Mike Lyons returned Thursday last from a land business trip in Iowa.

John T. Walker was up from Page Friday having business before the probate judge.

Samuel E. Girt and Miss Dallis Dugan both of Ager, were married by Judge Selah the 10th.

Dont buy your fall and winter supplies of clothing until you have investigated the bargains at Manns.

Marriage license was issued the 16th to John W. Busch of Lynch and Miss Nettie E. Long of Dorsey.

If the wind can blow any harder and the dust fly faster than it did Tuesday nobody cares about it trying.

A party of forty-nine people availed themselves of the cheap rates from O'Neill to Sioux City Sunday.

Opening day at Manns October 6. We have a fine lot of clothing, dress goods and underwear for fall and winter.

FOR RENT—Front room of my residence; also two show cases, 6 and 8 foot, and counter for sale.—Mrs. L. Cress. 12-2

Mrs M. F. Harrington and children returned last Saturday evening from a protracted visit with relatives in Canada.

Sheriff Stewart was at Chambers Friday appraising some property and incidentally attending the South Fork fair.

It is estimated that about one-third of the hay that was in stacks during the rains in the early part of the month has been spoiled.

Dr. Key, president of the Farmers' National bank of Pilger, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs A. C. King of this city last week.

Jake Pfund returned Saturday evening from a business trip to Kansas he having property interests in that state which he was looking after.

For Sale—Twenty head of heavy draft horses—mares and geldings—Norman bred. Prices and term right.—F. M. Harrison, O'Neill. 12-1f

The heavy wind of Tuesday moved the old Pfunder building which George Weingartner has moved to the rear of the new building he is putting up, off from the foundation.

Andrew Johnson of Joy met with a bad accident yesterday while thrashing. His hand was caught in the machine and mutilated. He was brought to the city and Dr. Trueblood amputated the hand.

O. O. Snyder returned Monday evening from Indianapolis, Ind., where he had been in attendance at the Grand Lodge of the Odd Fellows of the world. Mr. Snyder represented the Grand Lodge of Nebraska.

Mose Elliott, accompanied by an old acquaintance from Iowa, Mr. Hitchcock, called Tuesday. Mr. Hitchcock bought a quarter section of land in the Scottville country and expects to move here a year from the coming spring.

Opera-house Thursday October 3rd. The event of the season "A True Kentuckian" a pretty southern play, a $10,000 production at popular prices. The best on the road is the verdict of the press every where. Reserve your seats early on sale at Corrigan's drug store.

Americans like to laugh, and this fact is not overlooked by the Schubert Symphony Club. Several numbers on their program as well as all their encores are full of fun, and you will be highly entertained by their program at the opera-house on September 28.

A replevin suit was tried before Judge Selah Tuesday. J. H. McAalister had taken up cattle belong to Charles Wrede Mr. Wrede replevined and the case was tried Tuesday. Mr. McAalister was allowed $10 damages by the court. The case was appealed.

A bank has been organized and will soon open at Orchard. A. C. King of this city is president of the new concern, F. McGiverin vice-president, E. A. King cashier. The Frontier understands Mr. King will remove to Orchard. The bank will be known at the Orchard State bank.

The program rendered by the Schubert Co., is entirely devoid of waits. Pleasing the people is a trade with this famous organization, and they know tireless waits are not a part of an enjoyable program. Although their program is bright and entertaining and contains a great deal pure fun, it is so refined in character and the laughs so wholesome, that it is endorsed and patronized by the most select people everywhere. Hear them September 28.

C. J. Viequist of Ray called for a few moments Monday while in the city marketing hogs at $6.25 the hundred. Mr. Viequist says he has lived in Holt county over sixteen years and this is the highest price he ever got for hogs. He reports a fair crop in his neighborhood.

Ed Gallagher was in Inman Tuesday looking after affairs preparatory to the opening of the bank there. A change has been made in the management of the bank, Elsworth Mack being the cashier. M. R. Sullivan will remain in the bank here. The bank expects to be ready for business by the last of the week.

