREATED AT HOME.
We can give you the same attention and treatment in O'Neill, and perhaps better than you could by going to Chicago or some eastern hospital to undergo treatment for the many cases that seem to be amenable only to osteopathy. We do not claim to perform miracles but we do claim to effect permanent and perfect cures in many cases of long standing. Chronic troubles that have been given up as incurable by physicians every where, osteopathy cures where all else fails.

There is absolutely no ailment that a physician of the old school of medicine would undertake to treat, except the surgical, that the osteopathist cannot more successfully treat. While it is only the cases given up as incurable by their physicians that as a general rule are numbered among our first patients, yet how much easier, less expensive and more permanent would be the cure of those suffering from the lesser and acute troubles by the science of osteopathy.

IT COSTS YOU NOTHING.
If you are sick and want to be cured, come and talk with us. If we cannot help you we will frankly tell you so.

WU'S LAUNDRYMAN.
Mistaken by Green Reporter for Legation Attache.

An interesting story is told apropos of a reporter's zeal to obtain news from the Chinese legation in Washington, D. C., regarding affairs in Peking. He was an enterprising young fellow sent by his editor to take the place of the regular Washington correspondent, who was away on his vacation, and he had spent the whole morning in the vicinity of the legation endeavoring to pick up something, not knowing that the most direct way would have been to see Minister Wu himself, who is invariably kind about granting interviews. He was about to abandon his project when an intelligent looking and well dressed Chinaman came down the steps of the legation and responded so pleasantly to his greeting that he bombarded him with a whole list of questions, to which the polite Celestial repeatedly answered: "Dun know, dun know." Finally quite desperate at his inability to make something out of what he looked upon as a rare chance, a walk with one of the legation's secretaries, he asked, appealingly: "Well, surely you know something of the dowager empress; what do you think of her?" "Me no think," responded the Chinaman, "me washee," and with this parting announcement he disappeared into a laundry near by, of which he turned out to be the proprietor.—San Francisco Argonaut.
