Working Night and Day.
The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up health. Only 25c per box. Sold by P. C. Corrigan.
Growth of New York.
The excess of births over deaths in New York is, on an average, about 5,000 a year, and if there were not constant immigration into New York from foreign countries and from other divisions of the United States, the growth of the city would be 50,000 in ten years, or less than 1/2 per cent in a decade. Actually, the increase in population is at the rate of 28 per cent. The territory of New York, which had 2,493,000 population in 1890, had 3,437,000 in 1900.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was left for the widow of the brave General Burnham of March, Me., when the doctors said she would die from Pneumonia before morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of Consumption. After taking, she slept all night. Further use entirely cured her." This marvellous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at P. C. Corrigan's drug store.

Her Son a Youth of 70.

Mrs. James Mills, of Woodham, Ont., who recently celebrated her one hundred and thirteenth birthday, will visit the Buffalo Exposition with her son, a sprightly youth of seventy-six. She is not sure about the Midway, and will consult her pastor before visiting it.

A Shocking Calamity.

"Lately passed a railroad laborer," writes Dr. A. Kellett, of Williford, Ark. "His foot was badly brushed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly cured him. It's simply wonderful for Burns, Boils, Piles and all skin eruptions. It's the world's champion healer. Cure guaranteed. 25c. Sold by P. C. Corrigan.

Agreed Woman Acquitted.

A woman in Adrian, Mich., who protested without avail against a gambling den which got all her husband's earnings, set out the other night with a can of kerosene and burned the place to the ground. She was acquitted in court.

Programs at Winter Resorts.

Northern winter resorts are a new suggestion, the programme for visitors including toboggan slides, iceboats, sleighing, skating, sun parlors and big log fires for evening entertainment.

Stood Death Off.

E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50c at P. C. Corrigan's drug store

Tallest in the Country.

In the Memphis Confederate reunion the battle flag carried at the head of the Texas Division was the Eleventh Texas artillery flag, and its colorbearer, Mr. H. C. Thruston of Mount Vernon, Tex., is 7 feet 7 1/2 inches high, a veteran of the war between the states, and may be properly designated as a product of three states, being a native-born South Carolinian, his early manhood being spent in Missouri (where he married), and for the last 37 years a citizen of Texas. He served four years in General Parsons' Missouri cavalry, General Marmaduke's brigade, is 71 years old, and probably the tallest man in the United States.

Stops Sale of Indian Lands.

The supreme court of the District of Columbia has granted the restraining order sought by the old Kiowa chief, Lone Wolf, who wants to stop the disposal of the Kiowa and Comanche reservation. This means that the recalcitrant members of the tribes are to have the benefit of a doubt, and time will be allowed in which to take evidence as to the charges of fraud and misrepresentation in getting the treaty adopted by the Indians by means of which their lands were secured to be sold to settlers.

Glasgow's Costly Epidemic.

The plague and smallpox cost Glasgow in money over $45,000. The payment is to be spread over five years, so as not to fall too heavily on the taxpayers.

Bird-Shot For Tiger.

No use to hunt tigers with bird-shot. It doesn't hurt the tiger any and it's awfully risky for you.
Consumption is a tiger among diseases. It is stealthy—but once started it rapidly eats up the flesh and destroys the life. No use to go hunting it with ordinary food and medicine. That's only bird-shot. It still advances. Good heavy charges of Scott's Emulsion will stop the advance. The disease feels that.
Scott's Emulsion makes the body strong to resist. It soothes and toughens the lungs and sustains the strength until the disease wears itself out.
Send for free sample.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., N. Y. 50c and $1.00; all druggists.

America's Three Martyr Presidents

President Abraham Lincoln, shot through head from the rear by John Wilkes Booth, April 14, 1865. He was attending Laura Keen's performance of "Our American Cousin," when the assassin shot through the door of the box. He died April 15, 7 a. m., when Stanton cried: "Now he belongs to the ages." He was in his 57th year.

President James A. Garfield, shot by Charles J. Guiteau, disappointed officer seeker, in the Washington, D. C., Pennsylvania railroad station, July 2, 1881. The first shot passed through the president's coat sleeve. The second ball entered his back, fractured a rib and entered his body, where it was found after death below the heart, having splintered the spine in its passage. He lingered until September 15, when blood poisoning set in, and he died on the 19th, at the age of 50.

President William McKinley, shot while standing in the Temple of Music, at the Pan-American exposition, at Buffalo, N. Y., by Leon Czolgosz, anarchist, who shook hands with the president, and him with his disengaged hand, September 6, 1901, in the afternoon. One shot lodged in the breastbone, the other passed through the stomach from the front. President McKinley died September 14, 2:15 a. m., at the age of 58.

Promoted to colonel for gallantry at the battle of La Quasina.
Elected governor of New York, November, 1898.
Nominated vice president with William McKinley as president, by the republican convention of 1900 and elected.
President of the United States, taking the oath of office, September 14, succeeding William McKinley, who was shot by an assassin.
Author of "Winning of the West," "Life of Gouverneur Morris," "Naval War of 1812," and works in hunting and western ranch life.

A PROCLAMATION BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

By the President of the United States—A proclamation:
A terrible bereavement has befallen our people. The president of the United States has been struck down: a crime committed not only against the chief magistrate, but against every law-abiding and liberty-loving citizen.
President McKinley crowned a life of largest love for his fellow men, of most earnest endeavor for their welfare, by a death of Christian fortitude, and both the way in which he lived his life and the way in which, in the supreme hour of trial, he met his death, will remain forever a precious heritage of our people.
It is meet that we as a nation express our abiding love and reverence for his, our deep sorrow for his untimely death.
Now therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States of America, do appoint Thursday next, September 19, the day on which the body of the dead president will be laid in its last earthly restingplace, as a day of mourning and prayer throughout the United States. I earnestly recommend all the people to assemble on that day in their respective places of divine worship, there to bow down in submission to the will of Almighty God, and to pay out of full hearts their homage of love and reverence to the great and good president whose death has smitten the nation with bitter grief.
In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
Done at the city of Washington, the 14th day of September, A. D., one thousand nine hundred and one, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and twenty-sixth.
(Seal) Theodore Roosevelt.
By the President: John Hay, Secretary of State.
