CYCLONE KILLS 8

Naper News: A destructive cyclone passed through a strip of country in the valley of the Keya Paha about twentyfive miles north of Stuart last Thursday evening between 7 and 8 o'clock, with the result that seven persons are dead and seven others seriously, and some of them fatally, injured, besides a large number of animals dead and injured and several thousand dollars worth of propeaty destroyed. The dead are:

Jacob Grening, aged 55.

Maggie Grening, aged 8. Mary Crening, aged 6.

Two Grening boys 4 and 5 years old. Ciara Anderson, aged 7.

Ida Anderson, aged 5. The injured are:

Mrs. Grening, severely injured. Recovery doubtful.

Grace Grening, slightly injured. Mrs. August Anderson, shoulder badly shattered; will recover. Bertha Anderson, severely injured. Theodore Andersan, seriously crushed

Henry Mertz, leg broken. Otto Mertz, seriously injured about head and body.

When the News reporters visited the storm-stricken section this morning they beheld a scene that beggars description. The storm appears to have started near Fred Miller's place where a buggy was demolished. It traveled in a general easterly disection, | making zigzag movements north and south. In its course it touched the two places of Jacob and John Berg, destroying all the buildings at the former's place excepting the house, and injured three horses. The place of Mertz brothers was in its path and there is nothing left of their buildings, while two colts are missing and the brothers are among the injured-At Anderson's the granary was lifted up bodily and turned over, then set down in an opposite direction. Danie! Hildebrand's house was damaged, while one horse is missing. Jacob Walter has stock missing. After the elder Anderson's place was visited the storm seemed to follow a gulch down to John Huff's place, damaging his house and granary. From here it struck Jacob Grening's, leaving not a yestige of any building, and killing and injuring those mentioned above, besides four horses and other stock. Mr. Grening's body was found 80 rods away in a meadow, while two of the childern were found nearby in a pond and the other two in the brush, these two and their father not being found until this morning. From this place the storm parted. one part going north and demolishing the new claim shanty of Rev. L. E. Barnes, then pass. ing east. The other part seems to have gone across the river, cutting a path through the tall trees and heavy under brush, wrecking the new bridge, recross ing the river and picking up August Anderson's house breaking it into kindling wood. The destruction was so that they met again at this place and after doing their fearful work went up in the clouds. August Anderson was away from home and therefore escaped. The injured members of his family are mentioned above. After the storm H. Y. Willson swam the river and went to the assistance of the injured. Mr. Anderson and his brother, Will, had come down from the latter's place and togetaer they gathered up the injured and with great difficulty took them to the father's house mentioned above, where Dr. Zimmerman was called and rendered such aid as was possible. The mother and oldest daughter have good chances for recovery, while the boy is dangerously, perhaps fatally injured.

Preceeding and following the cyclone, heavy rains and hail fell all over western Boyd county and extending into Dakota. Hail stones fell measuring 12 were as large as goose eggs. No par- family. ticular damage is reported from the hail,

Butte, June 21: A small hurricane struck Lynch at 10 o'clock last night and in 200 miles of O'Neill. Dates of sale, threw over several buildings. No one July 3 and 4, good returning July 5 was hurt. Southwest of Lynch three E. R. Adams, agent. farm houses were blown to pieces and two persons were badly injured. Evert Ricard's brick house on the Niobrara was blown down and a child was badly injured. Farmers along the south side of the Niobrara were hailed out of their Rapid City, S. D., June 21: A terrific hail storm passed over this city today, doing great damage to buildings. Few houses escaped with whole windows. Hailstones seven inches long fell. Six miles west of the city the storm took the nature of a tornado. The houses on the Tittle ranch, occupied by F. N. Allen and family, were demolished and the inmates barely escaped death. Trees were torn up by the roots and carried long distances. The Silver City mail carrier and a woman passenger were overtaken and the buggy demolished, 75 both people being severely bruised.

Spearflish, S. D., June 23: Two hundred Angor goats were killed in the herd owned by C. A. Scott on the range north of this city by the hail. His loss will amount to something like $3,000. The hail did a great deal of damage in held at Neligh, on July 9, 10, 11 12, spots on the ranges and in the valleys. All of the counties in the Northern Hills, including Crook county, across the line in Wyoming, will have to stand heavy damages to bridges and country roads. There is scarcely a bridge left on perly come before the encampment the larger streams, even the steel structures being either washed out entirely or rendered unsafe.
