Dr. Blackburn of Atkinson died Monday of pneumonia. The doctor was one of the leading physicians of Holt county, a prominent citizen of Atkinson and had been a more or less influential character in political circles. He had been a member of the pension board for several years.

The Dakota City Eagle says that a woman of that town saw an advertisement in an eastern paper promising dress patterns and a set of dishes in return for a little canvassing and $1.25. She complied with the conditions and last week received two sheets of paper on which were printed three dress patterns and a picture of a set of dishes

The move for better sidewalks spoken of in The Frontier last week has been somewhat retarded by bad weather, although the worst of the walks along the most public streets have already undergone improvements. The board walks in the residential vicinities are giving way to gravel, which will make good places of travel when thoroughly packed.

Edward Adams disposed of his interests at Page and last week moved to Stuart where he takes the management of the Adams Lumber and Grain Co., which Company purchased the stock of Edwards and Bradford Lumber Co. P. J. McManus met with an accident Friday evening last, the result of which is keeping him at home at present. With a lighted match in hand, Pat was examining a barrel which he did not know was loaded. It was a freshly emptied gasoline barrel and the lighted match came in close enough proximity to the bung-hole to cause the gas remaining in the barrel to ignite. A-Pat's face was close to the hole, the flame which shot up caused a bad burn and blew his hat some ten feet into the air.

The latest report from Lincoln on the senatorial fight states that D. E. Thompson of Lincoln was nominated for the short senatorial term, occasioned by the death of Senator Hayward, on the ninth ballot taken in the caucus held Tuesday night. The deadlock now centers on long term choice with E. R. Sewater in the lead with thirty votes, Micklejohn next with fifteen and Currie eight. On the joint ballot Thompson lacked seven votes of election, but opinion is given that he will secure enough votes to elect him.

I have now my own cigar clippings for sale at 10 cents per package, 3 for 25 cents. Clean, pure leaf, no stem, no sweepings. 32-4 O'Neill Cigar Factory.

The issue of the Holt County Independent under the management of the ladies of the Methodist church was a grand success in point of money making. No paper ever issued in O'Neill had as much advertising matter at one time as this issue. Besides using up all of its own type in ads, the Independent completed a large share of the great volume of advertising in The Frontier work shop which is supplied with enough type to see all the ads the business men of Holt county will ever have. The issue reflected credit on the instigators and those that compiled the matter into a paper.

D. J. Cronin returned from South Omaha last Friday evening where he had been attending the great short horn dispersion sale of T. R. Westrope and son. Dan made the trip to purchase a thoroughbred bull for Cronin Bros' herd and he purchased Golden King 153, 918, one of the finest animals ever brought into the state paying $760 for him.

Golden King is a member of the famous Golden Drop family, his four top sires being as good as any ever in America. Young Abbottsburn, grand-sire of Golden King, was champion at the Chicago world's fair and contested at many other fine stock shows but was never defeated. His dam brought $1,400 at this same sale. Dan had him weighed Saturday morning and he tipped the scale at 1,300. He was 2 years old February 8 last. The Frontier is pleased to see this class of cattle brought to the county. That there is money in them was demonstrated at the South Omaha sale. Sweet Violet, a 5-year-old cow sold at $375.

Asault to Kill.

J. J. Schweitzer of Joy was the victim of an assault at his home yesterday morning which came near resulting fatally. Lee and Thomas Morrison came to his house and attacked him with a knife, cutting a deep gash in his throat near the jugular vein. The attack was actuated by some trouble that had arisen between the Morrison boys and Schweitzer over the location of a fence. The Morrisons claimed land that Schweitzer had under fence and the dispute terminated in an attempt upon the life of the latter. Schweitzer came to O'Neill as soon as possible to have his injuries cared for by a physician and related his version of the affair. He swore out warrants for the arrest of the Morrisons and Sheriff Stewart went out yesterday afternoon to serve the same. The complaint charges the defendants with assault with intent to kill and the hearing will be had before County Judge Selah.

While both the Morrisons are included in the arrest, the principle charges are made against Lee, who did the cutting. Mr. Schweitzer says he and his wife were alone when the men came to his house. He was set upon without warning and only by desperate effort succeeded in beating off his assailants. Thomas, he says, fled, but the other drew a gun after slaughting him with the knife, but did not shoot.

Sheriff Stewart arrived in town this morning with Lee Morrison in custody. The sheriff says that Thomas has left the country and that he had considerable difficulty in locating Lee, following him around over the north country for several hours and finally finding him at home. When taken Morrison had already been to the justice of the peace in Rock Falls township and pleaded guilty to assault. He is now in the custody of the sheriff awaiting further movements of the wheels of justice.
