Highest-Salaried Railroad President.
Charles M. Hayes, the new president of the Southern Pacific, held a clerical position twelve years ago. Today he receives $55,000 a year, the largest salary paid to any president of a railroad in the world. He won it principally through his tact in dealing with subordinates and his wisdom in bestowing praise for any work well done.

Negro as Indian Tribe Chief.
The Creek nation numbers 16,000, but of these no less than 6,000 are negroes. They represent the most progressive part of the tribe and are said practically to control its policy. These former slaves are so influential that a man of negro descent was chosen as one of the head chiefs of the tribe. The Choctaws, however, punish with death a marriage with a negro.

Grandnephew of President Madison.
Mr. E. C. Madison, who represents Newport News, Warwick county, Williamsburg, New Kent, Charles City, James City and New York in the Virginia house of delegates, is a grandnephew of President James Madison. He served his political apprenticeship with Tammany Hall in New York.

Welsh Settlement in Russia.
A Welshman named John Hughes has established a colony of his countrymen in southern Russia, where they have begun the manufacture of iron and steel on a large scale. The town has been named Hughesoffka, after its founder, and eighteen ironworks are in operation.
