Populist patrols are beginning to rise up and offer themselves for service as candidates for county offices. Among those announced for treasurer are D. J. Cronin of Shields, John Robertson of Paddock and W. B. Cooper of Chambers.

T. B. Maring has sold 160 acres of his farm in the vicinity of Emmet to Oscar Laurence of Richland, Colfax county, who will move here this fall. Mr. Maring's son Jerome has been at Richland visiting and bought a team of draft horses while down there.

Mr. C. V. Carbaugh and Miss Amelia Anderson were united in marriage Monday morning by Rev. Rominger at the Methodist parsonage. Mr. Carbaugh has been cook at Hotel Evans for some months past and the bride is a niece of Fred Anderson of the Ogden hotel.

The 3-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed McBride was accidentally shot in the forehead with a bullet from a twenty-two rifle yesterday. The wound was not serious and the child is as playful as though nothing had happened. The child was playing with the gun when it "went off."

The 10-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tomilson, who reside in the Minneola neighborhood, died Wednesday morning after an illness of twenty-four hours. The funeral occurs today at Minneola. Mrs. Tomilson is a daughter of County Treasurer and Mrs. Henry.

J. L. Weatherwax of Paddock was in the city yesterday on business, among other things remembering The Frontier in a very substantial way. Mr. Weatherwax says they had a severe hail storm in his neighborhood last Friday which destroyed his small grain crop and damaged corn materially.

Last Thursday William Sardeson was in town with another specimen of diseased organs of vitality of an animal. It was the lung of a horse taken from a pony which had belonged to the McCaffrey ranch southwest of town. The animal was glanderized and Mr. Sardeson being called to examine it doctorred it with a bullet.

The Nebraska State Dental Co. cleans, fills and extracts teeth without pain. They also make those thin, elastic plates, which are as thin as pressed paper for $5. Satisfaction in every respect guaranteed. Don't forget the date July 10 to 15. 52-tf

The Frontier is in receipt of a letter from C. E. Norton of Randolph, Utah, ordering the Frontier sent to him. Mr. Norton is a son of ex-County Surveyor M. F. Norton of this county and is now practicing law and flourishing in Utah. When a boy Mr. Norton worked his way through the O'Neill high school by doing clerk work in Ira Lapham's hotel. He later taught school in the Hopkin's district and Butte, Boyd county. His friends here will be glad to learn of success and progress in this world.

Albert Webb came near being a dead man last Sunday evening. He was bathing with a number of other men and boys in the Elkhorn near the bridge south of O'Neill and got into the deep waters of the channel and was going down to a watery grave when hauled ashore by his companion bathers. The Elkhorn is over its banks and flows a mighty current of water. Albert could not swim and was sporting in the shallow water along the bank, when the bank gave away and the water swallowed him up. It was a very narrow escape and one that will be remembered.

Considerable interest was manifest in the annual school meeting held at the school-house Monday. The meeting was presided over by Moderator Trueblood and Sec. Hagensick. O. F. Biglin and G. W. Smith were elected to the board, C. W. Hagensick and S. B. Howard retiring. A levy of 15 mills was made for the general funds and 5 mills for teachers' fund. The amount of school for the next year will be nine months. An attempt was made to arouse a sentiment for the purpose of securing money paid as occupation tax for the benefit of the schools but it was the sense of the meeting that no such a move be made. There were thirty-eight votes cast at the meeting.

Last Thursday night a gale of wind swept down from the north with maddening fury and for a time made timbers quake and loose things rattle in the vicinity of O'Neill but wrought no special damage. It was but the tail end of a tempest that raged through the Keya Paha and Niobrara valleys and left death and destruction in its trail. An account of the storm in Boyd county is given in another column. The cyclone crossed the Niobrara river after wrecking barns, outbuildings and a windmill at George Mellor's place south of Lynch and wrought destruction to timber, crops and many buildings this side the river. William Wilson was in from the storm visited district yesterday and says the small grain crop was annihilated in his neighborhood. Everard Ricard's brick house was blown down, several barns, small buildings and trees innumerable were dashed to pieces. No lives were lost except in the Keya Paha valley.

