J. G. Wendall.
M. T. Elliott, Auctioneer.

McCaffrey Items.

Jesse Roy, who for the past six weeks has been laid up with a broken arm, is rapidly improving and can now be seen driving across the plains of the south country to the postoffice and other points. Will and Mary Morgan attended church at O'Neill Sunday. Edward Jackson and Will Evert of Iowa were doing business in this vicinity Friday. John Harmon and Sam Dietrich of O'Neill passed through here Tuesday. Malloys are hauling hay for the Roy brothers. Em and Walt Roy and James Curra: attended the dance at Terree's Friday last. Joe McCaffrey is hauling corn from his farm near O'Neill. Belle Martin, our obliging school teacher, went to Stuart Friday to participate in the organization of a Rebekah lodge.

Fire Scare.

While the wind was sweeping from the northwest like a hurricane Tuesday, people quietly plodding away in office, shop and home were startled by the fire alarm suddenly clanging out in loud tones. A prairie fire raging furiously north of town had got threateningly close and it was necessary that some action be taken to prevent the fire from getting into town. The fire department and some 200 citizens were soon on the grounds and with the advantages afforded by the fire having several bare places to leap before it could get into town they soon reduced the wild flames to harmless ashes. Owing to the severity of the wind great havoc would have been wrought had the fire got into town.

Dies of Heart Disease.

A special from Atkinson, dated the 14th, says: "The funeral of Mrs. A. O. Perry was held here at 2 o'clock yesterday. The deceased was the wife of A. O. Perry, promoter of the Dakota, Nebraska and Southern railroad, and although she had been a sufferer with heart trouble for years, her death was a shock to her friends and relatives of this place. She was expected home Tuesday from Grandy, Neb., where she was visiting her husband, who has business at that place but instead, a telegram was received telling of her death."

FOR RENT—320 acres of land on Redbiad creek 9 miles northeast of O'Neill; frame house of nine rooms; frame barn, granary, corn-cribs, wagon house and hen house; 115 acres plowed, balance in pasture and natural meadow, all fenced. This is a very desirable place for feeding cattle. Enquire of G. W. Bradt, O'Neill. 27-4

Don't let the hand of time paint wrinkles on your face. Keep young, by keeping the blood pure and the digestive organs in a healthful condition. Herbine will do this. Health is youth, disease and sickness brings old age. Price 50 cents. P. C. Corrigan.

You can help anyone whom you find suffering from inflamed throat, laryngeal trouble, bronchitis, coughs, colds, etc., by advising the use of Ballards horehound syrup; the great remedy for coughs and colds. Price, 25 and 50 cents. At P. C. Corrigan's.

Obituary.

Mr. James Weekes died Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of his daughter Mrs. E. P. Hicks of this city.

Grandpa Weekes, as he was familiarly known, was born in Devonshire, England, December 20, 1815, being a descendant of one of the oldest families of Devonshire. He was married to Charity Palmer in England September 24, 1840. After a marriage union of over sixty years his wife died at Manden, N. D., September 30, 1900, being there on a visit with her sons.

Emigrating to America in 1860 he embarked in business at Waterloo, Io., where he resided until March 17, 1898, when he came to O'Neill on account of failing health. Deceased leaves six children, three sons and three daughters, Mrs. Henry Spadding, of Burford, Ontario, Mrs. Edward Berry, of Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. E. P. Hicks, of this city, James P. Weekes, of Santa Ann, California, and Stephen and John C. Weekes, of Manden, N. D. S. J. and Harry Weekes of this city are grandsons.

To know Grandpa Weekes was to love and honor him and his standing in the community in which he was engaged in business for so many years was second to none, as in all his business affairs of whatsoever nature he was ever guided by those strict rules of probity that made his name a synonym of everything that was upright, straightforward and just.

Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church, this morning at 10 o'clock and was largely attended, interment being in the Protestant cemetery.

The Junior League of the M. E. church will serve dinner and supper at the rink Saturday, January 19, the proceeds to be used for purchasing an organ for the church. Dinner, chicken pie, etc. Waffles with maple syrup for supper.

The first ballot for U. S. senator was taken Tuesday. Judge Kinkaid received five votes. Thompson heads the list then comes Meiklejohn, Currie and Rosewater in the order named. Allen and Thompson got most the pop votes.

I. Baldwin was up from Iaman Wednesday and had bills printed at The Frontier for a sale, particulars of which appear elsewhere. Mr Baldwin also added his name to our subscription list.

The Frontier Libel Suit.

The criminal libel suit brought by Ex-County Attorney Butler against the editor of The Frontier was dismissed by County Attorney Mullen last Friday, the latter informing the court that he had looked the matter up carefully and was convinced that there was no chance for a conviction on the charge, and as the prosecuting attorney of Holt county dismissed the case.

The case was called Thursday at 1:30 in the county court for a preliminary hearing. W. R. Butler prosecuted and R. R. Dickson appeared for the defense. County Attorney Mullen was present but took no part in the case. Butler introduced the assessor's schedule to prove that Cronin was manager of The Frontier. He took the witness stand himself to testify that the signature to the schedule and the handwriting was that of the defendant. He also testified to having seen copies of The Frontier which contained the alleged libelous article in Omaha, Lincoln and Neligh; that in Bassett he had seen a copy of The Frontier but could not testify as to whether it was of that particular date or not. He then introduced a copy of The Frontier dated April 26, 1900. The prosecution then rested. Attorney Dickson moved to dismiss because the publication was privileged, it being judicial proceedings and that in order to have grounds for action against the defendant it was necessary for plaintiff to prove the publication malicious and the statements false. Mr. Dickson presented numerous authorities to sustain his position and argued on the motion at considerable length. Mr. Butler in replying contended that the publication was not privileged, that it was libelous and presented a few authorities. Judge Selah said it would be necessary for him to look up some authorities on the question before ruling on the motion and an adjournment was taken until Friday afternoon at 1:30. When court convened the next day Judge Selah said that while the publication of the allegations in the disbarment proceeding, being court proceedings, was a privileged publication the comments thereon were not such as to make the entire article privileged and therefore overruled the motion to dismiss. The defense then asked that the case be adjourned until the following Monday in order to get witnesses here. It was agreed to and Judge Selah was issuing subpoenas when County Attorney Mullen dismissed the case.

A. O. Perry is in the city today.
