LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

LEGAL NOTICE.

The unknown heirs of William H. Bice, deceased, non-resident defendants, and the southeast quarter of section ten, township thirty, north of range ten west of the 6th principal meridian in Holt county, Nebraska, will take notice that on the 23rd day of March, A. D. 1901, M. P. Kinkaid, as administrator upon the estate of William H. Bice, deceased, as plaintiff filed his petition in the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, against the unknown heirs of William H. Bice, deceased, and the southeast quarter of section ten, township thirty, north of range ten west of the sixth principal meridian in Holt county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which, as to the first cause of action alleged, is to foreclose a tax lien legally owned and held by the plaintiff upon the defendant southeast quarter of section ten, township thirty, north of range ten west of the sixth principal meridian in Holt county, Nebraska, which lien was purchased by E. W. Adams of the county treasurer of Holt county, Nebraska, at private tax sale for the delinquent taxes due and owing thereon for the year 1898, and for the payment by virtue of said tax sale purchase, of the subsequent taxes when due and owing thereon for the years 1899, 1900, 1901, 1902, which taxes for all of said years were duly assessed for taxation in said county, the amount paid at said tax sale purchase being $29.86, and the taxes for 1899 $29.72; for 1900 $10.27, and for 1901, $12.33, and for 1902, $8.81; and for giving notice to the owner and occupier of said premises to redeem said premises from such lien there was reasonably paid four dollars; plaintiff claims on this first cause of action to be due him the sum of $69.00.

For a second and supplemental cause of action plaintiff asks the foreclosure of a tax lien owned and held by him and acquired by him as administrator of the estate of said intestate Helen A. Berry, deceased, by purchase at private tax sale of said southeast quarter of section ten, township thirty, north of range ten west of the sixth principal meridian in Holt county, Nebraska, for the delinquent and unpaid tax of the year 1898, for that year amounting to $10.95 and 1899, for that year amounting to $18.83, which taxes were duly assessed and levied, and assessed for said years and the same being delinquent and unpaid, that for 1898 was duly advertised and notice for sale in the month of October, 1899, for the delinquent and unpaid taxes for the year of 1898 and not being sold for said taxes, the county treasurer so reported to the county clerk of said Holt county and the tax for 1898, becoming delinquent and remaining unpaid, the county treasurer of said Holt county duly advertised the same and said premises for sale; said advertisement being made in the month of October, 1900, and said taxes remaining unpaid and having been duly offered for sale at public auction in the month of November, 1900, and not being sold for want of bidders plaintiff on the 18th day of March, 1901, bought said premises of the county treasurer of Holt county, the county treasurer having unduly reported to the county clerk that said premises had not been sold at public sale and thus acquired the lien paying the amount with interest and cost thereon for said taxes of 1898 and 1899 the sum of $34.47. Plaintiff's petition alleges said tax sale is invalid as tax sale for the reason that said Holt county charged to the owners of said land twenty cents for advertising the same for sale for the unpaid tax of 1898 and twenty cents for advertising for the same for the unpaid tax of 1899, but said county paid the publisher of the notice of such sale but ten cents at any rate, much less than twenty cents for each of said advertisements whereby said tax sale to plaintiff was invalid as a tax sale and said tax sale was invalid for other reasons whereby by reason of the invalidity of said tax sale plaintiff has become subrogated to the rights of Holt county in its relation to the owners of said land herein described and may proceed at once to foreclose said tax liens.

Plaintiff claims there is now due him on said second cause of action the sum of $24.47 and is entitled to interest at ten per cent upon that amount and also upon the sum of $50.00, alleged to be due him on his first cause of action until said amounts so due him be satisfied and plaintiff prays for decree that defendants be required to pay the amount of said sums so due him or that said land may be sold to satisfy the amount found due him.

You defendants are required to answer said petition on or before the 16th of May, 1901.

M. P. Kinkaid,
As administrator upon the estate of Helen A. Berry, deceased, plaintiff. 39-4

One-Third of Its People in One City.

