July Ladies Home Journalings.

Food cooks, to a certain point, more quickly in the open air than in a closed refrigerator.

We may love our homes ever so dearly and count them the most precious places on earth, but now and then we want to take to the road. Home will be sweeter by and by, and we the better able to attend to our duties there, if we have an occasional outing.

It is far better to dine after one's day's work is over, when one can rest and digest the food, than to eat and immediately hurry to work. People who go to bed very early should take dinner in the middle of the day and then take an hour's "nooning," as it were.

Jamestown, Virginia, where the English gained their first foothold in the New World in 1607, was burned in 1676. To-day nobody lives there. Little remains to mark the site except a crumbling church tower, dilapidated grave-stones, and remnants of the foundations of a few houses.

The whole island of New York was originally bought of the Indians for an equivalent of about twenty-five dollars. To-day New York has a population of about 3,500,000, which is exceeded by only one other city—London. Its wealth is enormous; its annual expenditures are more than twice those of the Republic of Mexico, and almost one-third as much as those of the German Empire with its population of 52,000,000. And it has become the financial center of the world.

ELOCUTION HELPS THE VOICE.

By Careful Training Harshness of Tone May Be Overcome.

There are some who deride the prevailing popularity among women of "the elocutionary fad," as it is contemptuously called. But those who have observed the effect of indulgence in this so-called mania have none but words of praise for it. The most noticeable defect in an otherwise excellent dramatic performance recently given in this city by a set of college girls was in the matter of voices. Of the large cast there was just one young woman who possessed a voice of anything like requisite quality. Hers was both rich and carrying and it was an added pleasure to listen to her lines as she spoke them from the contrast with the others. Thin, throaty tone, or, worse, those with a distinct nasal intonation, are bad enough to the sensitive ear when used in the key of ordinary conversation. When it is needed to expand such voices to the declamatory point, then lack of volume, displacement and mellowness are painfully evident. Faithful practice may do much to correct faults of emphasis and inflection, but the most sanguine coach will not undertake to make over a poor voice in a course of three or even six weeks' rehearsals. The possibilities of the speaking voice are beginning to be understood. Parents are discovering that it is a wise plan to cultivate in their daughters and their sons too, for that matter, an agreeable voice for the speech of life. Instructors in the art of developing the exquisite mechanism and wonderful capability of the human voice are springing up on every side. It cannot be long before it will be a positive reproach for a woman of education at least to speak in shrill, nasal or unplaced tones.

Cigarettes Outlawed.
The Iowa anti-cigarette law has been held constitutional. The court decides that the property of cigarette dealers and the owners of buildings where it shall be proved that cigarettes are sold may be attached for the payment of the tax levied under the new law. The case will, it is stated, be appealed.

Heard Walter Scott Speak.
George Croal of Edinburg, is probably the only survivor of the large assembly which in 1827, at the Edinburg theater Royal dinner, heard Sir Walter Scott acknowledge the authorship of the Waverley novels. Mr. Croal is now 91 years old.

LOST—July 4 at Bowdens grove, a small note book with red back and my name on first page. A liberal reward paid the finder for leaving same at The Frontier office.
P. J. Donohoe.

Stray Horse.
John A. Harmon will pay reward for return of a 10-year-old buckskin gelding; black points; weight 950 pounds; wore halter with 60-foot lariar rope attached.

Dress Making.
I am prepared to do dressmaking by the S. T. Taylor system. Guaranteed fit. Shop first door east of pump house.

American Schools Abroad.

President Harper of the University of Chicago announces that the university has begun to establish affiliated preparatory schools in different parts of Europe. These schools will be branches of academies which are affiliated with the university in this country. The purpose of this plan is to give opportunity to the children of the college age whose parents are traveling abroad during the year to have the benefits of foreign residence without obstructing the progress of their studies. Paris will be invaded first, and the American Home School for Girls will be opened at 20 Rue de Longchamps, on October 15. The work of the Paris school will be under the immediate charge of Miss Elizabeth Wallace, heretofore instructor of French in the University of Chicago, and of Miss Emma Baird, for many years principal of a girl's school in Kansas City. Berlin, according to President Harper's plans, is next in the line of march after Paris.

Quin Wouldn't Whistle Falstaff.
"Quin made his last appearance on the stage as Falstaff. The occasion was the benefit of his friend Ryan and the result such a financial success that the beneficiary wrote Quin the following year saying that he would like to repeat the benefit and asking him as a favor to appear once more in the same part. Quin in the meantime had lost two of his front teeth—a loss which so interfered with his speech that he declined his friend's request. His letter to Ryan was short, but characteristic: "My Dear Friend: There is no person on earth would sooner serve than yourself; but sir, I will whistle Falstaff for no man, James Quin."

