George Bradt is one of the old-time Jacksonian democrats who does not believe he could keep house without the old reliable Frontier. He gave us a threeble case Monday to insure the future arrival of best paper in the county.

The poor deluded corporation sheet in the basement was so badly disfigured at the last election that it did not make its appearance until Saturday and then it claimed nearly everything in sight. Poor, deluded Eddie! His is a sad case indeed.

Taken up on my place eight miles northwest of O'Neill, on October 28, 1900, one Hereford bull about one year old owner can have same by proving property, paying damages and expenses. 20-1 pd. G. D. Janzing.

O'Neill sports are figuring on having a grand wolf hunt on Thanksgiving day and a meeting will be held Saturday evening in the old Bryan club room to prepare for the event. All are invited to attend as the hunt promises to be one of the best ever.

Get your Christmas apples while cheap. E. S. Kinch has a car of choice New York apples stored in Pfunds cellar, of the following varieties: Baldwins, Russets, Greenings, Northern sples, King, Seek Nofurther, Spitzensbergs and Bell Flower. 5-w pd.

W. P. Porter, of Ewing, purchased the Matby hotel last Monday, taking possession Tuesday morning. Mr. Matby expects to remain in O'Neill. The Frontier welcomes Mr. Porter to O'Neill and hopes that his dreams of success may be realized.

Attorney M. J. Sweeley, of Sioux City, was in the city Tuesday looking after matters in the district court. Mr. Sweeley is one of northwest Iowa's most prominent attorneys, an ardent republican and was therefore much elated at the outcome of the election in Nebraska.

Miss Grace Adams of Fontanelle, Io., arrived in the city last Sunday and will spend several weeks visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity. Miss Grace is a daughter of E. W. Adams who for many years was a resident of O'Neill leaving this city for Iowa about seven years ago.

Before leaving for school Will Mullen made a small bet with John Weekes on the result in Nebraska, making the writer stakeholder. Saturday we received a letter from Will requesting us to turn over the money to Weekes with best regards. In winding up he says—"Thank the Lord we still have Texas."

Christian E. Ernest, aged 72 years, died at his home northwest of O'Neill last Friday evening. Cause of death, dropsy and heart failure. Mr. Ernest had been a resident of Holt county for several years and was quite well known in O'Neill and vicinity. Notwithstanding his advanced age he was quite active until the malady which caused his death assumed a malignant form about a year ago. Deceased leaves a wife and a large family of grown-up sons and daughters.

FOR SALE—SE 1/4, Sec. 4, township 29, range 12. Good improvements consisting of 40 acres of pasture, good house and out buildings, 120 acres under cultivation. A bargain if taken at once. M. Welsh, 2516, N St. South Omaha Nebraska. 18-4

The Catholic fair held at the rink in this city last week was one of the most successful ever held in the city and speaks volumes for the prosperous condition of the people in this community. The gross receipts amounted to about $1,400. It was very successful and Father Cassidy is much gratified at the result.

B. A. DeYarman received a telegram from McKeesport, Pa. last Sunday evening announcing the death of his brother, James, who was killed in the home-stand steel mills near there last Saturday. The particulars of his death were not learned. Jim had many friends in O'Neill where he was in the livery business for many years who will regret to here of his sudden death.

J. B. Pickering died at the Matby hotel in this city last Saturday night of apoplexy. Deceased was 47 years of age and was apparently enjoying the best of health until a few days before his death when he was taken with apoplexy from which he never recovered. The remains were taken to Dorsey Sunday and interred in the cemetery at that place, his relatives living in that neighborhood.

P. M. Soderstein, who for the past four years has been section boss on the Elkhorn road at this place, has been transferred, at his own request, to Clearwater and left for that place to resume his duties there last week. Pete Soderstein is a good citizen, an honest and upright man and O'Neill people generally regretted to see him leave but wish for him and his estimable family emboldened prosperity and good luck in his new home. The Frontier will follow them and keep them posted on Holt affairs.

Tilden Citizen: Rve. W. A. Roming er's work as pastor of the Methodist church at this place closed with last Sunday's services. He has ample reason to look back at his five years' ministry with satisfaction. To his untiring efforts and persistent, energetic work is to be traced the building of the church—the largest and most costly place of worship in the town. He has invariably attracted large congregations and the membership of his own church has had a steady augmentation in members. He has shown himself to be a sincere laborer in the cause which he has adopted as his life work and commands the wholesome respect of all who have formed his acquaintance. As a citizen he has shown himself to be above reproach, and, to the fullest extent possible has wisely held himself aloof from all dimensions in secular matters which in a village like Tilden, are so fertile of bickerings and ill will. He and his estimable wife have formed friendships here which will doubtless prove lasting and they leave behind them a population which is a unit in wishing them the fullest success in matters and work both spiritual and temporal.

Conrad Grebe came up from Oakdale last Saturday evening to attend the funeral of his old friend and neighbor, C. E. Ernest, who was buried at Slocum last Sunday. Con was one of the organizers of the Holt county farmers Alliance which afterwards claimed to be progenitor of the populist party and was for a time a good-sized stock holder in the Independent, but notwithstanding these things he expressed his gratification in unmistakable terms at the re-election of William McKinley and said he was proud to say that he was assisted toward re election by his vote. There are many like Mr. Grebe who have deserted populism and its ill and who will remain forever and ever outside the pale of that organization. His well-wishes for the success of the Independent.

In order to introduce The Semi-Weekly State Journal to a whole lot of new homes it will be sent free from now until January 1, 1902, to any person sending us One Dollar for a year's subscription. This gives you the paper from now until January 1, 1902, for only One Dollar. The State Journal is the recognized state paper and should be in every home in the state. Printed at the capital it gives more prompt and accurate reports of Nebraska doings than any other paper, and as it gives you two papers each week it furnishes you with the latest news several days ahead of other papers. You will not want to be without The Journal during the legislature and the great senatorial contest. The earlier you send the dollar the more papers you will get for your money. Address, The Journal at Lincoln, Neb.

In the above table of returns the first name in each column is that of the republican candidate, the second column that of the pop or fusionist. It will be seen that the republicans won three of the four districts in which elections were held this fall. In the First district Mr. Rohr made a good race but the odds were to great to overcome.

O'Neill to North Platte.

It seems that the connection of the old Sioux City, O'Neill and Western railroad with the Union Pacific railroad at North Platte, Neb., which the Credits Commutation and Combination Bridge companies fought for during the six years of the Pacific Short Line receiver-ship, which included a costly campaign in congress of the United States, is about to be secured by the Great Northern. The Short Line is owned by J. Kennedy Tod & Company, and operated by the Great Northern as a part of its Wilmar and Sioux Falls. The negotiations for the connection are said to be entirely in the hands of the Union Pacific and Great Northern officials.

The new relations which have been established between the Union Pacific and Great Northern were a condition precedent to taking up the project, but now that arrangement for the alliance has been concluded, the prospect that the extension from O'Neill will be constructed next year is bright. Word from St. Paul today was that the building of the link had been under consideration for more than a week.

Osteopathic Facts.

It is easy to see how disorder of the pelvic organs can make people "sick all over." There again comes in the force of the expression, "Relieve the Pressure."