Czolgosz' counterpart is found in the man who beats his wife. A man with a flat like a piledriver, an arm like the leg of a mule and a frame work fit to stand before Fitzsimmons, who will abuse by blows or tongue the woman he has sworn to "love and protect" is a worse coward than the assassin of McKinley.

Mr. Julius Brauder. This young American violin virtuoso will be heard with the Schubert Co., on September 28. Close application to study under the best American and foreign masters, coupled with rare natural talent, has enabled him at an early age, to win a place among the foremost artists on this acknowledged king of instruments.

The Frontier observes that Doc Mathews has again retired from the journalistic arena, selling his Little Rock Republican to the Arkansas republic "ring." Doc says he found it up-hill business trying to purify Arkansas politics and quit the job to engage with a New York insurance company. Doc got up a dandy paper at Little Rock and The Frontier hopes he has quit the business for good.

The celebrated actress Miss Myrtle Vinton and an Excellent Co., will present "A True Kentuckian" at the opera-house Thursday October 3rd. The play deals with the south it has a pretty hearts stay and makes one better having seen it. chmaxes are startling—The comedy is refreshing. The wardrobe worn by Miss Vinton is valued at $6,000. High class specialties are introduced between acts making it almost a continuous performance. Secure your reserved seats early on Sale at Corrigan's drug store.

The following appointments were made at the Methodist conference held at Neligh last week: William Gorst; presiding elder; Albion, E. T. Gorst; Battle Creek, J. B. Leadom; Boone, A. E. Flower; Barnswick; R. E. Mitchell; Chambers, L. Hedden; Creighton, J. N. Gartner; Elgin, C. O. Trumy; Emerick, H. A. Homaday; Inman, E. W. Wilcox; Lorreta, W. R. Phelps; Luch, J. H. Smith; Meadow Grove, E. E. Hunt Neligh, L. R. Dewolf; Newman Grove, Allan Bishop; Oakdale, J. M. Leidy; O'Neill, W. A. Roominger; Osmond, E. C. Throp; Paddock, E. B. Koontz; Pierce, J. G. Shick; Plainview, R. J. McKenzie; Plainview Circuit, L. A. Cook; Savage, R. W. Burton; Tilden, E. G. Hutchinson; Grose, O. W. Money.

Last Thursday there was as near an entire suspension of business throughout the United States as could well be obtained. Mourning drapings were hung out early in the morning in O'Neill and pictures of the dead president draped in black were displayed in many windows. Business places began to close at 10 o'clock and by noon every thing except restaurants and hotels were closed. General memorial exercises were held in the evening at the Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. Hayden, with music appropriate to the occasion. A glowing tribute was paid to the martyr president and the hand that caused his death and the spirit which actuated it strongly denounced. No former president, not excepting Washington and Lincoln, commanded so generally through his term of office the regard of the American people and no death was so universally mourned throughout the Anglo-Saxon world. A week of mourning was proclaimed at the court of King Edward VII.

Memorial services were held at the high school last Thursday for the dead president. The program rendered was: Song—"Nearer My God to Thee." essay—William McKinley as a Citizen and a Soldier; Miss Alice Turner; essay—"William McKinley as Statesman and President." Miss Collista Payne; song—"Lead Kindly Light," high school sextette; address by T. V. Golden; song—"America," chams. Mr. Golden said: "No president, with the possible exception of Monroe, was more generally beloved than McKinley. His name will be as dear to the American people as the names of Washington and Lincoln." The speaker said he had studied the character of William McKinley for the purpose of discerning what there was in that character to enable him to become so great a leader and to attain the position he occupied. "I do not believe in luck said Mr. Golden. "I believe the truly successful man is he who is endowed with the proper qualifications for success and who labors hard and unceasingly to attain it. His youthful work in school, his early manhood as a soldier, his later life as a congressman and governor and more recently his statesmanship displayed as president are proof of his character."