An Indian's Sarcasm.
A good anecdote is told by the Bishop of Minnesota of the sarcastic powers of the Indian. "I was holding," says Bishop Whipple, "a service near an Indian village camp. My things were scattered about in a lodge, and when I was going out I asked the chief if it was safe to leave them there while I went to the village to hold a service. 'Yes,' he said, 'perfectly safe. There is not a white man within a hundred miles!'"

Gorgeous Attire for Dolls.
Japanese dolls are usually most elaborate and gorgeously attired, for the princely families keep these toys and pass them down to their descendants. The brocade silks for the doll robes are specially woven in miniature patterns on small looms. The wooden dolls are often beautifully carved and enameled. Besides the dolls themselves the Japanese toys include the most wonderful array of dolls' furniture, trinkets, toys, musical instruments, houses and gardens.

The "Bean" Was a Date.
Two years ago a Philadelphia lover of plants received from a traveling agent at Manila what was called a bean, producing a beautiful tree covered with flowers. The precious seed was sent to a florist at a cost of $1 a month for care and culture. As the growth at the end of two years was only ten inches, a botanist was called in and pronounced the bean an ordinary date seed.

NOTICE NON-RESIDENT DEFENDANTS.

vs.
Henry C. McEvony and Nellie A. McEvony his wife, Patrick Barrett and wife Mrs. Patrick Barrett, John McCann, O. F. Biglin, McCann & Biglin, Ella M. Mathews, the unknown heirs of George Hills, deceased, David Adams, H. A. Jandt and E. C. Tompkins, doing business formerly as Jandt & Tompkins, and Jandt & Tompkins, David Rowland, W. C. Beatty, Phenix Iron Works, a corporation of Meadville, Pennsylvania, Phenix Insurance company of Hartford, Connecticut, a corporation, and F. F. Gallagher, trustee, Edwin S. Eves, H. S. Ballou & Company, a corporation, Amanda Grantham, widow, Frank W. Kimberly and wife, and H. V. Kimberly, defendants.
The above named defendants and each of them will take notice that on the 23rd day of June, 1901, the above named plaintiff filed his petition in the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, against the above named defendants and each of them, the object and prayer of said petition being to foreclose a certain mortgage executed by the defendants Henry C. McEvony and wife Nellie A. McEvony to H. S. Ballou & Company upon the following described real estate situated in Holt county, Nebraska, to-wit: The east half of the northeast quarter of section five and west half of the northwest quarter of section four of township twenty-eight north of range eleven west of the Sixth P. M., said mortgage being given to secure the payment of a certain promissory note dated December 27, 1890, due December 1, 1901, for the sum of $900, said note drawing interest at 7 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually. Plaintiff alleges that he is the owner of said note and mortgage and that there is due him thereon the sum of $2,320 with interest from this date. Plaintiff prays for decree in which defendants be required to pay the same or that said premises may be sold to satisfy the amount found due and for other equitable relief.
You and each of you are required to answer said petition on or before the 12th day of August, 1901.
Dated this 1st day of July, 1901.
1-4 L. K. MOORE, Plaintiff.
J. C. DICKSON, Attorney for Plaintiff.

NOTICE.
Clark & Glen, a copartnership, James H. Clark, Joseph B. O. O'Neil, defendants, will take notice that on the 23rd day of May, 1901 George W. Bradt plaintiff herein filed his petition in the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, against the defendants together with Nelson Hartson, George M. Smith, Edgar C. Smith and Henry O. Jackson, the object and prayer of said petition being to obtain a specific performance of one certain contract in writing bearing date the 29th day of March 1893, whereby defendant Nelson Hartson agreed to sell and convey to plaintiff herein, the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter and the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section twenty-four, and the east half of the northeast quarter of section twenty-three all in township thirty, north of range eleven west of the Sixth Principal meridian, in the County of Holt, Nebraska; and to have the court decree that at the time said contract was made said defendant George M. Smith held such title as trustee of said Nelson Hartson, who was in fact the owner thereof and that defendant Henry O. Jackson now holds the same as trustee of the plaintiff, that the apparent mortgage liens of Clark & Glen, and James H. Clark and D. J. O. Fassell are no longer liens and that the same have been fully satisfied and that the apparent mortgage of defendant Edgar C. Smith was given without any consideration and was given with full knowledge that the plaintiff had long been in the open, notorious, exclusive and peaceable possession of said premises as owner and that he has equitable owner thereof and that defendant Henry O. Jackson long before pretending to acquire any interest in the title to said premises knew that plaintiff herein was the equitable owner of said premises and to have the title to said premises conveyed by said Henry O. Jackson to the plaintiff and such title quieted and confirmed in plaintiff as against all said defendants.
You are required to answer said petition on or before the 12th day of July, 1901.
George Bradt, Plaintiff.
4-4 By M. P. Kinkaid, his attorney.