On the evening of Saint John's day, Monday the 24th, Garfield Lodge A. F. and A. M. held its annual installation of officers, which was public for the families of the members, and the members of the Eastern Star. With Past Master J. J. King installing officer and A. B. Newell marshal, the following officers were installed: R. R. Dickson, W. M. E. J. Mack, S. W.; R. H. Jenness, J. W.; E. H. Benedict, treasurer; A. Baker, secretary; O. O. Snyder, S. D.; J. P. Gilligan, J. D.; B. T. Trueblood and John Skirving, stewards, and B. Martin, tiler. After the ceremony, the ladies of the Eastern Star served refreshments in the hall; and, owing to the entertainment at the rink, and the threatening aspect of the weather, there were many good things left over undisposed of, which, with Bro. Dickson doing the auctioneer act, brought fabulous prices.

Louis Stracke of Stuart, one of the prominent and wealthy farmers of western Holt, was in the city Friday last on business. Mr. Stracke warmed up to a good natured and interesting point when the political aspect of the country was touched upon and spoke very emphatically of his purpose to vote the republican ticket this fall straight through. "Whith but one exception," said he, "I have voted the populist ticket straight for twelve years, but this fall I am going to vote the republican ticket regardless of the candidates either party puts up." Mr. Stracke is a man who doesn't have to be told to come in out of the wet and is able to discern the times he lives in. Sensible men see the fulfillment of every republican pledge and are not silly enough to continue to battle against their best interests.

Is Yours one of them. There are a great many accounts still on my books that I expect to have settled before I go away. And I hope if yours is one of them I will not be disappointed. I expect to leave O'Neill July 1st or 2nd so the time is very short. Do not expect me to call on you or send a statement as it will be impossible for me to do so, nevertheless if you owe me I expect you to settle by that time as I need the money and do not wish to place upon my successor the task of collecting or looking after my old bills. Yours truly, J. P. Mann.

Closing Entertainment.

The closing exercises of St. Mary's academy were held Monday evening at the opera-house in this city. A very large and appreciative audience attended the exercises and for three hours were entertained in a manner new and novel to patrons of school entertainments. The beautiful allegorical drama, "Anima," in three acts, was presented in a manner to excite the admiration of all; representing the awakening of the human soul to a realization of the dangers of a world filled with fashion's frivolities, that lures the soul to certain destruction and an awful doom.

Through the influence of Faith, Hope and Charity, "Anima" discovers her true condition and casts aside her wicked complices and with true Christian faith embraces the three lovely graces, purity, purity and obedience, which leads her to God and happiness.

Too much praise cannot be given the youthful performers and their accomplished tutors, the Sisters of St. Francis. The entertainment was classical throughout. Miss Mary M. Hagerty is entitled to special mention for the grace and beauty of her "Anima." Her characterization of the part was indeed a revelation and a delight.

O'Neill should be proud, as indeed it is, of this grand educational institution, which is ranked by none other of its kind in the state, except one in Omaha.

The management of the entertainment was under the direction of Father Cassidy, the pastor, and was a grand success as are indeed all matters with which his name is identified.

Cheap rates to San Francisco and return via Fremont, Elkhorn and Missouri Valley railroad. Dates of sale, July 6 to 13 inclusive. Fare from O'Neill to San Francisco and return $47.25; stop-over both ways. Call on or write E. R. Adams, agent, O'Neill. 52-3

Tornado season is now here; have you property insured at once. C. L. Bright will write it and hand you the policy at once—no delay. Ask him about terms, etc. 51-2

Dress Making. I am prepared to do dressmaking by the S. T. Taylor system. Guaranteed fit. Shop first door east of pump house. 50. tf Mrs. E. W. Stansberry.