Attachment suits were begun Monday against the J. G. Trauerman ranch property twelve miles southwest of O'Neill. The Security National bank of Sioux City and the Elkhorn Valley bank of O'Neill are the creditors bringing suit. The O'Neill bank brings its action to recover against the real estate belongings of the ranch. The bank holds notes amounting to about $8,000 against Trauerman. The ranch comprises 1040 acres and buildings and the estimated value is considerably more than the bank securities. The Sioux City bank attached the cattle, hay and other chattel effects. They have claims amounting to over $12,000. There are something like 500 head of cattle on the ranch. Mr. Trauerman was in the city the first of the week, leaving Tuesday for the east. His representative here, L. C. Wade, informed the bank that arrangements would be made within the next ten days to clean up the indebtedness. The value of the ranch with its equipments is considerably more than the amount of the claims against them.

Rev. C. W. Lowrie of Lincoln is spending the week among old friends in the city, having come here to occupy the Presbyterian pulpit Sunday last. Rev. Lowrie has grown bigger, older and better since the writer and he bummed the streets a dozen years ago and we are glad to see him engaged in the great and good work of bettering a needy world. Since leaving O'Neill Mr. Lowrie has acquired diplomas at Bellevue, Princeton and Edinburgh and in public address shows that masterly touch of the scholar. It was an edifying pleasure to listen to Rev. Lowrie Sunday evening in a word portrayal of the machless character of the "Rose of Sharon," the Saviour of man. The speaker called attention to the unsatisfying things of earth and said that man might revel in the wealth and bauble of this world and his heart yet crave for something satisfying. Christ, the Saviour, was pointed to as the one to supply the need. Rev. Lowrie will return Saturday to Lincoln where he has been at home resting for a few months since returning from Edinburgh, and expects soon to take up permanent work in the ministry.

Our 1901 Piano. Saturday, October 6, will be fall opening day at Mann's. Beginning with that date they will give you tickets on a piano with each $5 cash purchase or payment on book account. We have distributed a number of pianos over this section and the people are acquainted with the value of the instruments we give out. On this opening day our store will be replete with new and up-to-date goods that will beat anything for bargains ever offered. If you are not ready to buy yet, come in opening day anyway and look over our big stock and see what you may want later.

MANN'S.

Norfolk Asylum Burns. Norfolk, September 23—The asylum for the insane in this city was badly damaged by fire today.

Three of the inmates are missing, but it is believed that only one lost his life. At 3 o'clock a blaze was discovered in the E ward of the hospital. At 4:30 it was beyond control and had burned out the new west wing entirely.

The attendants succeeded in getting out all but one of the 294 inmates, Victor Casper, of C ward. Attendant Tildenberg of the ward says that he brought Casper out in the hall from his cell twice and that he returned each time.

Having the other patients to look after, Tildenberg lost track of him and he is missing. A man named Jespersen of the E ward was rescued by chopping in from the outside. He was severely burned around the head and shoulders. One patient was rescued by means of a key tied to a fish pole, which was passed up to him. Patients John McGovern and Pete Oberg are missing, but are said to have been seen since the fire. Efforts to rescue the inmates were difficult in the extreme.

Shrieks and yells of some of them filled the air and many fought against the attempts of the rescuers.

Others were completely cowed and the attendants had no difficulty in leading them out of the burning building. The out buildings, including the laundry, chapel, kitchen and engine house, were saved by the use of blankets and salt water. The south side walls are all that remains standing of the main building.

The hospital has a fire brigade, but it was useless, as the water supply gave out before the fire could be checked. The hospital being over two miles out of Norfolk, the city fire department could do nothing.

It took six hours for the fire to burn from the west to the east end. This gave time for the people to remove all the furniture, doors, radiators, etc., in the east wing. The fire could have been checked at any time if there had been any water supply. Several times a bucket brigade was started, but was useless. The 294 patients are being cared for on the grounds. The loss is $250,000.

Manager Smith of the opera-house has engaged the Schubert Symphony Club for entertainment the 28th. The entertainment is on the high class musical order with a lady quartet and other attractions.