Uruguay's capital, Montevideo, with its population of 216,000, contains almost one-third of the inhabitants of the republic, who number about 780,000, with an area of 72,000 square miles. Nearest to this among countries of importance is Denmark, 19 per cent of whose inhabitants live in Copenhagen. Of the population of the British islands, about 10 per cent inhabit the metropolis, while very nearly one-fourth of the inhabitants of Scotland live in its commercial capital, Glasgow. Christiania holds 10 per cent of the people of Norway, Brussels 8 per cent of those of Belgium, and Paris, 6 per cent of all Frenchmen who live in their own country. Holland, at its official capital, The Hague, and its two commercial capitals of Amsterdam and Rotterdam, has altogether one-fifth of the total population.—Stray Stories.

ROYAL JEWELS GUARDED.

When Not in Pawn These Baubles Are Carefully Watched.

Royal people are much given to the accumulation of jewels of great price, and they take especial care that these baubles are not stolen. Many of the so-called "crown-jewels" which are shown to visitors to the Tower of London are "paste," the real gems being secured in strong vaults in iron-bound boxes. The jewels of the Russian imperial family form one of the most valuable collections in the world. This collection is guarded in a fortified castle watched over by a special detail of 180 retired officers and a body of soldiers. For this service they are well paid. No officer who in his days of active service was addicted to gambling or to extravagance can ever hope to be selected as one of the custodians of the imperial jewels. The czar keeps a portion of his own private jewels in banks in London and Paris, so that in case a revolution should break out in St. Petersburg he would have an "anchor to windward" in the two foreign capitals. The treasures of the royal family of Italy are hidden away in deep vaults beneath a fort situated on a little island in the Tiber. Protected by the old, muddy stream overhead and the military on the island, the jewels are beyond the dreams of even the most daring and sanguine of burglars. The prince of Bulgaria is possessed of precious stones to the value of $5,000,000. These he keeps locked in a little castle on the banks of the Danube. King Milan of Serbia keeps such of his jewels as are not in pawn in London and Paris banks. A ruby necklace belonging to the king is said to be in pawn for $100,000. Some of the jewels belonging to the German imperial family are kept in London banks like those of the czar.

One Drawback to Deportation.

Minister Wu Ting Fang was recently told a story in regard to the Chinese exclusion act that pleased him noticeably. Soon after the act was passed the secretary of state received a letter from Pennsylvania, signed by a Chinaman. The writer said that he had come to this country under false pretenses and hence he should be deported to China immediately. The request was so strange that the secretary of state ordered an investigation. The agent reported a few days later that the Chinaman's statement about the way in which he entered this country was correct and that he should be deported. There was one drawback, however. The Chinaman had been convicted of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Reforms in German Language.

The Allgemeiner Deutscher Sprachverein is a German association to encourage the simplification and purity of the German language. One of its aims is to make both spoken and written German simpler, not only by using shorter and less involved sentences, but by the elimination of the use of foreign words in the social, business and scientific worlds. The headquarters of the association are in Berlin and there are branches in Milan and many parts of Austria as well as in London.

Prince Rupert in Disgrace.

A disaster second only to Naseby, and still more unforeseen, soon followed. Fairfax and Cromwell laid siege to Bristol, and after a fierce and daring storm (Sept. 14), Rupert, who had promised the king that he could hold out for four good months, suddenly capitulated, and rode away to Oxford under the humiliating protection of a parliamentary convoy. The fall of this famous stronghold of the west was the severest of all the king's mortifications, as the failure of Rupert's wretched courage was the strangest of military surprises. That Rupert was too clear-sighted not to be thoroughly discouraged by the desperate aspect of the king's affairs is certain, and the military difficulties of sustaining a long siege were thought, even by those who had no reasons to be tender to his fame, to justify the surrender. The king would listen to no excuses, but wrote Rupert an angry letter, declaring so mean an action to be the greatest trial of his constancy that had yet happened, depriving him of his commissions, and bidding him begone beyond the seas. Rupert nevertheless insisted on following the king to Newark, and after some debate was declared to be free of all disloyalty or treason, but not of indiscretion.—John Morley, in March Century.
